A fine plantation for sale near Fort Motte. Sec advertisement.

WE call attention to the advertisement of our friend Peter G. Caunon, Cun and Locksmith, which appears in another column. There is not a more than Mr. Cannon. In him is supplied and Charleston, (31; South Carolina, (21; Northeastern, 31; South Carolina, (whole shares) (31; do, (half do) (31) a want which our people would sadly experience, in his absence. Besides he is one of Orangeburg's own sons, and every citizen should feel a pride in th encouragement of native talent and ger ins. Our friend has exhibited to several specimens of his workmanship In the the line of Gun locks, Stocks &c and so far as our judgment is concerne we can safely recommend to our re ders from what we have seen, that P. Cannon, Gun and Locksmith, at Mr Wise's old stand, is calculated to give entire satisfaction in the execution an finish of every piece of work entruste to his hands.

WADDILOVE WITLES !.- Particul attention is called to the advertisement Waddil ve Witless."

.. This young man advertises for a wife. Any young lady desirous of taking "him lip," can can either address the editor of this paper, or the advertiser himself. We know him, husband hunters, and he is really a nice little fellow. Has a large heart.

MERRY CRRISTMAS!!!!--Just look at Kohn & Bro.'s advertisement. Shooting crackers, bird hunting, love adventures are nothing compared to it. A thousand beautiful things are announced in it. Everything to make the heart feel merry Christmas is in their store.

. He and see them-if you don't a small fortune will be lost.

STEEL ENGRAVING OF GEN. ROBERT E. LEE. An advertisement in another apply to dec 10-3t column of this issue, offers a Steel Demands against the Estate of W. T. Demands against the Estate of W. T. McLewn, deceased, late of Orangeburg subscribers to The Southern Press, this number of which contains a large woodout with an outline of his life.

Gen. J. B. Kershaw publishes in the Charlacton papers an address dissolving the Union Reform Party. We have not time just new to notice it at length. Perhaps we may de so in a future time.

Baron Gerolt, the Prussian Minister dees not appear to indulge in very strong hopes of the capitulation of Paris. In conversation the other day, he stated that he had received no official disputches other than the last circular of Bismarck, already published, What that the situation was by no means as wicouraging for the Pression army as it was on the original investment of Paris. The cord Weather and the intense enthusianth of the Freuch. he said, might yet Tedeem Paris.

LOCKS TO LOOK AT .- They are now making at Colta's factory a new patent lock for the United States mail bags. When fastened, a numbered plate of glass covers the key-hole, and this glass has to be broken before the bag can be unlocked or tampered with. It is said to be the most complete lock invented 5:000 of them have been ordered by the Post Office Department.
