SATURDAY, FEB. 28, 1874.

Owing to absence on professional business during the greater part of the week we are compelled to ask our reader's indulgence for the limited amount of editoral and local matter in the present issue.

We beg to call the attention of our readers-especially of our colored readers - to the able and timely speech of the Hon. R. B. Elliott which appears in full on the first page of the present

Gen. Elliott has sounded the key note of the coming campaign. Let white-washed Republicans and all other political scamps stand from under !

Colored men! Read General Elliott's puble speech on our first page. No truer or more timely words have been spoken since the year 1.

Two year old Republicans, and other knaves who have joined our party for the sake of plunder are robbing us and killing the party while they grow fat and rich on stolen monies. These rascals understand their game! and the poor hardworking colored man loses every time!

If we want our party to live a year longer we mu t sweep all such fellows overboard to the sharks, their brothers.

The time has come to "unload"-Grant says so-Elliott says so -and all intelligent Republicans know it. Now let's go straight to work and do it!

Siamese Twins.

PHILADELPHIA, February 25. The second edition of the Medica Times states that the autoposy of the Sian ese twins was continued on Monday last, resulting in some interesting dis closures. It sayt that on Friday the commission continued the autopsy upon the Siamese twins, and made some important discoveries. They found that the two livers, which were supposed to be joined only by blood vessels, were really one body, the pasenchimates tis s na being continous between, so that when they were removed from the bodies and placed on the table, they formed one mass. The so called teact of postal continuity is, th refore, a liver tissua It will be remembered that Chang was said to be possessed of one more ponch than Eng, but when the liver was re moved, an upper hepatic pouch was found also proceeding from Eng; so that the band contained four pouches of peri toneum, besides the liver tissue. These disclosures show that any attempt dur ing life to separate the twins would in all probability, have proved fatal.

Gen. Lewis T. Wigfall, who died in Galveston, Texas, on Wednesday last, vas well known throughout this country, having been a Senator of the United States from Texas previous to and at the time of the breaking out of the late war, and afterwards a General in the Confederate army and a member of the Confederate States Senate. He was a native of South Carolina, and went to Texas when a young man. His ability as a lawyer soon gave him a prominent place at the bar of that State, and equa success attended him in his political career. In the Sepate of the United States, he was a leader of the advocates of secession, and was noted for his bold ness. Upon the secession of Texas, he resigned his sent in the Senate, and took an active part in the movement of the Southern States. He was present afterward, he was given the command of a brigade of troops from Texas, and participated in a number of battles. Later in the war, he was elected a member of the Confederate Senate. After the war, he went to England, and became interested in mining operations in Colorado and the far West. About eighteen months since General Wigfall made his home in Baltimore. His age was but little more than fifty. General Wigfall was essentially a man of force, and was full of energy and will,

He is now one of the oldest native born residents of New York, and has seen a wonderful series of changes. He can remember the first steamboat which greeted his boyish eyes when he was a youth of fourteen, and he has seen the city increase from 30,000 to a population of more than 1,000,000. He has also seen his father's estate expand from $20,000 to $50,000,000.

A Reptile in a Lady's Stomach.

IT COMES UP INTO HER THROAT.

There is a young lady living within mile and a quarter of Christiana, who s afflicted as singularly as was the celebrated Miss Godsoy, the "Sleeping Beauty." For four years past she has been suffering with violent fainting spells, that come on periodically, and are produced by some kind of reptile which comes up into her throat. She is choked to such an extent that her muscles become rigid, her extremities cold, the pupils of her eyes dilated, and the skin breaks on her hands and face. and is in all other particulars, thorough ly convulsed. She is only relieved by the reptile itself, being, it is thought, partially choked, withdrawing itself into he stomach. The reptile has at previous times been seen by different persons. On one occasion a Methodist preacher was visiting at the home of her parents, when she was seized with one of the usual attacks, and the parisitical object even came out of her mouth and was grasped by the minister. Being of a very superstitious turn of mind she had conceived the idea that its death was her death, and refused to have it re moved, although that could at that time have been easily accomplished. The minister avowed that the reptile felt as cold and clammy as any other snake, but that it offered no particular resistance when he clutched it with his hand. When it made its appearance outside the mouth it curled its head rather under the chin, but when let loose went immediately down the young lady's thront again. It frequently comes up into the mouth, and the young 14dy says that whenever it does so it appears to lick the roof of her mouth with its horrible tongue, and then re cedes again.

