

J. FELDER MEYERS—Editor,

GEORGE HOLIVER, Financial and Business Manager.

SATURDAY, APRIL 15, 1871.

Lieutenant-Governor Ransier.

We had the pleasure of meeting this faithful and honest Republican in Charleston the other day. Conferred with him upon the situation. It was extremely gratifying to us to hear him utter a solemn approbation of the course taken by the ORANGEBURG NEWS. Governor Ransier is now contributing to the Daily Republican a series of articles upon the situation. They certainly reflect a deep interest, felt by Mr. Ransier, for the country in general. We will commence the publication of them soon.

THE COLUMBIA Union is edited by L. O. Carpenter. It is a Republican paper—so is the ORANGEBURG NEWS. But despite this fact; despite the community of charitable feeling that should exist between all journalists; despite the truth that we have done more for the Republic party (in our county) than the Union editor; despite that sentiment of honorable feeling that should, and has always moved the breasts of those connected with the press, towards each other; despite the impulse that actuates fair and honorable controversies, especially between men of our craft, yet despite all these, the editor of that paper, in an unfair, unjust and unwarranted manner pitches into us. And for what? Because, forsooth, we are against high taxes, and the men who have come here to rob us; because, in other words, we have the manliness, when we see anything wrong in the Republican party, to say so, and further, put the seal of our condemnation upon it; because we cannot, and will not sanction dishonesty, corruption and fraud; because we weep with those of our people who weep on account of an enormous taxation; because we are Republican and honest; because we cannot utter an unqualified approbation of all the doings of some Republicans, the Union forgets all fairness, and flings deadly missiles at us. But we are unterrified. The fling at us falls harmless upon our shoulders. Gods! how mistaken that editor is.

THE Union goes deeper into malignity. It says if the taxes are high, it is a fault of the editor of this paper, because we are Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners. In our charity we can forbear saying what we might with propriety assert. Let the Union know, however, that we had not yet been commissioned by the Board of Equalization for this County met. The equalization (?) had been made, and the Auditor's books almost completed when we took our seat. Had we been installed at the time, the taxes of Orangeburg County would not have been so high, that is, if our voice could have had any effect.

What our contemporary says about the County Commissioners, we will answer by asking its editor to read the presentment of the last Grand Jury, of this County. The Union ought to be particular.

It doesn't know that there are no charges against the New Board, therefore its mistake. And when "the grave charges" and the "astounding developments," of which that paper speaks are established, and laid open to the public gaze, we will then have something to say to the editor of the Union. "Till then we leave the matter. We leave it for the next Grand Jury to ponder; we leave it for honorable gentlemen to give us that vindication which our contemporary has so long been promising.

All we have to say is this: That we would not publish anything defamatory of a brother journalist, no matter how desirous we do, without first satisfying ourselves of its authenticity.

THE COLUMBIA Union says: "The gravest charges have been made against the County Commissioners of Orangeburg, and astounding developments are expected. If there has been any swindling there, we hope those engaged in it will be ferreted out and punished to the fullest extent of the law."

Can the Union comprehend us when we say that we have adopted every measure possible to discover if any "swindling" has been going on? As soon as the "developments expected" are made, our contemporary shall know it.

We opine, however, it will then change its tune. We call upon the public to watch it.

Taxes.

HEBRON TOWNSHIP, FORK OF THE EDISTON, April 10th, 1871.

Mr. Editor—It has been some time since I have troubled you with a line; but, sir, if I was one of the seven sleepers, or inhabited the inner caverns of the earth, the heart-rending cries of my countrymen would arouse me, and when I am aroused, I must talk, and when I talk, I talk plain, and my talk now will be about that outrageous imposition, the taxes. Our generous General Assembly say that they passed the Act to collect the tax for 1871, in the fall of 1871, because the people are better provided at that time to pay taxes than at any other time of the year. Some few may have been hoodwinked; but, Mr. Editor, the leaders, (the carpet bag element of the Legislature,) work for no such consideration. They are trembling in their shoes; for they stand on their souls. They know that the Legislature that will meet December 1872, will meet without them. The Halls that have rung with their eloquence (?) for so long, will thus ring no more, forever. Alas! how sad the thought to all true Carolinians! Yet we can spare them; we must spare them! Their sufferings in a future State will be so great, that I, at least, am willing to allow them to retire to the mountains of Epidium, State of Massachusetts, to await their awful doom. I can imagine, Mr. Editor, that I see the old D—l with that Saint, Whitmore, suspended on his three-pronged pitch fork, at the head of a host of arch-fiends, who each have a carpet-bagger's carcass, suspended, and all on their tramp to hell. So mote it be, amen. But I have digressed. These fellows knowing that they will be ousted in 1872, of course, wanted to get a hold of as much of the people's money as possible, before that event took place. As the law stood, they could have only collected the taxes for 1870 and 1871—but by collecting the tax for '71, in the fall of '71, their financiers, Parker & Co., could have a lick at the taxes collected for '72. Do you catch the idea, Mr. Editor? Cute ain't it. But I have heard that all yankees are good at cute tricks, and that they never have a hole in the bottom of their pockets. I doubt if the few deluded corn field colored Carolina gentlemen who represent us at the seat of Government, saw the trick. Now, Mr. Editor, let us fight the devil with his own element. These suck egg dogs want our money—well, we have a use for all we have and all we can get, so let's keep it. Don't let a man, a single tax-payer pay a dollars tax in Orangeburg County this fall, and, we have them on the hip. Resolve to buck and gag the Sheriff, the Treasurer, or any and every other man who offers to make a levy on a single thing for taxes, and send them over to me, here in the fork, I'll take care of them. I'll hide them! And that man who makes a purchase, to furnish means to satisfy a tax execution—let's resolve that silent requiems shall be sung in lonely places. I mean what I say, Mr. Editor, and stand ready to head the list of those who will determine never to pay another tax, until Carolina is wiped.

Justice! Justice! By the Gods: let's have justice. This is all I have to say now. Next week perhaps, you will hear

LEO IN THE FORK.

P. S.—I see you have woke up a last Mr. Editor—your leader in your last issue—was a stunner. Give them fits. They can stand double-rectified doses—these slippers and gowned carpet baggers. Folks tell me just as soon as they get an office, they invest their last ship platter in slippers and gowns. I have been told the reason they like slippers is, because they wear the heel of their foot in the place where we have the hollow, and I can imagine that the gown is liked because its folds cover the pockets, and you can't see how stuffed they are with the people's money.

P. S.—Some one says to refuse to pay the taxes would bring civil war—well, if so, I say then, let her come

[COMMUNICATED.]

Mr. Editor: Your last issue pleased me hugely. I am a Democrat, but have always commended, even in an enemy, a course that had the seeming of honesty. I have no time to write at length. Will give you an article for your next issue, if it be not a rule of your paper to hush the voice of an honest Democrat. An honest Republican I do not hate. Your course, sir, shows that you are one.

ANTI OPPRESSION.

[We will say to our correspondent that whilst our paper is Republican, its columns are accessible to all parties. Any communication temperate in its tone will be published. Thanks to "Anti Oppression," for his endorsement of our course. We intend to pursue it fearlessly, and shall not be read out of our party, either.—Ed News.]

BOILED AND SCRAMBLED EGGS.—During the winter of 1869 a drummer, visiting Wilmington, North Carolina, stopped at one of the first class hotels. At the breakfast table he gave an elaborate order to the waiter and included in it "two soft-boiled eggs."

Sambo went off to the kitchen, but soon returned, and asked: "Mass Boss, did you want dem eggs scrambled?" "No," said the drummer, "I want them soft-boiled." "All right, sar," and off he trotted again. In a few moments he loomed in again, and remarked, in a most persuasive tone: "Mass Boss, you better have dem eggs scrambled!" "What do you mean?" roared Harry. "Well," said Sambo, "Mass Boss, I'll tell you; dem eggs ain't very fresh, and they'll look better scrambled."

THE FUTURE PROSPERITY OF THE SOUTH.—There can be no doubt that it would contribute greatly to the future prosperity of this section of the Union if many amongst us would turn their energies and capital in new channels of enterprise and business. The old roads are clear, but they are worn and crowded. Blaze a new path through the woods for yourself, young man, and you will arrive at the goal of success ahead of your competitors. A striking example of the value of this precept is found in the case of Mr. P. P. Teale, of Charleston, S. C., a plain mechanic, who has made himself the head of a large manufactory of doors, sashes and blinds.

THE "PAIN KILLER" may justly be styled the greatest medicine of the world, for there is no region of the globe into which it has not found its way, and been largely used and highly prized. Moreover, there is no climate to which it has not proved to be well adapted for the cure of a considerable variety of diseases; it is speedy, and is remedial for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, wounds and various other injuries, as well as for dysentery, diarrhoea and bowel complaints generally. It is admirably suited for every race of men on the face of the globe. It is a very significant fact, that notwithstanding the long period of years that the "Pain Killer" has been before the world, it never lost a whit of its popularity, but, on the contrary, the call for it has steadily increased from its first discovery, and at no previous time has the demand for it been so great, or the quantity made here so large, as it is to day. Another significant fact is, that nowhere has the Pain Killer ever been in higher repute, or been more generally used by families and individuals, than it has been here at home, where it was first discovered and introduced. That the Pain Killer will continue to be, what we have styled it, the great medicine of the world, there cannot be the shadow of a doubt.—[Providence Advertiser.]
