

All Advertisements must be handed to the Business Manager before Thursday Noon.

We observe that several gentlemen of our town have planked the side-walks in front of their stores. This thus the work of improvement goes on in Orangeburg.

Trade is rapidly on the increase in Orangeburg. Persons who have never been known heretofore to purchase all their goods here, have this year supplied their wants at this market.

Messrs. Izlar & Dibble give notice to the public that they are prepared to recover all claims on cotton seized by the United States Government during the late war.

Mr. Jos. McNamara has been compelled to enlarge his store in consequence of the large stock of goods he purchased while North, and we feel confident in saying that his stock is not to be surpassed this side of Charleston. Prices are also as low as his goods are fine. We say go to Me's.

Capt. Briggmann has the largest stock of dry goods, ready-made clothing, groceries, liquors and other articles than he ever had before, and consequently his prices are much cheaper. The Captain knows what he is about when he purchases goods for our market, therefore all will do well to call on him at once.

Ho! FOR KOHN & BRO'S.—Always a rush for that popular dry goods store, which is filled with every article that a lady or gentleman needs to make up a complete wardrobe. It is unnecessary for us to say more, but just go and see if what we say is not just so. Mr. K & Bro's diamond advertisement speaks louder than words.

RICHARD KORTJOHN.—This enterprising and energetic young gentleman has opened a splendid grocery and liquor saloon on Market Street in front of Straus' grist mill. To learn that Mr. Kortjohn's establishment is all that it purports to be requires nothing more than one glance into his store. Affable and polite, he deserves the entire confidence of the people.

All in want of first class Groceries would do well by calling on our old friend W. T. Muller who is one of the best grocery men in our Town. He has constantly on hand fresh supplies, and housekeepers can always find what they need for the table use by going just around the corner. Mr. M's advertisement appears at the head of another column.

MERONEY'S HOTEL.—This house has been vastly improved within the last three months, and now offers accommodations equal to any in the interior of the State. That the public fully appreciate the enterprise of its popular host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Meroney is amply demonstrated in the very large share of patronage which the house daily receives. Mr. Meroney has entered fully in the race of progress that is being made by the citizens of our fair Orangeburg, and we predict will always be found somewhere in the front rank.

THE FAIR.—After a three days opening, the Fair of the Orangeburg Agricultural Society has closed. It has been a most pleasant and successful exhibition. The different articles exhibited how an increase in the desire of our people to excel in all things. The stock of horses shown is an indubitable evidence of the interest our people take in raising fine stock. Among the most handsome and thoroughbred horses we noticed a fine pacing mare of Mr. Sain, and the fast trotting mare, "Sally Wildfire" of Mr. Saspartas, which took the premium for imported light draft horses. In the other departments there were numerous articles exhibited that showed skill and ingenuity. And taken all in all, the fair has been a perfect success, and reflects credit upon the Executive Committee. We hope that the next will be equally as successful.

W. M. Sain & Co.—We have been shown through the magnificent Livery stables of these gentlemen, and are convinced that they are, for experience, the men of the Town. For fine horses, splendid and neatly equipped turnouts, no stables in the interior of the State can equal them. Mr. Wm. Sain, the popular and accommodating manager of the establishment, is universally recognized as the best judge of horses in the County. If you want a nice turnout go to Sain & Co.

P. S. Mr. Sain received on Thursday a fresh supply of horses, and mules, fifty-seven in number.

We return our thanks to Mr. T. W. Albergotti for the delicious piece of fruit cake he presented us. It was a most enjoyable present, and made our mouths water ere we touched it, we understand it was a piece of the cake that took the first premium at the fair, we don't wonder at it, for its deliciousness, richness and delightful flavor, cannot be surpassed. Mr. Albergotti is the confectioner of these parts, and in fact of the State, his articles are just as well made, and just as cheap as those of contemporary establishments in Charleston, Columbia or elsewhere. We invite you to call and perhaps he will let you taste the "food of the gods" i. e., that fruit cake.

