

Three Dollars for Two.—The Orangeburg News and the American Stock Journal only Two Dollars for one year. Send in your Subscriptions at once, as this offer will not be open long.

READER! We don't want to mark your paper with a X, but if you don't pay up we will do it. We are not asking you to give us anything, but we want you to pay us what you owe, that's all.

We have to pay cash for paper and labor, and all else necessary to conduct our business, and we hope our friends will consider our claims and meet them promptly.

Some of our subscribers complain that they do not get their paper. We can assure them that they are mailed at this office regularly every week. The neglect is not ours.

We learn that Miss Susan Bair, daughter of Mr. John Bair, living near F. Hole Church, fell in the fire, during a fit, on Friday, 19th inst. One of her arms was burned to a crisp, the other arm and her back were also very badly burned.

A little negro was burned to death on Sunday night, at the Rev. Mr. Chaplin's place, about eight miles from Town. It seems that a room attached to Mr. Chaplin's kitchen caught fire, and the mother with an infant escaped out of the house but it was impossible to save the boy three years old.

CO-OPERATIVE, BUILDING AND LAND PURCHASING ASSOCIATION.—This eminently practical and beneficial enterprise is about to assume "a local habitation and a name." Quite a number of good names have been added to the list at this office. It is probable that a meeting of those interested will be called next week.

The Board of Equalization will be in session from the 13th to the 21st of December, 1869, when our citizens will have the right of appeal from the Assessment of the Township Assessors to this Board, and we would advise those who have been erroneously assessed to appear before the Board. The advertisement of the County Auditor appears in this issue, to which your attention is called.

OUR TOWN—FIRE DEPARTMENT, ETC.—We like to chat with our readers about the growth and condition of their pretty and thriving Village. Nothing is more gratifying to us than to note, the signs of its progress and restoration. No town in the State has recuperated more promptly and rapidly from a more complete ruin than has Orangeburg. Not only are the debris of its conflagration completely removed, but the buildings that have arisen from its mouldering ashes are beautiful and striking improvements upon those which they have so promptly replaced. Already has Orangeburg restored itself. And yet its progress does not cease. New stores, new residences are springing up around us. Its business has increased in proportion with these outward tokens of its prosperity. Indeed these signs are the truest and most unmistakable indices of real business progress.

Germs of new ideas are everywhere and in every department of thought and enterprise developing themselves into living activities.

The disposition of our citizens and our merchants is public-spirited and liberal. They are ready ever to respond to and encourage enterprises that promise benefit to their community. This is doubtless the potent cause of our advancement. These are the cheering signs and promises for our future.

Our Fire Department is as well organized and as efficient as that of any town of comparative size in our State.

The "Young America" as an organization is, for its numbers and its concomitants, a model. Well officered and manned, thoroughly disciplined, they have proved themselves in their past career, to be up to their proud boast of "being found ever where duty calls them." They are prepared for the discharge of that duty and have been prompt and efficient to meet it.

The "Comet," our colored Fire Company, is admirably composed. Its members comprise the respectable colored material of the town. They are well disposed, and ever ready to do their part when called upon. Their company is in admirable working order.

And "The Hook and Ladder Company" has assumed a position in the near prospective. So generously and well have our citizens responded to their appeal for aid to purchase the Apparatus that the amount needed is almost already obtained. Its promises of success amount almost to assurances.

This organization will complete our Fire Department and put it in complete and effective condition. We would urge upon the Board of Fire Masters the importance of their attending to the supply of water. More fire wells are absolutely needed. The matter should receive the early attention of this Board and of Council. By attention to this important matter, our Town will have all the appliances and means for the prompt suppression of fires.

This end obtained will prove a material benefit to Orangeburg. The security and value of its prosperity will be enhanced. Our farmers, too, by their industry and enterprise contribute largely to the progress and growth of their County Seat. And they can sympathize with us in rejoicing at these pleasing tokens of our prosperity.

A bright little episode in its young career occurred at the meeting of the "Elliott Hook and Ladder Company" on Monday evening last. Captain Briggmann, of the Board of Fire Masters, and Mr. McNamara, of the Town Council, were present, and responded to the complimentary resolutions, which were unanimously passed by the Company, with very encouraging addresses, Captain Briggmann concluding by inviting the whole party to adjourn to his establishment. The invitation was accepted, and bumpers to the success of the "Elliotts," and the health of their generous host, were drunk of the Captain's rosy wine.

PARADE OF THE YOUNG AMERICAS. The monthly parade of this spirited company takes place this afternoon.

Messrs. Cartmill & Vince have a large and choice assortment of goods, which they are selling at remarkable low figures. See their advertisement.

Since reading the communication of "Householder" we perceive that he intends to advertise certain wares. We would call his attention to our advertising rates, which must be complied with before we can insert the communication.

THE SUPREME COURT.—The Supreme Court will meet in Columbia, on Tuesday next. The Circuits will be taken up in the following order: Eight, Seventh, Sixth, Fifth, Fourth, Third, Second and First.

Petitions for admission to the Bar must be filed on or before the first Wednesday of the sitting. The examination will be held the Friday following.

Messrs. Ezekiel & Co., have some choice Christmas Presents. Call and inspect them.

Our readers will find it to their advantage to peruse very carefully the advertisements in our paper this week.

The South Carolina Railroad Company has reduced its passenger rates about 20 per cent.

Why Do You Cough?—When it is in your power to relieve yourself; a few doses of Dr. Tut's Expectant will cure you and allay the apprehensions of your friends; moreover, it is pleasant to take, it produces no nausea, and strengthens the Lungs and throat to resist attacks in the future. Mothers need not dread the Croup when they have a bottle of this valuable compound on their Mantle-piece.
