We learn that Mr. James Cannon, Sr., has opened a grocery and liquor store on Russell Street, opposite Mr. Rigg's residence.

We learn privately from Columbia that the tax this year will amount to bout 17 mills on the dollar, so our citizens can just compute the amount they will have to pay.

Our advices from Charleston state that all the Insurance Companies who have agencies there, are all right, and that the Boston fire has not materially inconvenienced them.

Our citizens, to save expense in their purchase of shose, would do well to buy up their Winter supply at oace, before the prices, in consequence of the Boston fire, takes an upward tendency.

Our County officers elected are very busy arranging their Books and preparing to qualify, while the "outs" are straighening up their Books preparatory to resigning their several offices.

The State Canvassers in Columbia are busily at work in deciding upon the contested cases. The case from Charleston County between Mackey and Bowen comes up on Friday, the probability is that Mackey's delegation will be scated

Victor Valdez, who shot sometime I ist summer a cuban by name Perez was re ently tried in Charleston before Judge Graham, and the jury returned a verdiet of "not guilty," without leaving their seats.

Our Town Council would greatly assist the locometion of our citizens in rainy weather, if they would repair some of our streets. The puddles in some places on our streets are simply impassable, a few cart loads of saud would make a vast improvement.

Our Devil is a sharp one, and knows a thing or two, being asked what was the cause of the fire in Boston, he repled, "Oh, the "Hub" wanted greasing, and as they didn't grease it, it took fire." Don't you think friend reader he is a precocious youth?

During the Session of the Legislature this Winter, we expect to have a regular correspondent stationed at Columbia, who will inform our readers by a letter every week, of the sayings and doings of our representatives, and of all matters; of interest that may happen there.

Mr. G. W. Baxter has opened his salden, mest door to Kohn & Bro. John T. Butler is the caterer of the establishment, and the palate of every person who [may call upon him will be satisfied by taking one drink at his counter. OBITUARY .- We learn that Mr. John E. Marley an old vailroad man, and one who was universally respected and liked by all persons, died in Aiken on Wed nesday last after a sudden attack of Pneumonia. Mr. Marley was known to salmost everybody, and we are certain that, many of his friends in Orangeburg Coughs, and the carly stages of Consump will lamentihis glanth.

The Epizooty still prevails in our large cities, and the extremely bid weather we have had increases it. Our citizens would do well to exercise du caution as regards their stock.

Charleston, and other places seem blest with amusements of all kinds. Its a pity our little Town can't get any. Orangeburg wants something to stir her up, since the visit of the circus, and the closing of the Fair, and last week the visit of Prof. Kirby. Things have grown supernaturally dull, and we are obliged sometimes to got the assistance of our "Devil" so as to grind out

Our friends must not forget the "Enteprise Saloon." Mr. Wahlers still lives and still employs those very indefatigable and obliging assistants Messrs Hartzog and Wannamaker. WM. P. CALHOUN, Acting Agent. Orangeburg, S. C., Nov. 9th, 1872

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisament of Mr. J. S. Albergotti, our enterprising young townsman. Mr. A. has on hand at al times the finest and most choice grocer ies, and does his best to please his customers, he sells as cherp as any house in Orangeburg and perhaps cheaper. We think Mr. A should be en souraged, and would suggest to our readers that if they desire good and chenp groseries. Mr. J. S. Albergetti s is the place to procure them, he occu ies the store formerly kept by Jeffords Company.

Mr. Ezekiel has on hand and is con stantly receiving fine greceries and dry goods. He also keeps the best perfum ery and fancy toilet articles to be found in Orangeburg, also a large and fine assortment of watches and jewelry of all descriptions Call and see him, and he will sell you anything you want. His clerks are affable and courteous to every and Mr. Wallage Cangon is geniality personified, he is obliging, and will show you anything and everything whether you desire to purchase or not Pon's fail then to walk around, the store is right opposite the post office.

ACCIDENT AT LEWISVILLE .- () Friday as the day passenger train from Columbia was passing, an almost fatal accident occurred to a Mr. Sweeny. He was engaged in quieting some horses bitched so elfe pole of a large wagon when they became uumanageable at the whistle of the locomotive, and starting to break away forced Mr. Sweeny again st post, and the end of the pole struck him in the breast, inflicted a day errors and penhaps montal injury, blood gushed from his mouth and nose, it was almost impossible for him to breathe, at last accounts he was in a critical condition.

ATTEND TO THIS SOMEBODY .- The roads and bridges of our County are in miserable condition, and require immediate attention. Nearly all of the roads are in need of filling in having necome almost impassable b reason of the recent heavy rains, and the bridges are just as bad, for instance the bridge at Four Holes is in a very bad condi tion, and it would be suicidal for any one to attempt the crossing of it. I stands in need of thorough repair, and will cost a pretty heavy sum to fix it as it should be fixed, but we say repair it, and we are certain all good citizens will say likewise. The bridge at Caw Caw Swamp'is we believe undergoing repairs. We hope the contractor will finish it up securely, and he will certainly receive

TWENTY YEARS YOUNGER .- To say that hundresd of maids, wives, and widows look twenty years younger than they are in consequence of the complexional freshness derived from the use of Ha gan's Magnolia Balu, simply to and absolute fact, which might be prom-verified by direct testimony if ladies were as willing to tell the'r ages as to use the best means of making themselves lovely. Nature sometimes, but very rarely, crown the charm of perfect fea tures with a complexion of exquisite clearness; but even then time soon begins to make inroads upon the velvet cheeks the fair white brow, the ivory bust, the rounded arm, To preserve the "glory of woman" unblemished, even after the meridian of life has been passed, it is only necessary to use daily this cooling healthful vegetable prepaiation.

Demonstrates the oft-told tale that cheap afes, old fashioned safes, safes not up to the times, are the temptations to burglary. Bankers may provide watchmen, and may use other safeguards, but they will not put their money in the watchman's pocket, or trust in a tin or wooden box, no matter how many guards are used. The safe, after all is the last respectable. No amount of watching or guarding will ever make a poor oldstyle safe trustworthy. This is the citadel, and should be the best that can be made.
