

with the same to

Orangeburg News.

ALWAYS IN ADVARCE

NUMBER 3

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1872

GOD AND OUR COUNTRY.

THE ORANGEBURG NEWS

VOLUME 6.

TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM. }

PUBLISHED AT ORANGEBURG Every Saturday Morning. BY TUR ORANGEBURG NEWS COMPANY

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. One Copy for one year ..... $2.00 " " Six Months...... 1.00 Any one sending TEN DOLLARS, for a Cinb of New Subscribers, will receive an EXTRA COPY for ONE YEAR, free of charge. Any one sending FIVE DOLLARS, for a Club of New Subscribers, will receive an EXTRA COPY for SIX MONTHS, free of eharge. () ) 2:0:2(1910)

TI RATES OF ADVERTISING. 1 Square 1st Insertion ..... $1.50

1.00 4 ··· 21 A Square consists of 10 lines Brevier or mest liberal terms.

MARRIAGE and FUNERAL NOTICES, nat exceeding one Square, inserted without eharge.

Terms Cash in Advance. "Ga

MALCOLM I. BROWNING

ORANGEBURG C. H., So. Ca

AUGUSTUS B. KNOWLTON

(Formerty of the New York Bar.)

AT LAW,

ORANGEBURG, S. C.

W. L. W. RILEY

nov 4

july 8

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Adian ! a beart-warm, fond a lien ! Dear brothers of the mystic tye! Ye favor'd, ye enlighten'd few, Companions of my social joy ! Tho' I to foreign lands must hie, Pursuing fortune's sliddery ba', With melting heart, and brimful eye, - I'll mind you still, tho' far awa'.

St. James' Lodge, Tarbolton.

11. Oft have I met your social band, And spent the cheerful, festive night ; Oft, honor'd with supreme command, Presided o'er the suns of light : And by that hieroglyphic bright, Which none but crafismen ever saw! Strong mem'ry on my heart shall write Those happy scenes, when far awa'

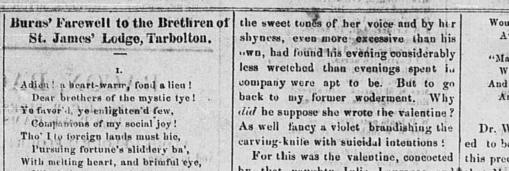

May freedom, harmony, and love, Unite you in the grand design, Beneath the Omniscient Eve above. The glorious Architect divine ! That you may keep the unerring line, Still rising by the plummet's law, Till order bright completely shine, Shall be my pray'r when far awa'. And you, farewell ! whose merits claim, Justly, that highest badge to wear! Heav'n bless your honor'd, noble name, To Masonry and Scotia dear ! A last request permit me here,-

When yearly ye assemble a,' One round,-I ask it with a tear,--To him- the Bard that's far awa'!

> CROSS PURPOSES. A VALENTINE STORY.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR It was certainly queer ! Not that shy, pretty Mary should fancy her valenting from the doctor. With all her shyness, she had peeped at times from under the long lashes which veiled those sweet blue eyes of hers, and had made up her mind that he was "nice," which word means a great deal to a girl. She could think of no one from whom she should so like to have, it coue; so the Residence in Fork of Edito, ALL BUSINESS ENTRUSTED will be promptly and carefully attended to, wish was parent of the belief, as many of our wishes are, and that wasn't queer.

like the ordinary writing of every day "V." in Dr. Webber's initials stood for, as could well be :

"Half without seeing, half with sight, I saw you coming by ; Blushing I looked, and looking I blushed, For I am young and shy.

"Kindly the eyes you bent on me, Kindly the hand ungloved, Kindly the voice which spoke, and I Listened and liked-and-loved ! 'Is it a wrong to tell the tale ? Will you forbid and frown ? And must I choke my timid heart, And gulp my secret down?

Do you not see my pailid cheek, Where roses bloom no more ? Ah, diagnose the case, and speak, Those roses to restore !

"To kind St. Valentine I'll fly ; He will the tangle sever, And speed my love, or bid it die, And hile my hame forever."

Now those mischiefs, Julia and Emi ly, never for oue moment thought of Mary Bliss when they scribbled these absurd verses. The person in their eye --- if, indeed, any thing could be said to body concerned had a good time, and no be there except pure love of funmers, who was currently reported to of liver-complaint! The doctor had gone blin lly into the net prepared for him ; had felt the pulse, examined the tongue, advised fresh air, and written a prescription for a heroic dose of "poti filine" (which prescription, of course, the lady of the liver.

