 THE LATEST NOVELTY IN SUITING.
 One of the most distressing affairs we have ever been called upon to notice took place in Tallahassee, Fla., a few days ago. Mrs. A. W. Packer, wife of a popular and successful Jacksonville merchant, and daughter of Mr. George Dr-men, a prominent merchant in Tallahassee, seemed to be recovering from some mental derangement, and, thinking a change of scene and surroundings might cure her incipient malady, her husband took her to her father's and friends in Tallahassee. Her husband's sister, who might soon after her arrival at her father's house she called the family around her and prayed for her recovery. Her prepare for a great and calamity. None had any idea that she was contemplating anything like self-destruction. The next morning early, her father went out to procure a bottle of... after his departure she took a recording luncheon, and, saturating herself from head to foot, put a match to it, and in a moment was enveloped in the flames. Her husband and others, hearing her shrieks, ran to her rescue, and throwing a bucket of water over her, endeavored to extinguish the flames.
 This proved unavailing and her husband seizing a blanket, threw it around her, and finally succeeded in getting her out of the flames, but not without her being burned to such an extent that she died in a few hours, after the most intense suffering. Her face was quite young and had been married only about three or four years. Two years ago she was the happy wife of a devoted husband,

 A NOBLE YOUTH WHO COULDN'T DRINK WINE.—There was a noble youth who on being... the table of a famous statesman in Washington, had the moral courage to refuse.
 He was a poor young man, just beginning the struggles of life. He brought letters to the great statesman who kindly invited him home to dinner.
 "Not one single glass of wine!" said the great statesman, in wonderment and surprise.
 "Not take a glass of wine!" echoed the statesman's beautiful and fascinating wife, as she arose, glass in hand, and with a grace that would have charmed an ascetic, endeavored to press it upon him.
 "No," said the heroic youth, absolutely gentle repelling the proffered glass.
 What a picture of moral grandeur was that of a poor, friendless youth refusing wine at the table of a wealthy and famous statesman, even though proffered by the fair hands of a beautiful lady.
 "No," said the noble young man and his wife trembled a little and his cheek flushed.
 "I never drink wine, but—(here he straightened himself up and his words grew firmer)—if you've got a little good old rye whiskey I don't mind trying a snifter!"
 The following epistle is from a fond mother to her son—If my girl gets contrary, don't behave respectably, and don't learn fast, and don't get inter-gogry-try, take the little clean off of her if she is to & kicks up a fuss. I didn't rise this. I ain't much educated. It is rote by very truly yours, Folly Peterson, I came to have her go up like Yauko folks.
