

LOCAL.

SATURDAY, DEC. 6, 1873.

A communication from our esteemed correspondent, M. Doyen of Branchville, will receive attention next week.

See advertisement of J. S. Albergotti.

The "Royal Citizens" are displaying their recent warm attachment to the United States, by generally...

Henry B. Johnson, Esq., has our thanks for a copy of his Report of the Secretary of State to the General Assembly at its present Session.

A recent act of the Legislature cuts down the lawyers' costs awfully. We are inclined to think, though, that the result will be good, all round.

At Dr. Duke's drug store the "little ones" will find friend Sherrod Reeves is ready, in his usual accommodating style, to supply them with toys, caudles, &c., at the most reasonable prices.

Messrs Frantz Briggmann & Co., have everything usually found in a first class grocery store. They have just received a fresh lot of Oysters, Lobsters, Potted Ham, Chicken and Turkey; also a lot of choice Hams, Smoked Beef, Bologna, Beef Tongues, &c.

Messrs J. M. Cannon, F. DeMars, John McKewen, P. Mentzel and L. H. Wannamaker of the committee on Arrangements, and Messrs D. E. Smoke, J. S. Cuttino, S. A. Reeves and E. L. Salley of the Truck Committee, deserve much credit for the thorough and successful manner in which they performed their duties with reference to the Elliott's recent Parade and Festival.

Our energetic and enterprising friends Messrs Straus & Street inform us that they can furnish oak and pine wood at $2.50 per cord delivered, and for $3.25 per cord will saw it any length desired, delivered. We advise every one to call on the above gentlemen at their mill, and have their orders filled. They also have a full supply of clean rice, meal and grits, at Charleston prices, with a full supply of cow and horse food on hand cheap.

If you want a pane of glass go to Dr. Oliveros. If you don't want a pane in your eye go to Dr. Oliveros. The Doctor is one of Orangeburg's institutions. What we should do without him, heaven only knows. His goods are of the best, for he will keep nothing else. His prices are reasonable, for he is a fair, square man. He has been laying in a big stock of candies, cigars and Holiday comforts generally. In one word, the Doctor is "chief among ten thousand and altogether lovely"—except his blue pills.

The Orangeburg Times says: "No wonder that South Carolina casts such a heavy Republican vote now a days, when such a tremendous loyal element existed within her borders even during the hottest days of the late war." News & Courier Dec. 3.

By your leave, gentlemen, the Orangeburg Times said no such thing. That charming little squib belongs to the Orangeburg News. If it was worth quoting at all it was worth being properly credited. Beside, it is hard on the Times to make it responsible for our jokes. The Orangeburg Times is a serious paper and never says funny things. It's only romancing is in referring to its circulation.

GEORGE'S STATION.

We shall not soon forget the grateful hospitalities which we experienced last Saturday in the pleasant village known as George's Station, in our neighboring County of Colleton. We arrived there late in the afternoon from "41" by a "crank ear" which had been kindly placed at our disposal by Mr. Pickling the handsome and obliging superintendent of so much of the Rail Road as lies between Branchville and Charleston. We were under the escort of our excellent host Mr. W. J. Bryant, one of the most enterprising mill owners and most excellent citizens of that part of the country, to whom we are under profound obligations for warm and heart-lent courtesies and attentions which will be long in passing from our memory. A walk through the principal streets of George's Station surprised us. There were large, commodious, cheerful, homelike houses—prosperous and thrifty-looking stores—a larger and better furnished school house than any that Orangeburg can boast of—and a general air of content, of happiness and well-doing. We had the pleasure of meeting there our young friend and able brother-lawyer Mr. E. Mikell Carroll, formerly of Branchville, who has deservedly become a leading citizen in his new home. We also, with much pleasure, made the acquaintance of Mr. Utsey, an enterprising, go ahead and prominent merchant of the "Station."

But "the best of friends must part," train time came at last and with friend Carroll and Dr. Gresset, the well-known physician of Branchville, we bade our best Bryant good night and sailed off "upward bound." Not in many a long day have we passed a few hours so pleasantly as in the growing, prosperous and home like village of "Georges."

[COMMUNICATED.]

Editor Orangeburg News: As I have written to Washington requesting that my name be taken from the list of Loyal Citizens claiming compensation for losses during the war, you will please omit my name in your publication of that list in your paper, and oblige me further by publishing this communication as a card.

Yours Respectfully, W. W. CULLER.

If a man wants a Bottle of Whiskey, let him buy it and take it home like a man, and not sneak home with a bottle of "Bitters," or "Cordial," and pretend that it is medicinal. If he wants a tonic that is something better than a temporary stimulant, he should get a bottle of Peruvian Syrup, (an Iron Tonic) that will vitalize the blood and give durable strength to the system.

When Franklin, printer and statesman wished to marry, his wife's mother objected to the marriage because there were then two presses in America, and she thought there was not room for a third. It is not 100 years since, and there are now some 10,000 printing offices in this country alone.

They have some very smart business men in New Jersey. Last week a young man was struck by lightning in a field near Trenton, and when the people began to flock to the spot to look at the victim, they found a man standing by the corpse trying to sell lightning rods to the crowd.

The latest dodge of a Boston till-tapper was to buy a half gallon of molasses at a grocery, get the grocer to pour it in his hat for want of a jug, and then clap the hat with its contents on the grocer's head, while the buyer ran off with the contents of the money drawer.

COLEMAN, S. C., Dec. 20th, 1870.

To the Editor Orangeburg News: SIR—I have the honor to inform you that at a meeting of the Board of Officers, created by an Act entitled "An Act to Regulate the Publication of all Legal and Public Notices," the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the "ORANGEBURG NEWS" is hereby designated as the OFFICIAL PAPER for the Publication of all Legal Notices and Official Advertisements of the County Officers in the County of Orangeburg.

Respectfully, &c. F. L. CARDOZO, Sec. of State and Chairman Board. Per W. R. JONES.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

PREPARED BY SETH W. FOWLE & SONS, Boston, Mass., and sold by Druggists and Dealers generally. oct 18—1y