Would burgeon to a glorious tree, And bless my life alway. "May it not be so, then? Will you not plant the seed,

And be my Love, and be my Wife. And make me blessed indeed ? "VALENTINE."

Dr. Webber's Christian name happened to be Valentine, and the authors of this precious production never doubted by that naughty Julia Laurence and that Mary, connecting this fact with the Emily Wells in the sanctuary of the signature, would form her own conclulatter's bed-room, and carefully copied sions. But this little shaft missed its that? niminy-piminy running-hand, as little mark, for Mary had no idea what the > and had never taken the trouble to inquire. So she "formed her own conclusions" quite otherwise than her friends had hoped, and while poor Frank Au brey puzzled over his poem, was absorbing hers with many becoming blushes jealous qualus, sent her to bed very and dewy dimples, and each grew daily more certain of their correspondent, and more and more conscious of each other, which is an important first step in matters of this kind. And to the the time sped on until the 221, when, in honor of the Father of his Country, Julia Laurence was to give a large perty. In that quiet place, half town, half village, it was still the custom for young men to "ask the privilege" of escorting young ladies to and from social entertainments. The cite stid "yes" or "no," as it happened, kilted up their enraptured doctor. company gowns, and, taking the ar n of the favored cavalier, trotted blithely off then-since Valentine's Day, you know of four hundred times, revealed the to their parties, after the unmatronized fashion of American girls ; and though the practice may sound a little old to ears conventional, I must add that every harm whatever came of it. So the day choice t tea roses, spale, and migue acte, tied together of a unserial hand and a note containing these words :

"Will Miss Bliss allow Dr. Aubrey the pleasure of being her escort to morrow evening ?" I did?"

went into the fire as soon as he left). and then had discontinued his visits, thing so charming? But then, after thing so charming? But then, after thing so charming? But then, after thing so charming? But then but then been thin silent So for the Academy of Science of that city proved the change: "Another poor girl has died in word of acceptance was written, and at answer he clasped more closely the dear hold of the story; and hence the valen- the appointed hour, while gloved and little hand he held, looked straight into time, which, with many chuckles and well wrapped up, with her flowers in her the blue eyes, and said -something else! fits of laughter, was duly posted and hand, Miss Bliss trippel down her What it was matters no Mary found it marked "B," Brown being the name of father's steps and took the doctor's arm. quite to the purposa. The doctor never forgot that walk, or Some years have passed since then Nobody but a very vain man or an the feeling of the little gloved fingers Whether the doctor's reticence has yet absolute goose would so have blundered. on his arm. The night was brilliant yielded to the confidential intercourse Our doctor was not vain, but he was a with full moon and hoar frost, and what of a hapy married life we are unable to goose, as many estimable people are. He with the enchanting lights and shadows, say. Certain it is that he still earries in had never received a vilentine before in the exhibiration of the air, and the fact his pocket, carefully stowed away at the his life, and now began to think, had that the pretty creature at his side had back of a prescription-book, the scrap of Mary looked a little pale lately? Of half confesse la preference for him, he doggerel which, for all its absurdity, course she never meant that about lov found hisself, warming into unusual was one of the slight, irresistible links ing-that was only put in to support the eloquence And Mary, too : ever since which drew and bound him to the haven valentine character, or to make out a the arrival of the famous valentine a lit- where, longing to be, he dared not enter rhyme. But suppose there was just a tie sense of possession had taken hold of -- the haven of love, matrimony, and-little substratum of meaning in it; sup- ver with regard to the doctor, a sense in- Mary .-- Harpers Bazar. pose she really did like him a little, and, expressibly dear to a young girl. She felt guessing his secret predilection, had free by his side, her tongue was un-Liquor Licenses. chosen this way of letting him know it ? loosed, words came as easily and glec-Oh dear, oh dear ! what a thought was fully as if she had been alone with her At a special term of the Court of Genmother. It was a delicious walk to both, eral Sessions, held at Kiagstree last Meantime, pretty Mary was reading each hugging secretly their delightful mouth, Judge Green Jecided that there and re reading her valentine, which was mistake, which, mistake as it was, led is no law in this State authorizing the self-possessed in critical cases, so patient beginning to get quite worn about the them on as skillfully as ascertained fact County Commissioners to grant licenses and playful with pauper patients and edges from much carrying about in pock. could have done. We are often indebt. for the cale of spiriture liquets little children, was as ill at easo as a ets. For this, too, Julia and Emily ed for much pleasure to the ignorance County Commissioners were indicted for failing to account for a large "What on earth is the matter with sum of money collected for liquor chair without knocking it down, or a certain tall, black-bearded Dr. Webber Mary to-night?" whispered Emily to licenses. The counsel moved to train without stepping on it. All the was the person they meant-a widower, Julia, later on in the evening. "She quish the indictment, on the ground girls agreed that it was a dreadful shame who, having successfully disposed of a has been sitting behind the door half that, as there was no law authorizing such a good-looking fellow, and not brace of wives, was now said to be look- the time with Frank Aubrey, and when them to collect such monies, they could strery old either," should be so dull and ing about for a third, and to have drawn Dr. Webber asked her to dance, she not be held liable in their official caup his seige-train in front of the Bliss said she was 'too tired.' Then he asked pacity to account for them, and could worse than useless in society. All but residence. He and Mary had appeared if he might take her in to supper, but not therefore be criminally prosecuted Mary Bliss, that is. She, as I have be- together not long since at a concert, she was engaged, and she has scarcely for misappropriating them. The Judge which putting the notion in the heads of spoken three words to him. Do you concurring in this view of the law the But why, on receiving this extraor- our naughty pair, the following was the suppose she is mad about the valentine?" Solicitor not pross'd the case rather than "I don't know," replied Julia mu- let it go to a jury. singly ; "but I'm going to find out." So, The law against selling without a liwhile the company gathered in the sup- cense stands unrepealed. If the County selves in shape, size, and flavor, or else per-room were deep in the discussion of Commissioners have no authority to the execclient oysters, coffee, and home- grant licenses, no such authority exists. made ice cream which made up the This being the case, if Judge Green's staple of the village entertainments, she decision is good law, no liquor can be asked aloud, in a sudden and general sold in the State, except in the incorpomanner: "By-the-way, girls, who had rated cities, towns and villages, where Which may be a flower by and by. any valentines this year? Did you, the authority to grant licenses is confer-Alice ? Hatty, did you ? Did you, red upon the municipal governments by Mary ?-- oh my, how she blushes ! I their charters. know she had one !"

