

ADVERTISER'S NOTICE.—Advertisements for next week's paper must be handed in by Tuesday at ten o'clock.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections in the Senate to whom was referred the Abbeville contested election have reported recommending that L. L. Guffin, republican, be admitted to his seat in the Senate.

KEROSENE ACCIDENT.—On Monday night a lady at Dr. Salley's in filling the lamp with oil, spilled some on the hearth, which became heated, and blazed up, slightly burning the lady's hand, but fortunately doing no other harm.

THE MELISSA.—We notice that the Adjutant General has commenced publishing the list of names enrolled for the militia. All entitled to exemption are instructed by the act, to file their application, with affidavits in the Town Clerk's office, before the 15th of February next.

LUNATIC.—Dick, a colored man, arrested by the Town Council on the 4th inst., for riotous conduct, has been after examination, pronounced insane and was sent to the Lunatic Asylum on Friday night last.

Friend Patterson has just received a large assortment of Christmas goods. Well it will do you good to look at his goods. Just to think how nice those large, juicy mountain apples will be in a dumpling.

He has a lot of Bon Ton Surprise Candy, you will get a prize in every box See advertisement.

A PRIZE—GODDY'S LADY'S BOOK.—We offer the Goddy's Lady's Book for one year to the writer of the best Original Story. The decision to be made by a committee of gentlemen, to be appointed by the editor. The story not to be longer than ten pages foolscap, and the prize story and such others as we deem fit, to be published in the ORANGEBURG NEWS. Stories to be handed in before the 1st of February next.

COME QUICK.—Hundreds of our subscribers have come forward and paid up, so as to avail themselves of our offer, of the Agricultural Magazine. Renew your subscription at once, and get "The Stock Journal" and your county paper for one year for two dollars! We have sent for the January number of the Journal. Come at once and be in time for this number.

RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT.—The through train on the Wilmington and Manchester R. R., on the 13th inst. met with an accident near Kingsville, the front axle of the tender broke, throwing the mail and express cars, down an embankment, ten feet high, the cars turning completely over. The Express Messenger Capt. H. H. Leon, and Mail Agent Wiggins, were severely, but not dangerously hurt.

In reply to the criticism and abuse to which Judge Carpenter was subjected, in the Legislature during the debate on the Bill to increase the salaries of Judges, the Judge has written a letter to both houses, demanding an investigation of his official conduct.

DROWNED.—Oliver B. Brunner, on Tuesday night last, got out of his bed, and undressed as he was, walked out of the house and across the field, about half a mile, into Bull Swamp, and into Bull Swamp Creek, where he was drowned. The unfortunate young man was subject to epileptic fits, and it is supposed that he was suffering from one of these fits when he was drowned.

Wm. R. Treadwell, Esq., Coroner, held an Inquest over the body yesterday morning. The verdict of the Jury was that deceased came to his death by accidental drowning.

The "Negro Labor National Convention" is in session in Washington. South Carolina is represented, and the delegates from this State take a prominent part. One of them, Winbush, went far ahead of all the others in asserting the rights of the freedmen, proclaiming that the next United States senator, from South Carolina would be a negro, and that he himself was raising a colored militia regiment, that would whip out the Ku-Klux.

An Amateur Dramatic Club, at Barnwell Court House, are to produce "The Lady of Lyons." Why have we not an Amateur Musical and Dramatic Club at Orangeburg?

THE PEOPLE'S BANK OF SOUTH CAROLINA.—Mr. John B. Lafitte of this city, was elected, yesterday, president of the People's Bank of South Carolina, in the place of Mr. James G. Gibbs, who had resigned. Mr. Lafitte is a gentleman of high standing in commercial circles, and his large experience, business tact and undoubted financial ability will be of great value to the well known bank of which he is now the head. The People's Bank will, we believe, resume active business in a few days, and, if sound and able management count for anything, it will soon become one of the most popular, as well as responsible, banking institutions in the State.—Charlotte News.

A MAMMOTH HOG.—James G. Harris, Esq., of our town, butchered a hog last week, nineteen months old, weighing gross, 640 pounds, nett, 570 pounds, from the usual offal a detrimmings of which was obtained 120 pounds of lard. This beats any thing in the hog history of this part of the country. Its immense size is accounted for upon the supposition that it must have had some "whale blood" in it. Some judges have even gone so far as to pronounce it emphatically "a whale." Esquire Harris does not want to buy any pork this year.—Carolina Sparty.

The very worst thing that the enemies of Ex-Queen Isabella could desire is about to be realized; the infatuated woman is said to be writing a book.
