

WHAT'S IN A NAME?—In an eastern town there is a woman who is exceedingly deaf, and her affliction has caused an extremely unpleasant mistake, of which her infant child is the victim. She took the babe to church the other day to have him baptized. While she waited in the vestibule, she thought she would keep him quiet by feeding him from a bottle of milk. While the child was still taking his nourishment, the mother was summoned to the church by the announcement that the minister was ready. In her agitation she drew the bottle from the child's mouth hurriedly, when the gum nozzle came off and a part of the milk was spilled on the child's new clothes. When the clergy took the child in his arms he looked down upon it and asked the mother what name should be given it. She, with her mind troubled with the accident, thought he was asking how the clothes became soiled, so she answered: "Nozzle came off."

Rather surprised, he asked again for the name, and she, thinking he did not understand her, bawled out: "Nozzle came off I say."

Whereupon the astonished divine poured water on the child's head saying: "Nozzle-came-off Ferguson, I baptize thee," etc., etc.

What this woman wants to know is, whether the legislature, or something, can't have that child's name changed to Henry, or Lucullus, or William, or some other euphonious appellation.

A DISTRESSING CONUNDRUM.—The New Orleans Picayune tells of an ambitious young debater in a village society who propounded this abstruse conundrum: "Eff' man plants a watermillion seed next to his fence; and this 'ere watermillion seed sprouts up into a watermillion vine; and that 'ere watermillion vine grows over that 'ar fence into another mans lot adjacent; and in that other mans lot, so adjacent, that 'ere watermillion vine that sprouted from that 'ere watermillion seed and meandered thro' that 'ar fence into this 'ere other mans lot adjacent; tharin consolidates and homologates into a watermillion, the question, fellar citizens and ladies, is: To which of these 'ere men did that 'ar watermillion, so homologated and promulgated, belong? to the man who planted that 'ere watermillion seed that meandered thro' that 'ar fence into this 'ere mans lot adjacent and that so consolidated into a watermillion; or to the man who owned this 'ere lot so adjacent, whar was so promulgated the watermillion that so exergated from that 'ar watermillion vine that meandered thro' this 'ere fence and so sprouted from that 'ar watermillion that 'ere man thar planted?"

"I don't miss my church so much as you suppose," said a lady to her minister who had called upon her during her illness, for I make Betsy sit at the window as soon as the bell begins to chime and tell me who are going to church, and whether they have got anything new.

SEEGERS' UNADULTERATED ALE AND LAGER BEER.
LAGER BEER, CONTAINING COFFEIN, RAS and ALE doctored with Salt, Lard and Alum, are the latest adulterations discovered in New-York.
Professor Mapes of New-York, analyzed the Beer from a dozen different Breweries, and all were found adulterated with noxious substance. It is said, that the sale of Drugs to Brewors, is a profitable part of the trade. This is perfectly infamous Cocculus indicus (fish berry) aux-venicis (dog-burton) from which strychnine is obtained, are some of the deleterious substances found in Beer! These are potent poisons, and the Brewors found using them should be drowned at once in one of his own vats.
P. S.—I am willing to be drowned in my own vats, if any impurities should be found in my Beer.
I shall continue to make a beautiful Beverage, so that it may be drunk by the most delicate without the least danger.