I'll begis. I had three. No, Dr. Facts About Triching in Hogs. Aubrey, you shall begin. Surely you and an have simile

trichinæ spiralis is now undergoing investigation by our physicians. It has already resulted in the death of one victim, and several more are in a dangerous condition. The unfortunate sufferers are a family by the name of Martens. For several weeks past they have at difwhich he felt it necessary to blush like ferent times eaten of pork, either made into sausages or cooked in the usual a man. manner, which was to all appearances in good condition, and there was no indication of discuse of any kind. A fow had an idea. days ago the entire family, consisting of Charles Mattens, his brother Ernst, wife and two children, were seized with symptoms that baffled at first all attempts at discovering their character: but an examination of the pork partaken of proved conclusively the presence of In spite of all that was done to relieve gets ahead about $4 every time. long call to stammer forth certain words him, Charles Martens died Monday his heart unuttered, and was answered ical condition, and there is but little by happy, tearful silence, and the pres- hope of her recovery. One of the chilure of a fair little hand within his own, dren may recover, but the only member of the family out of danger is the brother, Ernst Martens, who ate but little of the affected meat. A microscopic examawkward fellow like me?" cried the nation made of a piece cut from the muscle of the arm of the deceased, with an "On yes ; I always liked you, and instrument having a magnifying capacity eyes were fixed on hers with an expres- of them still alive and active, but soon shazzar would have been a good deal dying on exposure to the air, Their more seared than he was." average length was one-eighteenth of "Since then, of course, I have liked an inch. I heir color was a light drab, you better and better; for you are so true, marked with shades of a darker color. was a maiden of some forty sum- before Julia's party Mary Bliss, sitting I knew you would never have written Experiments have shown that exposure up stairs hard at work on the new dress those verses unless you really meant them to heat greater than 160 dogrees have laid fi-ree siege to the heart of Dr. which must be fluished in time, was trans- and so-" The little fingers slipped effectually destroys these dread insects. Aubrey under the transparent disguise fix d by the arrival of a boquet of the again into his, and closed the sentence. The first cases of trichinosis in America "Mary," asked the doctor, suddenly, were in New York. At Marion, Iowa,