A neighboring physician has been attending her during the period of her indisposition, and has been treating her for tape-worm, believing that to be the true malady. The symptoms are, however, entirely different from those produced by tape-worm. The girl still continues robust, instead of being emaciated, and the appetite, instead of being ravenous, is fickle, at times scarcely taking any food, while at other times she has a very good appetite. The strong ast tape-worm remedies were used, but without any effect whatever, and the physician, thinking the case hopeless, gave it up a short time ago; when two others were called in, who are using every means in their power to effect a cure with what result remains to be seen. The first step to be taken was to disabuse her mind of the superstitons that had taken possession of hor in regard to her disease. She has at last consented to have the monster removed, if presible, and destroyed, as she is now convinced that her life depends on it. The physicians in attendance are auxiously waiting an opportunity to effect a re moval, and are keeping constant watch for the appearance of the reptile.

Alcohol has already been prepared for the reception, so that, when it shall be displaced, so strange a phenomonon may be preserved.

The reptile, so far as has been ascer tained, is about half an inch in diameter, of a dark color, with a sort of hairy coating, but no one is capable of judging of its length. It has never been so closely scrutinized by any one as to tell whether it has eyes, but that we believe is hardly possible. All that is yet know of it that it frequently comes up into her mouth, choking the girl and throwing her into terrible convulsions.

It is attracting universal attention about Christiana, and all the more so, because her life has been seriouely threatened by the peculiar movements of the reptile.- Nashville Banner.

An Eagle Tries to Carry Off a Girl.

On Saturday, the 2d inst., a girl named Elizabeth Moore, daughter of Albert Moore, living in the northeast corner of Clebourne county, was return ing home from a neighbor's house. whither she had been sent on an errand. when she felt something heavy drop upon her shoulders and the next instant she was borne to the ground. She says that her first impression was that she had been seized by a panther or some other wild beast, but soon felt the talons of what proved to be an eagle, clutch. ing her sides and arms, lacerating the flesh in a fearful manner; and its beak pecking her on the head, she was dragged some distance on the ground. Pretty soon the eagle, having secured his prize, with claws and bill firmly fixed, raised her from the ground and sailed along at from three to four feet above the earth for some distance. Occasionally she was dropped on the ground, but the eagle would as often raise her again, making new and serious wounds with his talons in her body and his beak in her head, till at last he reached the height of ten fe t, and attempted to alight on the limb of a red oak tree on the roadside, when his hold again gave way and the girl fell to the earth seriounly stunned and hurt. She was nnconscious for a time, then clambered over the fence near by into her father's ershard and began making the best of her way to the house, near which she was met by her mother, who had been attracted by her screams and was hastening to her relief. The most remarks ble part of the matter is that the girl did not see the engle at all. A shawl which had been securely fastened about her head, so as to project over her face, hid her antagozist from her view. The track along which she was dragged however, was plainly visible in the road The girl Elizabeth is 14 years of age, and weighs between 80 and 90 pounds Her father is a reliable and worthy man He is a son in-law of Mr. Latfield, in the same section of country, and lives about five miles from the Tecumseh Iron Works. The girl was not seriously hurt and is doing well. The eagle has beed twice seen since by the hunters, who are making every effort to kill or capture him .- Juck sonville Ala. Repub-

. A BALL ROOM DISASTER .- A young lady from Cambridge attended a ball in Boston, where the floor was waxed. During the evening, while dancing in a waltz quadrille, the young lady slipped and fell, and the young man who accompanied her, in his efforts to save her from falling, placed his band on her side, but also slipped at the same time. When the young lady was placed on her feet she was unable to stand, and was carried from the ball. It appeared that the young man, in his effort to save her, pierced her side with one of his fingers in such a manner as to cause faintness and intense pain. She was taken home in a carriage, placed in bed, and a physician sent for, who pronounced her seriously injured internal, ly. She never again rose from that bed, and only a few days since was borne to the cometery.

THE TERRIBLE TRICHINA -A Chicago paper says that a physician of that city has nine patients under treatment. suffering from the effects of trichina superinduced by eating diseased pork. Specimen chanks of the pork used by some of the patients killed eight dogs in thirty-six hours. One of the hogs from which the disease I pork was taken was round and plump, and weighed 400 pounds, and was, to all appearances, sound and healthy.

A member of the Chicago Board of Aldermen has been converted to tem perance. This remarkable conversion is due to the singular elequence of a medical gontleman of that city, who, during the course of a private Leture he was delivering, remarked to the alderman that if he ever took another drink of whiskey, it would "land him heels upwards into Hades in less than two min utes and-a-half."

Mr. Merriwether T. Walker, one of the wealthiest merchants and largest real estate owners in West Point, Georgia, had his residence, situated about three miles from West Point, entirely destroyed by fire on the evening of the 17th instant, during the prevalence of a heavy storm. The loss is estimated at between five and six thousand dollars. No insurance.
