

J. FELDER MEYERS—EDITOR, GEORGE BOLIVER, FINANCIAL AND BUSINESS MANAGER, SATURDAY, JAN. 13, 1872.

Every article for the ORANGEBURG NEWS must be accompanied by the real name of the author—not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the writer.

It is the agreeable part of him who pro tempore holds the editorial pen of this journal to inform its readers of the marriage of Mr. J. Felder Meyers, its editor, to Miss Mary S. Meroney, daughter of W. A. Meroney, Esq. The information will come as an agreeable surprise to his many friends, who after their exclamation of astonishment, will respond to and echo every kind word that we can say upon the occasion.

There are times to praise our friends, and when these praises come, resonant with the clear ring of truth, they are most pleasing and grateful. But this is rather an occasion for congratulation and for expressions of well-wishes.

The wish for our friend's happiness, comes to-day habitual with time-honored custom, and comes as natural as the smile comes with pleasure. And we feel assured that our unselfish and hearty wish that he may be as happy, as Earth permits, will find responses, genuine, generous and true.

The expression of the wish is indeed but an indulgence of the nobler nature within us, that speaks on these occasions, in those catholic tones of goodwill and charity and brotherhood which are the sympathetic vernacular of the heart.

That he should be happy! Is it not his need? "None but the brave deserve the fair," runs the old chivalric adage. And so the active, the stout-hearted, the brave in energy and in self reliance, these are they who win and who deserve life's meeds and earth's happiness!

May the wreathed buds of promise and of hope, that encircle and entwine themselves around the dawn of this dearest and most sacred relation of human life, expand with the years, opening ever fresh and new sources of pleasure and peace, beautiful emblems of happiness and content, shedding around his pathway the fragrance of joy. Perennial through life, may they wither and droop only when those immortal flowers of Paradise shall have wreathed him immortal!

That he may be happy! Yes, for her sake, whose young heart is linked so sacredly now with his, for joy or for sorrow; whose existence is so merged, whose happiness so identical with his!

May their lives so blended be crowned with happiness, and that life, now just begun, be spent in realizing every bright dream of promise that comes so bewilderingly and yet so naturally to them. In its evening, so distant, may they look back in retrospection upon the same bright, golden view, that Hope now holds so confidently before them!

Drawing of the Prizes at the Academy of Music.

Many of our readers had chances in the grand raffle of the Academy of Music. Those holding tickets have of course found their pulses quickening with excitement as the time drew near for the raffle, as the day approached which was to decide whether a fortune was made or lost. The prizes were numerous and handsome. The Academy of Music was on the hazard that magnificent building erected at a great expense originally for the mammoth dry goods house of Messrs. Browning & Leman, and subsequently used and known as the beautiful Theatre of Charleston, and hundreds of money prizes were ready for the lucky. The drawing commenced on Monday.

We publish for information, the list of the numbers which have won prizes over one thousand dollars.

The Ku Klux Trials.

The United States Court has virtually completed its work for the present. On Friday last week, January 5th, 48 prisoners from Spartanburg confessed their participation in outrages, and acknowledged their membership of the Klan. They were sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from one month to two years. The petit jurors were then discharged. Judge Bond has left for Baltimore, without rendering a decision in the McMaster case.

On Saturday, the 6th, the Court met, Judge S. Bryan, presiding. The Judge granted an order admitting all Ku Klux prisoners to bail, except those indicted for murder. A batch more of two bills were rendered by the Grand Jury. Judgment against bail of Dr. Edward T. Avery, who fled, was confirmed.

On Monday several petitions for habeas corpus were presented. In re. Robert H. Mitchell, of York County. F. W. Fickling pro. pet. for writ of habeas corpus.

This prisoner, Mitchell, has been convicted of conspiracy, in the Jim Williams raid, and is now in the custody of U. S. Marshal L. E. Johnson. Petition sets forth, among other things, that prisoner is retained in violation of the Constitution of the United States.

