

All Advertisements must be handed to the Business Manager before Thursday Noon.

We learn that Mr. James Cannon, Sr., has opened a grocery and liquor store on Russell Street, opposite Mr. Rigg's residence.

We learn privately from Columbia that the tax this year will amount to about 17 mills on the dollar, so our citizens can just compute the amount they will have to pay.

Our advices from Charleston state that all the Insurance Companies who have agencies there, are all right, and that the Boston fire has not materially inconvenienced them.

Our citizens, to save expense in their purchase of shoes, would do well to buy up their winter supply at once, before the prices, in consequence of the Boston fire, takes an upward tendency.

Our County officers elected are very busy arranging their Books and preparing to qualify, while the "outs" are straightening up their Books preparatory to resigning their several offices.

The State Canvassers in Columbia are busy at work in deciding upon the contested cases. The case from Charleston County between Mackey and Bowen comes up on Friday, the probability is that Mackey's delegation will be seated there.

Victor Valdez, who shot Constable last summer a calf by name Perez was recently tried in Charleston before Judge Graham, and the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" without leaving their seats.

We call attention this week to the advertisement of Mr. Muller, our enterprising grocer, and Mr. Souder, the Charleston photographer, who is at present taking photographs in our town. Call and see him.

The Charleston News, and the Courier, are hammering away at each other quite a "war of words" is being waged. Well, gentlemen fight it out, we'll look on calmly and applaud your good things.

We call attention to the sale of the estate of John T. Jennings, which appears in our columns. It is to be sold in eight separate farms, on each of which there is a good dwelling and outbuildings. The Collection Fund are also to be divided.

Our Town Council would greatly assist the locomotion of our citizens in rainy weather, if they would repair some of our streets. The sidewalks in some places on our streets are simply impassable, a few cart loads of sand would make a vast improvement.

Our Devil is a sharp one, and knows a thing or two, being asked what was the cause of the fire in Boston, he replied, "Oh, the 'Hub' wanted greasing, and as they didn't grease it, it took fire." Don't you think friend reader he is a precocious youth?

During the Session of the Legislature (his Winter, we expect to have a regular correspondent stationed at Columbia, who will inform our readers by a letter every week, of the sayings and doings of our representatives, and of all matters of interest that may happen there.

Mr. G. W. Baxter has opened his school, next door to Kohn & Bro. John T. Butler is the caterer of the establishment, and the palate of every person who may call upon him will be satisfied by taking one drink at his counter. Mr. Baxter is an enterprising young man and deserves the patronage of the public. Call in and see his quarters.

OBITUARY.—We learn that Mr. John B. Marley an old railroad man, and one who was universally respected and liked by all persons, died in Aiken on Wednesday last after a sudden attack of Pneumonia. Mr. Marley was known to almost everybody, and we are certain that many of his friends in Orangeburg will lament his death.

The Epizooty still prevails in our large cities, and the extremely bad weather we have had increases it. Our citizens would do well to exercise the caution as regards their stock.

Charleston, and other places seem blest with amusements of all kinds. Its a pity our little Town can't get any. Orangeburg wants something to stir her up, since the visit of the circus, and the closing of the Fair, and last week the visit of Prof. Kirby. Things have grown supernaturally dull, and we are obliged sometimes to get the assistance of our "Devil" as so to grind out "loafs."

Our friends must not forget the "Enterprise Saloon." Mr. Wahlers still lives and still employs those very indefatigable and obliging assistants Messrs Hartzog and Wannamaker. He has just received a fine assortment of the finest brandies, whiskies, gins, and other liquors, also a fine lot of cigars, among them some of the famous "La Ninfa" brand. Call around then and see him.

NOTICE TO CONSIGNEES PER SO. CA. R. R.—By order of the Vice-President of the above road all freight charges, both local and through will be collected at this agency, and no goods will be delivered until charges have been paid at the Depot. The above to go into effect from date.

WM. P. CALHOEN, Acting Agent, Orangeburg, S. C., Nov. 9th, 1872.

