

LOCAL.
SATURDAY, AUGUST 12, 1871.
All Advertisements must be handed to the Business Manager before Thursday Noon.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH—We are requested to state that a protracted meeting will commence at this Church, in Orangeburg, on to-morrow. Several ministers will be present. We are glad to learn that this Church, under the Pastorate of the Rev. A. P. Norris, is being rapidly built up. We bespeak for the meeting a full congregation as long as it continues.

Mr. W. T. Lightfoot has commenced to build upon his place, on the corner next to Messrs. Cartmill & Vince. We understand it is to be a splendid edifice.

THEODORE KOHN & BRO.'S advertisement is in another column. As usual, these gentlemen advertise a large and fresh amount of fancy dry goods, of all qualities, on hand—give them a call.

OPPOSITE THE NEWS OFFICE—Wm. M. Sain & Co. are out again this week, in a new dress. This is a thorough-going firm, as one may see by reading their advertisement.

We hear that there are seventeen candidates in this County for School Commissioner. Some of them once swore themselves, when they were Magistrates. God! Lord, deliver us!

THE JAIL—We paid a visit to the jail yesterday morning in company with several gentlemen. We went upstairs, and the atmosphere was too much for us. The thing was, we had to come down. We would suggest that the Sheriff have it cleaned out.

Oh Mayor Bull! Good Mayor Bull! You just ought to have seen the doings of a crowd of hogs that were frisking in front of our office on Thursday last. How long! How long!! Can such things be and overcome, like a summer flea, without our special vendor? Oh no! oh no!!

MARSHAL WOLFE seems determined on carrying out the "Side Walk" ordinance. The other day we saw a son of a hunch attempt to ride on one of the pavements, when, in refusing to desist, received a nice rap on his head. He got sober, and struck a canter for home. Since then the cry has been, "Bully for the marshal!"

THE FALL TRADE—Fall will soon be upon us now, and those who expect to do a big business will advertise in the ORANGEBURG NEWS. We have NINE HUNDRED subscribers in the County, and they are all intelligent and reading people. They take their paper and pay for it. They read it through and through every week, and the merchants whose advertisements they see in our columns, they take it for granted are doing a sure and healthy business, and that they must, for economy's sake, give them their trade. Well it is just so. The merchant that doesn't advertise in his County's journal, may be regarded as not doing the best business in the world.

Let our subscribers pay a visit to the stores of the merchants of our Town, who have their advertisements in our columns, and they will be surprised at the low figures goods are offered for. It's just this: Those who advertise are doing a good business, and can afford to spare a little money to let their customers know what they have. That's all.

RAIN—We had a delightful rain on Thursday last. Nothing could have been a more pleasant surprise. Men were suffering, crops were suffering, the hogs that run loose about the streets, and a great many other things—all were suffering. The rain seemed to impart new life to everything. Men breathed easier, the face of nature looked prettier, and all sorts appeared happier than before. What a glorious thing a good, cool, soothing rain is, in such weather as we have had for the past two months. Here we have been almost melting, burning up for the want of it. Thank God it has come—at last. We heard once of an eccentric old gentleman who had unbounded faith in prayers. A drought, like the one we have had, came. He became almost crazy. One day he posted a notice about upon the trees containing these words:

"Brothers: All ye that have faith in the Lord, meet with us at Damascus on Saturday next. Our country is burning up. Let us pray to Heaven for a shower; and as our faith is, so it shall be."

If it turns hot again, and we should have no more rain for a season, and such a call should be put forth in this community, and we should not happen to see it, let our friends remember that if they lack numbers to make up the quota, to offer up the petition, that we are always on hand. Anything to keep from drying up. We will leave that for the old maids.

LAGER BEER CONTAINING COFFEIN, LIME and ALL the best of the latest discovered in New York.
Professor Hayes of New York, analyzed the Beer from 3 dozen different Breweries, and all were found adulterated with noxious substance. It is said, that the sale of Drugs to Breweries, is a profitable part of the trade. This is perfectly infallible Cockburn's (fish berry), nux-vomica, (dog button) from which strychnine is obtained, are some of the delectable substances found in Beer! These are potent poisons, and the Brewer found using them should be drowned at once in one of his own vats.

P. S.—I am willing to be drowned in my own vats, if any impurities should be found in my Beer.
I shall continue to make a beautiful Beverage, so that it may be drunk by the most delicate without the least danger.