In re. Jefferson Greer. Fickling, pro. pet., same petition. The prisoner is of the Union batch, being confined in jail, not yet indicted.

In re. John Lytle, of York. Fickling, pro. pet.; same petition; the prisoner having been indicted.

Counsel stated, in presenting petitions, that these three cases composed the different phases, viz: one convicted, one indicted, and one not indicted.

The petitions set forth virtually that the proceedings were unconstitutional. Counsel expected his Honor to overrule, the object being to get the cases before the Supreme Court. Also, stated that the reason why the petitions were not presented before Judge Bond had departed, was that they were not then prepared, and counsel was not aware of the departure of the Judge until informed by the newspapers. The main object was to embrace all the points in taking the three different classes of cases. His Honor said he would take the matter under consideration.

The grand jury returned into court six or seven batches of true bills, embracing the cases of between seventy and eighty prisoners.

Legislative Proceedings.

There was no quorum in either House on Friday and Saturday last. On Monday at 12 M. the Senate assembled, and as its first business, the return of the Board of Commissioners of Election, of Orangeburg County, to the writ of election issued to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. Joseph A. Greene, with accompanying statement of J. P. Mays, one of said Commissioners of Election, and protests of sundry citizens of Orangeburg County, and James L. Jamison, against the seating of George W. Sturgeon; were referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

The House met at the same hour of the same day. Among the bills to be introduced we note the following, by Mr. Reed's. A notice of the introduction of a bill to incorporate the Orangeburg County Fair Association.

Among the acts passed and approved are the following:

- An Act to renew the Charter of Strawberry Ferry over the Cooper river. An Act to incorporate the Young Men's African Debating Club.

Joint Resolution to require the Governor to communicate, with the proper authorities of the State of Georgia, with a view to a readjustment of the boundary line between the States of Georgia and South Carolina, and authorizing the appointment of three Commissioners.

An Act to validate the action of the County Commissioners of Oconee County in exchanging and conveying the lot ceded to them to build a Jail upon.

An Act to incorporate the Mountain Fire Engine Company, of Walhalla, S. C.

An Act to amend Section 279 of the Code of Procedure of the State of South Carolina.

Before the recess a resolution was adopted, appointing a committee to enquire by whose authority the material in the State House yard was being removed.

The committee reported this morning, stating that the sale of the material was authorized by the General Assembly; that it was sold for something over $3,000, and that the amount had gone into the Sinking Fund. At the mention of the Sinking Fund by the Reading Clerk a broad grin overspread the countenances of the members, and with a "smile that was childlike and bland," Hurley asked where might that mysterious place (the Sinking Fund) be located. This produced a number of curious questions, which ended in the report being postponed to a later day.

The Governor sent in a Special Message to both Houses this morning, containing a reply to the charges contained in the report of the investigating Committee. He denies the charges of the fraudulent issue of bonds, and says, "in my case, the foremost of my assailants, Bowen and Whittenore, are well-known to the criminal records of the country, and seek, under the garb of impeachers to hide the brand of convicts."

In the House, upon the reading of the Message, Bowen and Hurley arose to a question of privilege, and pitched into the Governor without mercy. No other business of importance was transacted in either House. The Message and report will be taken up on Thursday in the Senate and on Monday in the House.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS.

In the Senate, Arnim introduced a Bill to divide the State into five Congressional Districts under the new apportionment. The new districts are as follows:

First Congressional District—Chesterfield, Clarendon, Darlington, Georgetown, Horry, Lancaster, Marion, Marlboro and Williamsburg counties.

Second District—Beaufort Charleston and Colleton counties.

Third District—Abbeville, Aiker, Anderson, Barnwell, Edgefield and Orangeburg counties.

Fourth District—Chester, Fairfield, Kershaw, Lexington, Richland and Sumter counties.

Fifth District—Greenville, Laurens, Newberry, Oconee, Pickens, Spartanburg and York.

Each of these Districts are entitled to elect one member of Congress until the apportionment of 1880.

STATE TAXES.