"No, never, I can't write verses, and ily, five deaths resulting. In the same as if the profession of open hatred to even if I could. But why do you think triching (proved afterward by examina- they lie under no obligation. tion) caused the death of six children had at least one." And now it was Frank's turn to color and be confused. "Indeed, Miss Laurence, I--- you must excuse me," he stammered. He could get no farther ; and Mary, forgetting her own embarrassment in his, was conscious of a sudden vague pang of jealousy. Had somebody sent Dr. Aubrey a valentine about

Virginia from the use of tobacco, at the age of one hundred. She was an orphan."

So she was a little silent going home. which silence Erank set down to the reaction of shyness at hearing her secret so carelessly handled; and this idea warmed his maner with a tender respectfulness which it had never exhibited before, and which, comforting Mary's happy. And so, in matual mistake, time sped on and the intimacy ripened, until, two months later, Dr. Aubrey, with white lips and a pale face, contrived during a which had for many days burned within night. Miss Martens is in a very crit.

more cloquent than speech. "And you really will ! you really can make up your mind to endure a clumsy,

-" But here Mary stopped, for Frank's presence of a number of trichinge, some sion she could not define.

"Since Valencine's Day? he repeated

I never should have dared send you one

Certain people study all their life; at their death they have learnt overything, A Cleveland despatch says: "A well- except to think. authenticated and undoubted case of

> The man who never alters his opinion is like standing water, and breeds reptiles of the mind.

The man who can be nothing but serious, or nothing but merry, is but half

"Here lies a man who never had an enemy!" Then here lies a man who never

A man's possessions are just as large as his own soul If his title deeds cover more, the surplus acres own him, not he the acres.

A Boston coroner has been accused of presenting bills for viewing bodies that countless trichinge in an encysted state. he never saw. He gets $4 a head, and

Hospitable Host. "Does any Gentleman say Pudden? "

Precise Guest. "No, Sir. No Gentlenan says Pudden."

A St. Louis lawyer attempted to try a case the other day while he was half drunk, but the judge stopped him saying, "no lawyer can serve two bars at a rime "

A victim of Greeley's handwriting says: "If Horace had written that in scription on the wall in Babylon, Bel-

A thoughful Danbury lady puts lard on the stoop when she wants her husband to stay home of an evening. Barring an hour or so devoted to rubbing his back, the time is pleasantly occupied

It is safer to affront some people than to oblige them; for the better a man becounty, eating raw ham containing their benefactors were an argument that that Frank Aubrey, with his thirty years' experience of men and medicine, should fancy for one moment that Mary wrote his, was queer, decidedly. Though perhaps wishing had something to do with that too. Truth is, that experience is thrown away on many people. The doctor was a learned man, after his fashion. He knew all sorts of hard names of diseases and boues and plants. He spoke German like a native, and read Greek plays for amusement. He even understood human ustare pretty well-elderly human nature, that is, which wears false teeth and rufiled night-caps, and "enjoys' poor health. He fathomed without difficulty Goody Coleman's wiles to introduce brandy as a primary element in her cure, and was clear sighted enough as to want of occupation and megrin being Mrs. Pemberton's ailment, though she chose to style it disordered nerves. But when it came to young ladies, all there!

this proficiency was at fault. Our doctor, so cool in the operating-room, so school boy. He saw without seeking, were responsible. But, bless you, they which is bliss. heard without hearing; could not pass a never alluded to Dr. Aubrey at all. A awkward, and such a blunderer as to be fore remarked, thought him "uice." dinary valentine, did Dr. Aubrey's result : thoughts jump at once to this same

Mary? Now don't expect me to answer the question. How is any finite mind to grasp the thousand little insidious tangled threads which cause men's thoughts-young men's especially-to No. I just throw out the question for what it is worth, and any of you who choose, or can, may auswer it. bud style which is so lovely in early youth. The doctor had felt the charm of that sweet face. And more than once of late, with what the poor fellow considered infinite tact, had managed to

"If it might bud and bloom, O gentle one and fair ! In the sweet garden of your heart, Wrapped in such balmy air, wedge himself into the corner where she "Petal and leaf and stem,

Unfolding day by day,

With sadness which is not gloom.

With a wish not yet a hope,

In every house and in every room

I patiently, wistfully grope.

For space to sow one little seed,

This seed ('Love' is its name)

The heaven from which it came.

Grows to a blossom worthy of

"Grope for a friendly hand,

For a sympathetic eye,

"Sown in a human heart,

Mary, indeed, did blush like any rose, Irregularity and want of methol are and when, looking up, she caught the only supportable in men of great learndoctor's eye fixed upon her, she blushed ing or genius, who are often too full to again harder than ever. Meantime be exact, and therefore choose to throw Julia rattled on : down their pearls in heaps before the "Do tell us all about it. I move that reader, rather than be at the pains to all present read their valentines aloud. string them.

the existence of trichinge in one in fifty of the hogs inspected. Some of the flesh contained from 10,000 to 18,000 of these insects to the cubic inch."-Buffalo Express. FARMING AS A BUSINESS .- The following is from the Farmer and Artisan: A man who is not smart enough to run a store is not swart enough to farm.

Farmers are not to be made of what is left after lawyers, doctors, ministers and merchants are picked out ; and if a man fails on a farm it is not likely he will succeed in a store. for it requires more talent to be a thriving farmer than to be an average merchant, the one cause of great value ' the disproportion be-> tweed a mand farm and his capstal. A farmer's capital is skill, labor, and his money. If he ha "ittle cash, he must have no more land than he can thoroughly manage by his own personal labor. Every acre beyond this is an incumbrance; one acre well worked is more profitable than twenty acres skimmed over. It is this greed of land by farmers that have not the capital to keep it, that keeps so many poor. Small farms are better suited to the capital of common farmers. Large farmers with large capital are better than small ones. Farming is a good business for all men who conduct it on proper principles, and have capital according to the size of thir farms. and a bad one for everybody else.

4 422 1 4 1 1 1

> We suppose that nine out of ten honsekeepers will contradict us in 'the statement that they do not know how to cook a dish of oysters. By the ordinary routine either the oysters are stewed and shrivelled out of any semblance of themthe soup and thickening' has a raw taste. Here is the right method: try it once. and we will warrant you will not need telling the second time. Pick the oysters out of the juice with a fork, as dry as possible, slew the juice, thickening the milk or water of which the soup is to be made until thoroughly cooled : then drop the oysters in, and just as the cooled soup begins to show signs of simmering empty out altogether, and you will have a rich soup and plump oysters, luscious enough to make you think you never tasted the real article before.

We must retire inward, says St. Bernard, if we would ascend upward.

They have a man in Poughkeepsie whose legs are flesh and blood: But the hardest variety we know of. A wagon loaded with brick rolled over them; and half an hour afterwards the owner was running after the driver to recover dam-

"The first bird I shot in Ameriky," said an Irish sportsman, "was a forkuupine. I treed him with a bara-shovel. The first time I hit him I missed him, and the second time I hit him. I hit him in the same place where I missed him the first time.

An unsophisticated parent in Portsmouth, N. H., observed with pain that his first porn had no teeth, and hastened to remedy the "deformity" by purchasing a fifteen dollar set of molars, which he handed to the nurse, with the remark that the baby should'nt suffer if he had to wear only a shirt a week.

Save Your Money GO TO J. P. HARLEY'S

A ND buy CHEAP Dry Goods, Boots, Snoes, Hats, Caps, &c., of which he has just received a fresh Supply .:

ALSO

FLOUR of all grades. BACON, LARD, SUGAR and COFFEE of all grades. Besides numerous other articles in my procery Department all of which I am selling at Prices not to be excelled for CHEAP. NESS in the Town. Come and see for your-153" All Persons indebted to me must pay up immediately as I am compelled to close my books. A word to the wise is sufficient. J. P. HARLEY. oct 14 may 27 e 1y

ORANGEBURG-IN PROBATE COURT

E, his wife. Petition for change of Guardian.

By order of the said Court, I hereby give notice that on the 29th day of February next, I will file my final account as the Guargian of Mrs. Catharine E. Danisler, (nee' Catharine E. Bull), and will apply for

Orangeburg, So Ca , January 20th 1872. jan 27

Ex Parter Lewis W. Dantzler & Catharine

By order of the said Court, I hereby give

(nee' Catharine and my final discharge. REGIN W. BATES, Guardian Catharine E. Dantzler, (uee