We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. J. S. Albergotti, our enterprising young townsmen. Mr. A. has on hand at all times the finest and most choice groceries, and does his best to please his customers, he sells as cheap as any house in Orangeburg and perhaps cheaper. We think Mr. A. should be encouraged, and would suggest to our readers that if they desire good and cheap groceries, Mr. J. S. Albergotti is the place to procure them, he occupies the store formerly kept by Jeffords & Company.

Mr. Ezekiel has on hand and is constantly receiving fine groceries and dry goods. He also keeps the best perfumery and fancy toilet articles to be found in Orangeburg, also a large and fine assortment of watches and jewelry of all descriptions. Call and see him, and he will sell you anything you want. His clerks are affable and courteous to everybody and Mr. Wallace Johnson is, generally considered, he is obliging, and will show you anything and everything, whether you desire to purchase or not. Don't fail then to walk around, the store is right opposite the post office.

ACCIDENT AT LEWISVILLE.—On Friday as the day passenger train from Columbia was passing, an almost fatal accident occurred to a Mr. Sweeney. He was engaged in quieting some horses hitched to the pole of a large wagon when they became unmanageable at the whistle of the locomotive, and starting to break away, forced Mr. Sweeney against a post, and the end of the pole struck him in the breast, inflicting a dangerous and perhaps mortal injury, blood gushed from his mouth and nose, it was almost impossible for him to breathe, at last accounts he was in a critical condition.

ATTEND TO THIS SOMEBODY.—The roads and bridges of our County are in a miserable condition, and require immediate attention. Nearly all of the roads are in need of filling in having become almost impassable because of the recent heavy rains, and the bridges are just as bad, for instance the bridge at Four Holes is in a very bad condition, and it would be suicidal for anyone to attempt the crossing of it. It stands in need of thorough repair, and will cost a pretty heavy sum to fix it as it should be fixed, but we say repair it, and we are certain all good citizens will say likewise. The bridge at One Day Swamp is also in need of repairs. We hope the contractor will finish it up speedily, and he will certainly receive our thanks.

$1000 Reward is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of Bronchitis, severe Coughs, and the early stages of Consumption.

THE KU KLUX. Excitement in our midst. The fact realized. That caused so much fright to us all. To this day there are men whose life is in a doubtful condition. This was caused by his manifesto, requesting LOAFERS TO KEEP AWAY FROM THE HEAVY PENALTY. To this day there are men who had lost their power to be gentle—whose nerves were rendered unsteady by the use of bad liquors, and whose countenances bore a downcast sallow look—to this day the advertiser says there are men like these, who have been happy, infinitely so since imbibing once at MR. W'S SALOON. There fore the exhortation. COME ALL YE THAT thirst for healthy beverages, heed pressed, the aged—and the poisoned AND RECEIVE THE BALM That can only be had at the ENTERPRISE SALOON. You'll Find No LOAFERS, NO HANGERS AROUND, NO Men whose eyes are redened with MIXTURES OF STRYCHNINE & CREOSOTE, You'll find a genial healthy set of TEMPERANCE LOOKING MEN, and the greatest desire on the part of the PROPRIETOR is to please the man who should have a drink. Give me a trial at the STAND formerly occupied by JOHN PATTERSON, dec'd opposite Messrs. Bull Seovill and Pike. J. H. WAHLERS July 13

THE BALTIMORE ROBBERY. Demonstrates the old-fash'd safe the cheap safe, old-fashioned safes, safes not up to the times, are the temptations to burglary. Bankers may provide watchmen, and may use other safeguards, but they will not put their money in the watchman's pocket, or trust in a tin or wooden box, no matter how many guards are used. The safe, after all is the last respectable. No amount of watching or guarding will ever make a poor old-style safe trustworthy. This is the citadel, and should be the best that can be made. THURS IS NOT OUR BEST. HERBINGS & FARRELL, Nos. 251 and 252 Broadway, corner Murray street. Only manufacturers of Herring's New Patent, Champion Bank Safe.—Messrs Walker, Evans & Cogswell, Agents, Charleston S. C. oct 5