Senator Birman introduced the following resolution: That the tax-payers of the State shall have until the first Monday of March, 1872 to pay the taxes for 1871, and that no penalty shall be imposed for non payment until the expiration of that time.

Presentment of the Grand Jury.

The Grand Jury would respectfully report, that they have visited the jail, and with the exception of two rooms, we find it in a cleanly condition. The prisoners complain of a scarcity of food, but assert that it is well cooked, and in some cases, they are very scantily provided with bedding; not sufficient to protect them from the cold.

The jury recommend a supply of bedding, as soon as practicable.

We are pleased to find the Judge of Probate's office properly attended to, and commend the manner in which the books are kept. The offices of the Sheriff and Clerk, we are also pleased to report in good condition, and properly kept. We find the School Commissioner's office in tolerably good condition, but last year, a number of teachers were satisfied were quite incompetent, but notice an improvement in this respect. We also find that J. L. Jamison has received pay for service.

oes, as school teacher, while occupying his seat in the Legislature, and recommend that indictment be brought against him for the same offence. We have examined the County Commissioners' office, and find it in proper order. We find the bridge across the South Edisto, (known as Davis' bridge) has been contracted for at an exorbitant price, and recommend an investigation of the matter. We are sorry to find the Auditor's office in bad condition, and we are satisfied that incompetency is connected with it.

We admit the manner in which the Treasurer's office is kept.

We have examined the Poor-house, and report it in bad condition, with the exception of food.

All of which we respectfully submit. GEORGE D. SELLERS, Foreman.

Carolina Fertilizer TRUMPHANT!

WILMINGTON, N. C., August 21st, 1871. For the largest production of Cotton to the acre, 1,000 lbs. CAROLINA FERTILIZER next. For the largest production of Wheat to the acre, 1,000 lbs. CAROLINA FERTILIZER. The above premiums are for crops produced with the use of the Carolina Fertilizer alone, or in combination with plantation manures only, and the awarding of said premiums is left discretionary with the committee of the Association under their rules.

SANDERS, OATES & CO., Agents at Charlotte. STEVENS & CURETON, Lancaster, S. C.

WAXHAW, LANCASTER COUNTY, S. C. To P. P. Zimmerman, Esq., Secretary of the Fair of the Carolinas, Charlotte, N. C.

The following is a correct statement of Cotton raised by Stevens & Cureton, on 14 acres of stubble land, which was manured with 400 pounds of Carolina Fertilizer. The following is the mode of cultivation: It was thoroughly broken up 12 inches deep, and laid off in rows 34 feet wide, and the Fertilizer applied in the drill, then bedded on it on the 15th of May, and planted the same day, but owing to the cool and dry weather, did not come up to a stand until about the 1st of June. First working it was run around with a half shovel and partially trimmed out with a hoe. Second working it was run around with a 3 inch grub, 12 inches long, and the middles thrown out with a sweep 18 inches wide. One furrow to a row and thinned to a stand with a hoe about 12 inches between the stocks, and afterwards it was ploughed every two weeks with a sweep 18 inches wide, and hoed each time, until it was weeded the times.

The following is a correct statement of the Cotton picked: 1st Picking.....254 2d Picking.....410 3d Picking.....413 Estimated amount of unopened matured bolls.....810 Total.....1,923 Respectfully submitted, STEVENS & CURETON.

I certify I weighed the Cotton picked in the above statement, and it is correct. October 2d, 1871. W. A. GRAHAM

At the request of Messrs. STEVENS & CURETON, we have examined the 14 acres of Cotton, and the estimate made above is true to the best of our ability. D. P. DURANT, W. A. GRAHAM, JOSEPH KODGES. Premiums awarded to STEVENS & CURETON on above certificate.

We will sell the above Splendid Fertilizer at Forty-Five Dollars cash, or Fifty Dollars payable 1st November, with interest at 7 per cent. per annum, delivered at our Warehouse in Charleston. Agents will sell at same prices, adding the freight and drayage to their Depots. GEO. W. WILLIAMS & CO. Jan 13
