SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1869. THE ORANGEBURG NEWS IS THE ONLY PAPER PUBLISHED IN ORANGEBURG COUNTY, AND PAYS WEEKLY VISITS TO EVERY HOUSE AND HAMLET IN THE COUNTY.

Dr. Arnold Mack, a citizen of this County, we are sorry to announce, departed this life Wednesday last, at the residence of his father near Bull Swamp. He died of consumption. He never entirely recovered from a severe wound received in the late war. Dr. Mack leaves a large circle of friends and acquaintances to regret his early departure.

The Termagant of Bryony

"THE OLD MONSTRESS." An Original Story, by PAYSAN, written for the ORANGEBURG NEWS, will appear in our next. It is well written, and elicits much interest throughout. It will be well received, we know, as coming from the pen of a young Orangeburgian of considerable talent, for whom we predict sure success in the field of fiction.

A MOST OUTRAGEOUS PROCEEDING. On Wednesday night last the Post Office at this place was broken into and completely sacked. The letters and papers strewn promiscuously on the floor, and mostly torn in two, and otherwise mutilated.

This transaction is undoubtedly one of spite. Spite! but spite sadly misappropriated. It injures the community at large and misses the object aimed at, that of injuring the present Postmaster, T. K. Sasportas. The appointment of Sasportas by the Postmaster-General, as Postmaster at this place, though causing some little ill-feeling, with a few, has generally been quietly acceded to, and things were working as well as could be expected, the P. M. attending to his business politely and gentlemanly. The miscreant who broke into the office to vent his cowardly spite against him, is no better than he should be, and if there is any chance in the world of ferreting out the perpetrator of this cowardly action, and bringing him to punishment, it will be made use of.

A large circle of country suffers from this destruction of letters and papers, and we hear it denounced generally by our citizens as a cowardly transaction. The office was entered through a side window, by cutting a pane of glass from the sash. The office clock was broken to pieces and carried across the street and thrown into the church lot. There was no money in the office, and with the exception of a few packages of stamped envelopes the perpetrator carried nothing away, as far as is known. The intent was persecution, evidently, not robbery—and the sooner such characters go up the better for the peace and quietness of the county.

We have said that Orangeburg County was the best reconstructed County in the State and we still say it. This is we are certain, the first low and unmanly act of a political nature, that has as yet occurred in our midst, and it is almost unanimously condemned by our citizens as an act below the brutal instincts of a depraved nature, and shows evidently a very weak hand.

FURNITURE.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. D. H. Silcox, Manufacturer and Dealer in Furniture of all grades and descriptions, Charleston, S. C. He has the largest establishment of this character in the South—and we know by experience can compete with like establishments in any of the Northern cities in prices or quality.

Mr. Silcox and his work, however, are too well and favorably known to our people, for us to pretend to puff either, but he has added to his stock in trade the Elastic Sponge, a preparation for making Pillows, Beds, &c., which we must say appears to us to be a good thing. It is soft and elastic, clean and light, and cheap.

Hon. Horace Greeley in writing of this preparation, says: "I duly received the Bed and Pillows, and found them all right—at least I could suggest no improvement. I enjoy them thoroughly; I am ready to pay for them and to be quoted as one of their admirers."

The Independent Young America Fire Engine Company, we learn, intend moving sometime this month, somewhere in the suburbs. A good time generally may be expected.

We call attention to the card of White's Marble Works, 117 Meeting-st., Charleston, S. C. Mr. White's establishment is as old as the oldest of Marble yards in the State—and his slabs and tomb-stones are dotted all over the country marking the last resting place of loved ones departed. We notice several mounds, however, that are not thus marked, and we refer those interested to the beautiful specimens offered by Mr. White.

We are in want of three thousand shingles—and will pay five dollars per thousand for them if delivered by next Wednesday. Apply at this office.

All persons in want of Stoves, Tin-Ware and House Furnishing Goods, will do well to consult Mr. Wm. Willcock before supplying themselves elsewhere. This gentleman advertises in our paper this morning goods of this character on hand, and warrants the same to give perfect satisfaction—what more can you ask. Give him a call.

Mr. V. PITHAN adds to his advertisement this week, a list of Bread, Cakes and Crackers to be kept constantly on hand fresh. This is, we know, perfectly satisfactory to the good housewife.

W. P. RUSSELL & Co., practical Sash, Blind and Door Makers, Charleston, S. C., see their advertisement in this issue. Mr. W. P. Russell we are personally acquainted with. Dealt with him in ante bellum times, and therefore can recommend his work as that surpassed by no like establishment in this Country. Mr. Russell is a practical Sash, Blind and Door Maker, and allows no job of work to go out of his shop that does not reflect a credit upon him as a first rate mechanic. To those in want of building material we would recommend the establishment of these gentlemen.

We notice that Orangeburg County was represented in the State Agricultural Convention by the following gentlemen: Dr. W. F. Barton, D. R. Barton, P. S. Felder, J. R. Millhouse, A. P. Amaker, Thomas Zimmerman, Captain F. Wannamaker.

We hear that our friends in the lower edge of the county have been blessed with propitious seasons within the past week, and that vegetation of all sorts is growing fast. We hope that our farmers will be auspicious in getting good seasons everywhere this year, for upon their interests much depends.

MESSRS. McNAMARA & JONES have just received another new lot of the latest styles of Spring and Summer Cassimeres, and they offer them at low figures. Call at their store and examine the quality of the goods, and satisfy yourself in regard to prices. They will show you the different styles with pleasure. See advertisement.

Small-pox is raging at Panama. Richmond suppresses the can-can. Cuban bonds are shortly to appear in the market. Three Haytien paper dollars are now worth a cent in coin. The P. M. Minister of Greece was formerly a music teacher. Ex-President Pierce has recovered sufficiently to visit Boston. Cooper's novels in a Roman version are very popular in Athens. Patti will sing eight months longer at St. Petersburg for $40,000. Tobacco culture in Virginia and North Carolina is being abandoned. Fashionable invitations to dinner in Paris contain the bill of fare. Japan is said to contain rich deposits as yet unworked to any extent. The Catholic bishop of Peking has died after forty years service as such. A suit of clothes can be bought in Salt Lake City for six bushels of oats. Langiewicz calls Alexander "the scrofulous drunkard at St. Petersburg." The son of Prince Napoleon closely resembles the conquerer of Europe. Real estate in Havana is getting dirt cheap. A bachelor in Pike county is about to bring a suit for breach of promise against a wealthy widow who resides near Petersburg. A Western city, with a view of avoiding the expense of building sidewalks, buys cavalry boots for people who have to walk about.
