

LOCAL.

J. FELDER MEYERS, Assistant Editor.

SATURDAY, AUG. 29, 1874.

Fort Motte is to be incorporated.

Read article on outside of this issue about that wonderful cotton.

Who did Dallas borrow $10,000 from, a month or so ago?

Bowley and his crowd have been bailed out.

The man who is a friend to Frank Moses is a friend to Azrael.

Moses says he can't see the point of our jokes because he is the butt.

We had a rain on Sunday night last which cooled the air much.

Tilton has sued Beecher for $100,000 damages. The latter says "Let us pray."

The river has been in good fishing order during the past week, and our fishermen have had a jolly time.

In the beginning God created Heaven and Earth. Afterwards he made man in the image of himself—only to fall in Moses.

There are a great many persons in Orangeburg who have colds. They are unpleasant accompaniments.

Grass in the Court House Square. Clean breeches hard to keep. No County Officer wears white pants. Why?

This week has been remarkably cool. Of nights blankets were not at all uncomfortable.

A Chamberlain delegation has been elected from Chester headed by the veritable T. J. Mackey.

Meroney's new store is almost completed. It adds to the looks of his property "muchly."

Mr. Ezekiel is doing a first-rate business. It is said that he sells groceries lower than a great many other merchants.

Bowley and his crowd were brought to Charleston and lodged in jail on Sunday last. