Monte of the Sel Sel Ser

There's none so welcome, so they say,

As six o'clock p. m.

How many children show delight At six o'clock p. m.! How many homes are rendered bright At six o'clock p. m.! How many little happy feet Go out into the busy street, With joyous bounds papa to meet, At six o'clock p. m.!

Thousands of tables draped in white At six o'clock p. m., The gathered families unite, At six o'clock p. m.; And as they eat the frugal fare, They quite forget their toil and care, And drop their heavy burdens there, At six o'clock p. m.

Then blow, ye shricking whistles, blow! At six o'clock p. m., And let the weary tollers go At six o'clock p. m. Ring out, releasing bells ring out ! And bid the welkin take the shout, And echo it all round about, "'Tis six o'clock p. m. !"

ONE OF THE LOST TRIBE .- One of the "lost tribes" has at last turnd up, safe and sound, in the shape of a people called the Falashas, who inhabit a district in Abyssinia, which has long remained a terra incognita and a blank space on the maps. They were visited by Mr. Halevy, a very intelligent French traveller, who has now communicated an account of his journey to the French Geological Society.

There were about 250,000 of the Falashas. They speak an Agua dialect called Falashina, or Kallina, and into this language they have translated a Gheez version of the Old Testament. They do not practice polygamy. They circumcise their male children on the seventh day. Their propar names are derived from Hebrew, Gheez and Amharsc. The institution of purification is practiced; the children are taught the Bible, psalms, prayers, and sacred history. In the synagogues the sexes sit apart. Incense is burned during the services. Their religious hopes are turned to Jerusalem, but their ideas of the Messiah are very indistinct.

They are wholly unacquainted with Hebrew, and know nothing of the ceremonies instituted after the time of Ezra. They have a religious literature written in the style of the Midrath. They keep the Sabbath rigidly; fast on Mondays and Thursdays; keep the 9th of Ab to commemorate the destruction of Jerusalem. They wash before and say grace after, eating; they have a traditional mode of slaughtering animals for food; they practice commemorative sacrifices on the holy lays, and also for the repose of the souls of the dead. Their women enjoy equality with men. They hold slaves, but liberate them after a servitude of six years.

A man lately made appleication for insurance on a building situated in a village where there was no fire-engine.

He was asked; "What are the facili ties in your village for extinguishing a fire ?"

"Well, it rains sometimes," he replied, with great simplicity.

A man who had several apprentices was accustomed to feed them quite largely on bean soup. This was all well enough at first, but after a little while, with each successive soup, a smaller number of beans appeared. One day at table, after the good man had said grace over it, a la Squeers, one of the boys, after a scrutinizing examination of the dish, was seen suddenly to rise from his chair, and commence to strip. "What are you about there, Tom?" exclaimed the master. Goin' to dive for a bean !"

When Patrick first tried peaches he said he liked the flavor, but the seeds lay heavy on his stomach. The Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph states that an effort will be made at the Œcumenical Conneil to issue a decree prohibiting any music but plain chant in the services of that church. The Telegraph opposes any change. The Attorney-General of Iowa decides that the legal Word "male" inclupes female; that, therefore, a female is a male, and that Miss Julia Addington is crititled to the office of superintendent of common Schools, to which the has been elected.
