

LOCAL.

SATURDAY, DEC. 8, 1871.

All Advertisements must be handed to the Business Manager before Thursday Noon.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

We want money. Not an uncommon want at all. We have been indulging our friends as long as we are able. Those from whom we purchase our materials to print this journal demand cash for every order filled.

PERSONAL.—William G. Tyson, of the Charleston Daily News, was on a visit to Orangeburg during the last week. It will be remembered that Mr. Tyson resided in our County some time ago.

J. FELDER MEYERS, was in Orangeburg on Thursday last.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.—We invite the attention of our readers to the synopsis of the message, to be found on the first page of this issue. The resume is carefully prepared and presents, we think, the salient features of the document, in a well culled form and brief view.

OUR MEMBERS.—Messrs Reddish, Byas, Jamison, Danahy and Wallace, our Representatives in the State Legislature, are at their posts and at work, some of them prominently, on the important questions before that body.

TO TAXPAYERS.—We never advise our friends to do anything that we think will injure them. Our advice is to pay the taxes. Those who delay will realize the significance of our counsel when it is too late.

ELECTION NOTICE.—Our advertising columns this week contain the notice of an election to take place on Wednesday, 20th inst. A Senator is to be elected to fill the unexpired term of Hon. Jos. A. Greene.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS!—Read, friends read the advertisement of Capt. John A. Hamilton of a nice lot of nice things, and material to make nice things. Just the articles for the holidays: Crackers, raisins, currants, nicest cheese. Read and ponder!

Read in another column the notice of a sale of cattle, hogs, household and kitchen furniture, piano, buggy, wagon, etc., to take place at the residence of Mrs. M. Graves, near Binnaker's Bridge on Saturday, Dec. 16th, 1871.

SOUTHERN AND ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH COMPANY.—The office of this new line will be opened for business on this day. Office in Post Office.

The Survivors of the old Orangeburg Troop meet at Orangeburg on the 16th inst. See notice in another column.

JUDGE GRAHAM.—Public services well performed, deserve public praise. Robert F. Graham, a young man compared with those who have sat in his seat upon the bench of South Carolina, was elected at the last session of the Legislature to fill the unexpired term of Judge Carpenter, whose meteoric career is part of political history.

In these times when so much complaint is made against those filling offices of public trust, instances are rare, where a general and felt satisfaction rewards the officer. Such is Judge Graham's position now before the people of his State, and a proud position is it to occupy. Amid the expressions of appreciation of the people and with the conscious reward of his own heart, his first term closes.

CHRISTMAS, SANTA CLAUS.—"Twas the night before Christmas And all thro' the house Not a creature was stirring Not even a mouse."

Like a burst of meridian sunshine at 12 o'clock on a cloudy day, the announcement thrills in our columns this week of important news. Christmas is announced! Santa Claus is heralded!! Dr. Oliveros makes the most important announcement, that in expectation and anticipation of the "merry season" now rapidly approaching, he has received and is displaying at his store a magnificent variety and huge lot of Toys, Christmas presents etc., etc.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS!—Read, friends read the advertisement of Capt. John A. Hamilton of a nice lot of nice things, and material to make nice things. Just the articles for the holidays: Crackers, raisins, currants, nicest cheese. Read and ponder!

Read in another column the notice of a sale of cattle, hogs, household and kitchen furniture, piano, buggy, wagon, etc., to take place at the residence of Mrs. M. Graves, near Binnaker's Bridge on Saturday, Dec. 16th, 1871.

SOUTHERN AND ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH COMPANY.—The office of this new line will be opened for business on this day. Office in Post Office.
