

Newspaper extracts are being introduced in some of the Courts now as law.

Was there ever a lawyer who made a speech, and woke up next morning famous? Yes, one, but this deponent sayeth not.

The Firm of Meroney and Sain has been dissolved by the withdrawal of Mr. Sain. Mr. Meroney will still continue the business, and promises that none of his friends shall suffer by the dissolution.

"Miss, will you take my arm?" asked an old bachelor of an old maid anxious to marry. "No! yes, and you, too," replied the maiden, whose days of five and twenty were fast receding from her.

The proprietor of the Yorkville Enquirer offers three hundred dollars in prizes for the best original stories delivered to him by the 15th of October, 1871.

An old maid delivered a speech at a banquet at Sioux City not long since, and concluded as follows: "Let others do as they please; as for me, I am determined to have a husband as soon as I can get one."

That's what you call a climax, isn't it? How that poor thing must be paining for a husband! And how adamant must be the hearts of the rougher sex in Sioux City! You bet that many ladies couldn't make that declaration about these "diggings" without getting two or three husbands, that is, if she wanted that many.

Dr. T. BERWICK LEGARE.—This gentleman has established himself over the store of Capt. John A. Hamilton, and is prepared to practice his profession in all its latest and most approved branches.

And now that the most objectionable part to many persons in having their teeth treated—the pain—can be avoided, we hope that we will never hear it said again that Miss So-and-so is beautiful, but she has bad teeth.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD. The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvelous. It cures all cases of Scrofula, where the system is generally saturated with corruption, and has been purified and cured by it.

they were painfully afflicting, have been cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses. Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this disease is unfeeling tenacity of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of "nebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its insidious forms, either on the surface, or in the interior.
