The Press Conference.

The Columbia Guardian, and others of the State press have suggested that all of the editors of the State, opposed to the naurpation and corruption of our State government, meet together in conference at Columbia on the 16th inst.

The Charleston Noice, in advocating the suggestion, and arging upon all papers of the State to be represented this meeting, does not understand that the object of the meeting is to put forth a platform or any public declaration of policy, but to bring the anti-radical editors together "so that they may interchange views and opinions and make themselves acquainted by, conferring to g ther, with the feeling and desire of every section of the State," and ni

With this we entirely concur, and we carnestly hope that all of our contemporaries throughout the State will meet together in conference. Let us see what are the chances for us, in the grand offort of patriotism, that as a people we are about to make. Let us hear whether the people of South Carolina are ready to unite upon a course of action that has buried past delusions, that admits facts that are accomplished, and that has a bright ray of hope for our future.

Let the body of men who band themselves together for the redemption of their State, meet upon a piatform that knows no distinction of class, caste or color; which recognizes white man, and blackman, as equally CITIZEN I

Let us make one more rally, one more effort, and let us make it, upon a basis. and by means that are practical, sensible and that have a chance of success !

We trust that the Press of the State will meet at this Conference, and that they will agree upon a course to be presented, and advocated by them to the people, which will unite all the house citizens of South Carolina, white and black, in an effort to secure the government into the hands of the honest and the worthy, unite them upon this sensi ble admission of what is the reality of our situation, and which is the only effort that can be successful!

Signs of Progress.

The prompt action of the House of Representatives in the United States Congress, in summarily summoning to its bar for trial, its corrupt members apeaks bright hopes, that honesty is not entirely trampled in the dust of oblivion.

We hope that Whittemore's party will promptly repudiate this its exposedly corrupt member. Never mind how good a Republican he may be, however far he may go in promises and in asso ciating cheek by jowl, hob and nob, with the colored people, let them not harbor one whom the world knows to be totally unworthy of the association of honest men. Let the promptings of an hones heart, be heard and let the voters of his congressional district repudiate him, and hoot him from their midst.

Another sign of promise is the defeat of Butler's Georgia Bill, which would go to show that crushed as is our sister State "the Poland of America," as she has been called, there is a term to her "durance" and her humiliation. The defeat of this bill and the adoption of Bingham's amendment, will discontinue the terms of office of Bullock and the Legis lature of that State, and give the people the liberty and right of a ballot in 1870.

The Census,

The Census returns just published show the following facts:

In eitht Counties of the State, among which is Orangeburg, both races have increased, in sixteen Counties both races have decreased; in four Counties the whites have decreased and the blacks increased; in two Counties the whites have increased and blacks decreased. there are Marlboro and Sumter.

In, the whole State the whites have decreased 16,426, and the blacks have decreased 26,181. The excess of decrea of the blacks over the whites is 9,752. In 1860 the population of the State was 703,709; in 1870 it is 661,099. The new apportionment of representation consequent upon this census will

MODEL WORKERS. A farmer in Greenville has two model tenants. One of them, a white man bas lived on one of his farms for three years, and low pays more for rent than was produced on the entire place any year previous to the last three years. This man is really industrious, and although he has a family of eight or nine children has paid, beside his current domestic expenses, a good portion of a deby for mon ey advanced him by his landlord.

The other, a colored man, named Da iel Senborn, has been on the farm three years or more, starting with about bread enough for one year, and two small pigs. At this time, according to the Greenvilld Enterprise, he has as much bacon as he needs; has bought and paid for two fine milch cows; has a fine lot of stock hogs: has a good farm horse, worth of my neighbors have used pure Peruvian $150, upon which he owes $95; has pienty of flour for breakfast during the They tell me that mine surpasses theirs. year; has corn in abundance for bread I believe the Peruvian is better than any and stock, also fodder, and some to spare; other where the land is low and moist, has eightween acres of wheat, put in but to take land generally that is rich or proceeds will be his own; has a half in together, the Manipulated is more reliaterests in five bales of cotton, weighing ble than any other I know. GOLD .- There appears to be a gener al impression among the financiers in Congress that the recent sudden and continued decline in the price of gold is by no means permanent, and that although it may fall to 110, yet it will for some time fluctuate between that figure and 120. The probabilities are, howev er, that is will not rise above the last named figure. The question of the resumption of specie payments has not received any additional consideration a mong the Treasury officials or in the Cabinet on account of the decline, and it is understood that Secretary Boutwell is not favorable to any Congressional legislature looking to resumption, believing that in a comparatively short time the banks will sattle the question without any interference by the Government.
