We observe that several gentlemen of our town have planked the side-walks in front of their stores. Tis thus the work of improvement goes on in Orange-

Trade is rapidly on the increase in Orangeburg. Persons who have never been known heretofore to purchase all their goods here, have this year supblied their wants at this market.

Messrs. Izlar & Dibble give notice to the public that they are prepared to recover all claims on cotton seized by the United States Gove nment during the late war.

Mr. Jos. McNamara has been compelled to enlarge his store in consequence of the large stock of goods he purchased while North, and we feel confident in saying that his stock is not to be surpassed this side of Charleston. Prices are also is as low as his goods are fine. We say go to Me's.

Capt. Briggmann has the largest stock of dry goods, ready-made clothing, groceries, liquors an l other articles than he ever had before, and consequently his prices are much cheaper. The Captain knows what he is about when he purchases goods for our market, therefore all will do well to call un him at once.

Ho! FOR KOHN & BRO'S .-- Always : rush for that popular dry goods store which is filled with every article that a lady or gentleman needs to make up a complete wardrobe. It is unnecessary for us to say more, but just go and see if what we say is not just so. Mr. K & Bro's diamond advertisement speaks louder than words.

RICHARD KORTJOHN,-This enterprising and energetic young gentleman has opened a spleudid grocery and liquor saloon on Market, Street in front of Straus' grist mill. To learn that Mr. Kortjohn's establishment is all that it purports to be requires nothing more than one glance into his store. Affable and polite, he deserves the entire confidence of the people.

would do well by calling on our old the appearance more of a city than a friend W. T. Muller who is one of the best grocery men in our Town. He has constantly on hand fresh supplies, and housekeepers can always find what they nced for the table use by going just around the corner. Mr. M's. advertise ment appears at the head of another column.

MERONEY'S HOTEL -This house has been vastly improved within the last three months, and now offers accommodations equal to any in the interior of the State. That the public fully appreciate the enterprise of its popular host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. Meroney is amply demonstrated in the very large share of patronage which the house daily receives. Mr. Meroney has entered fully in the race of progress that is being made by the citizens of our fair Orangeburg, and we predict will always be found somewhere in the front rank.

THE FAIR .- After a three days opening, the Fair of the Orangeburg Agricultural Society has closed. It has theen a most pleasant and successful exhithition. The different articles exhibited how an increase in the desire of our people to excel in all things. The stock of horses shown is an indubitable evidence of the interest our people take in raising fine stock. Among the most handsome and thoroughbred horses we noticed a fine pacing mare of Mr. Sain . and the fast trotting more, "Sally Wildfire" of Mr. Sasportas, which took the premium for imported light draft horses. In the other departments there were numerous articles exhibited that showed skill and ingenuity. And taken all in all, the fair has been a perfect success, and reflects credit upon will perform that is claimed for it, in the Executive Committee. We hope restoring gray hair to its natural color, that the next will be equally as success-

W. M. Sain & Co. We have been shown through the magnificent Livery stables of these gentlemen, and are of that they are, pur accelence the men of the Town. For fine hor splendid and neatly equipped turnouts, no stables in the loterior of the State can equal them. Mr. Wm. Sain, the popular and accommodating manager of the establishment, is universally recognized as the best judge of horses in the County. If you want a nice turnout go to Sain & Co.

P. S. Mr. Sain received on Thursday fresh supply of horses, and mules, fifty-seven in number.

We return our thanks to Mr. T. W Albergotti for the delicious piece of fruit cake he presented us. It was : most enjoyable present, and made our mouths water ere we touched it, we understand it was a piece of the cake that took the first premium at the fair, we don't wonder at it, for its deliciousness, richness and delightful flavor, cannot be surpassed. Mr. Albergo ti is the confectioner of these parts, and in fact of the State, his articles are just as well made, and just as cheap as those of contemporary establishments in Char leston, Columbia or elsewhere. We in vite you to call and perhaps he will let you taste the "food of the gods" ie. that fruit cake.

ENTERPRISE SALOON .- Onward the motto of Mr. Herman Wahlers, al though downward may appear the faith of many if his customers. He is certainly an improvement to Orangeburg in coming up to the standard of a first class saloon keeper. In his establishment there are three main and essential appointments observeable, to wit : The quantity, variety and purity of his liquors the neatness and beauty of his salion, and last but not least, the eleverness of his coadjutors, Masses. John Hartzog and Asbury Wannamaker. Mr. Wahlers did a go d thing in setting up here and we predict will never let down so long as John and Asbury continue with him. They are smiling boys.

The past week has been one of much interest in our Town. The streets have been literally througed with people from all parts of the State for the purpose of attending the county fair which opened last Tuesday, besides Mr. James Relinson, the world renoward bareback rider and circus exhibited here on the afternoon and evening of the All in want of first class Groceries same day. In fact Orangeburg has and from the present aspect of things, we predict that in a short while will have theatres and other amusements necessary to a city and become second only to Charleston.

> AN IMMENSE BUSINESS. As many of our readers are aware, the old and reliable house of Hunter & Co. Book sellers. Hinsdale, N. H., still exists and every year increases the business. To those in want of Books, Card, Prints, Stationary, and notions, we can think of no other firm so sure to give them satis faction. Their wholesale jobbing trade is immense, supplying Dealers, Peddlers Agents, &c., all over the U. S. Their Catalogue is a perferct chrisity, as they supply anything wanted, from a dine novel to "Webster's Unabribged," Fail not, if you wish good reading for the long evenings, to address HUNTER & Co., HinsJale, N. H.

In this age of scepticism, facts are required to inspire confidence in the minds of the people; but, with good indorsers' they are willing to test any article claim ing extraordinary merit. The proprietors of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer offer the following indersement of the merits claimed by them for their preparation, by the Pittsburg, Pa;, "Christain Advocate:" viz., "The public have so often been deceived by the use of worthless preparations for the hair, that an article of this kind, to gain their favor and secure their patronage, must possese real merit. We are glad to assure our readers that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is meeting with the success which its merits so justly deserve; and we have reliable evidence, that it and, as a permanent dressing, is unsurpassed. again travel