ENTERPRISE SALOON.—Onward is the motto of Mr. Herman Wahlers, although downward may appear the faith of many of his customers. He is certainly an improvement to Orangeburg in coming up to the standard of a first-class saloon keeper. In his establishment there are three main and essential appointments observable, to wit: The quantity, variety and purity of his liquors, the neatness and beauty of his saloon, and last but not least, the cleverness of his waiters. Messrs. John Hartzog and Asbury Wannamaker. Mr. Wahlers did a good thing in setting up here and we predict will never let down so long as John and Asbury continue with him. They are smiling boys.

The past week has been one of much interest in our Town. The streets have been literally thronged with people from all parts of the State for the purpose of attending the county fair which opened last Tuesday, besides Mr. James Reinson, the world renowned bareback rider and circus exhibited here on the afternoon and evening of the same day. In fact Orangeburg has the appearance more of a city than a town, and from the present aspect of things, we predict that in a short while we will have theatres and other amusements necessary to a city and become second only to Charleston.

AN IMMENSE BUSINESS. As many of our readers are aware, the old and reliable house of Hunter & Co., Book sellers, Hinsdale, N. H., still exists and every year increases the business. To those in want of Books, Card, Prints, Stationery, and notions, we can think of no other firm so sure to give them satisfaction. Their wholesale jobbing trade is immense, supplying Dealers, Peddlers Agents, &c., all over the U. S. Their Catalogue is a perfect curiosity, as they supply anything wanted, from a dime novel to "Webster's Unabridged." Fail not, if you wish good reading for the long evenings, to address HUNTER & Co., Hinsdale, N. H.

In this age of scepticism, facts are required to inspire confidence in the minds of the people; but, with good indorsers they are willing to test any article claiming extraordinary merit. The proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer offer the following indorsement of the merits claimed by them for their preparation, by the Pittsburg, Pa., "Christian Advocate": viz., "The public have so often been deceived by the use of worthless preparations for the hair, that an article of this kind, to gain their favor and secure their patronage, must possess real merit. We are glad to assure our readers that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is meeting with the success which its merits so justly deserve; and we have reliable evidence, that it will perform that is claimed for it, in restoring gray hair to its natural color, and, as a permanent dressing, is unsurpassed."

THE KU KLUX. Raid through our quiet village sometime ago, did not engender as much

EXCITEMENT As did the intelligence that Mr. HERMAN WAHLERS DESIGNED opening A FIRST CLASS DRINKING SALOON

IN OUR MIDST. THE FACT REALIZED. The confusion of the people was almost equivalent to

THAT Caused to the builders of the tower of Babel when their language was confuted.

SODA, GIN, WHISKEY, AND BRANDY COCKTAILS, Such as we had never seen before—WINES, CHAMPAGNES, and SEIGARS the like of which were as rare as a white crow, or less in June. ALE and LAGER, that would make the leanest man in the world fat, are only a part of MR. WAHLERS COLLECTION that Caused so much Fright to us all. To this Day There are men whose

LIFE IS IN A DOUBTFUL CONDITION. This was caused by his manifesto, requesting LOAFERS To keep away on pain of a heavy PENALTY.

To this day there are others who had lost their power to be genial—whose nerves were rendered unsteady by the use of bad liquors, and whose countenance bore a downcast, sheepish look—to this day the advertiser says these are men like these, who have been happy, infinitely so since imbibing once at MR. W'S SALOON. There fore the exhortation.

COME ALL YE That thirst for healthy beverages, the depressed, the aged—and the poisoned AND RECEIVE THE BALM

You'll Find No LOAFERS, NO HANGERS AROUND, NO

MIXTURES OF STRYCHNINE & CREOSOTE. You'll find a genial healthy set of TEMPERANCE LOOKING MEN, and the greatest desire on the part of the PROPRIETOR is to please the wants of his customers.
