SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 17, 1869.

THE ORANGEBURG NEWS IS THE ONLY PAPER PUBLISHED IN ORANGEBURG COUNTY, AND PAYS WEEKLY VISITS TO EVERY HOUSE AND HAMLET IN THE COUNTY.

We regret to announce the sudden death, on yesterday morning, of Mr. Frederick Theis, a good and valuable citizen of our Town.

OUR MERCHANTS.—The citizens of Orangeburg County need go no farther than their Court House to purchase supplies of all kinds needed and necessary for their every purpose.

A look through our advertising columns will tell you who these leading and enterprising merchants are. Their decided success proves their great enterprise.

We say to our farmers and citizens generally, there is no need for you to go to Charleston, Columbia, or any other town, than the town of Orangeburg to buy your supplies—for right here at your own doors, you can be supplied with all you desire.

We have received a communication, in reference to the organization of the Orangeburg Agricultural Society, which we will publish with pleasure, if the writer will send us his name.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. Kirk Robinson. All those in want of choice Groceries, and fresh fruit, will do well to give him a call.

The Card of Messrs. Geo. W. Williams & Co., Brokers and Bankers, Charleston, S. C., will be found in our columns to-day, to which we call the attention of our cotton planters.

A PROLIFIC COW.—Mr. Phil. Hutto, of the Fork, has a Cow that has given birth to five calves in three years.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Equitable Life Assurance Company. Mr. N. Austin Bull, Local Agent. It speaks for itself.

We also call attention to the change in the advertisement of the Piedmont. Mr. James H. Fowles, is the Local Agent.

We learn that our friend Mr. Ephraim Graves, came near losing his barn and out-buildings a few days since by fire.

We publish this week ten of the Townships, as laid out, giving the boundaries, &c. We hope to be able soon to give the balance.

COLD WEATHER.—The past week has been cold for the season. We had frost on Wednesday and Thursday mornings, and in St. Matthews, we learn, ice was formed.

We expect next week to publish the new Jury List. The Jury drawn at January Term to serve for the May Term, in accordance with Act of the General Assembly passed at Regular Session, will not be required to serve.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis will please accept the congratulations of the NEWS OFFICE, on their happy nuptials. May their matrimonial car be girded with golden bands of happiness, and their road through life, a gentle slope.

We have received the first number of the Evening Bulletin, published in Charleston, S. C., by J. W. McMillan.

See advertisement of Board of County Commissioners.

Senator Leslie, of Barnwell, has been appointed Land Commissioner for South Carolina.
