

Lansley Mills.—These mills last year consumed $100,000 worth of cotton. Dr. Duke has a young man in his employment who has commended himself to the favorable attention of our devil.

Fair Fee.—The counsel who defended Mrs. Laura D. Fair for murder has sued her for his fee. The jury gave him verdict for $2,600.

C. D. Kortjohn.—This merchant attends strictly to his business and is seeing it grow constantly and steadily with his care, courtesy and zeal.

Say Kysar don't you want to buy a dog? A bull dog, one yard and three fourths long, is for sale as riverised in an exchange.

Parades.—On Tuesday afternoon the "Young America" and on Thursday the "Elliott" companies paraded their monthly parades. Both organizations maintain their esprit.

High Prices.—Turnip in Orangeburg bring ten to thirty cents a piece. Ekatorimuy. Kuddor sold on the streets this week for about $2.01 a hundred.

Brigham Young.—This ascetic hermit has given up his sceptre, left his wife and retired to a cave. His property goes to his family numbering 1,793. Brigham and Captain Jack, are our troubles now.

A royal merry party was that which ascended the river on Thursday night. Music waited its savage-sounding rounds through the recesses of the swamps, and fish in huge quantities were disposed of.

Good Friday.—Yesterday was Good Friday. The day was generally observed and public business suspended in Charleston. Tomorrow is Easter Sunday. Lent has closed. Ho for gala times.

Breaking the Ice.—At the water-trip on the first ice of the season has been broken and served up in conjunction with articles that are very refreshing and exhilarating. Master Asbury W. W. Amaker has returned from his trip and is at his post.

Rye That Won't Cause a Wry Face.—W. A. Meroney, our enterprising and deceiving merchant has on hand some of the most palatable rye whiskey ever drank in Orangeburg. It is Foster's rye, manufactured in Davy County, North Carolina, and is as pure as morning dew.

Beware! Burglars About!—We have often thought how unprotected our town was at night from the raids of the Burglars. It seems that the same idea has struck some of the gentry, who have had their tools shipped and are ready for work.

Better sit up late, and starve your dog. Schuetzen Gesellschaft.—Our thanks are tendered to Captain A. Mellekers for an complimentary invitation to be present at the Schuetzenfest arranged for the 21st to the 25th of April.

We shall endeavor to enjoy the pleasure of seeing our german friends of Charleston on this their festival occasion. We are glad to learn that our young friend master Johnnie, son of Judge Andrews, our efficient County Treasurer, is recovering from a severe attack of acute Rheumatism, caught from pulling his boots and socks off, after the heat of a romp, and cooling off. We would caution our young friends from being in too great a hurry to go bare-foot, at the present season of the year.

Seasonable Ticket.—The feeble driver of the New's quill was considerably refreshed one afternoon this week. On stepping in to Dr. Oliveros' well arranged and handsome Drug Store, a package of complimentary tickets was courteously handed to the thirsty editor. Each ticket is good for a glass of Soda Water from the admirable fountain, which has resumed its dispensing and refreshing flow. The Doctor's draughts are not all pleasant, but those from the Soda Fountain are most refreshing and delightful.

Wednesday Night.—A splendid opportunity to relieve the monotony of dull Village life in is offered to our people on Wednesday next the 16th inst. John Byrum's great show is to be here.

A grand exhibition of walking upon the wire will be afforded free at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The exhibition at night is of great variety embracing feats of leger de main, Ventriloquism, and Minstrel Performances. The "Show" is highly spoken of by our exchanges.

Knightly Notice.—Read in another column the notice of Mr. J. W. Patrick in relation to the Tournament which takes place on the first of May. Names must be handed in before the 20th, inst, when the list closes.

Through the influence of Capt. T. A. Jeffords, the Herald of most knightly bearing, several prizes have already been subscribed by the citizens of Charleston.

Let our young men attend to this matter at once. Let the prestige of the last Tournament be maintained.

Though not a young man we feel like exclaiming as did Richard III, "My kingdom for a horse!"

Arson.—We have received intelligence of the burning of the house of Mrs. Sally Hutto which occurred on the night of the 13th.

Also of the destruction of the barn of John H. Phillips which occurred on the night of April 2nd. The barn contained 400 bushels of corn and a quantity of fodder which was a total loss. The rain which providentially intervened is all that saved the dwelling house and entire plantation.

Mr. Phillips was away from home at the time and returned home to realize his terrible loss.

Both fires were the work of incendiaries. And it is hoped that the firms will be found out and brought to condign punishment.

Mr. Carroll the inventor of Carroll's Cold Water Washing Soap is in town and intends to introduce his wonderful and superior article among our people.

He proposes to give public washing to test the merits of his soap this day at Meroney's Hotel at 10 o'clock and in the Court House Square at 4 o'clock, P. M.

This soap is a home invention of this state, being manufactured at Aiken, and is no patent humbugger its sale enforced or induced by any catch-penny tricks or sale of recipes etc. Mr. Carroll asks that it be fairly tried before it is introduced. The soap will be for sale by our leading merchants at about ten cents a bar, economy being not the least of its virtues.

Saleday in April.—Monday last was as warm as midsummer. The attendance was tolerably large for this season of the year. Business freshened and the mule market was brisk. It is almost the "eleventh hour" to secure stock for this years crop, but still the mule is a mule "yet."

The Sheriff sold three tracts of land, or rather one tract and an interest in two others. One tract of 108 acres of land of O. Metts was purchased by W. F. Fairry for $150.

The interest of Andrew Inabinet, deceased, in one tract of 400 acres was purchased by Jacob Amaker for $500. The interest of above in one tract of 390 acres was purchased by Jacob Amaker for $200.

Interest of above in some personal property was sold at fair prices. The sale of the two large tracts of 1031 acres each was postponed.

Bad Bargains.—Once a Sabbath school teacher remarked that he who buys the truth makes a good bargain, and inquired if any scholar recollected an instance in Scripture of a bad bargain.

"I do," replied a boy, "Esau made a bad bargain when he sold his birthright for a mess of pottage." A second said: "Judus made a bad bargain when he sold his Lord for thirty pieces of silver."

A third boy observed; "Our Lord tells us that he makes a bad bargain who to gain the whole world loses his own soul."

I have seen a good many boys in my time who have made bad bargains. Some change the Sunday school for the street, and home for wicked company, and the Bible for books and health for tobacco. They always get the worst of it. Boys look out for these bad bargains.

The Baltimore Robbery

Demonstrates the oft-told tale that cheap safes, old fashioned safes, safes not up to the times, are the temptations to burglary. Bankers may provide watchmen, and may use other safeguards, but they will not put their money in the watchman's pocket, or trust in a tin or wooden box, no matter how many guards are used. The safe, after all is the last respectable. No amount of watching or guarding will ever make a poor old-style safe trustworthy. This is the citadel, and should be the best that can be made.
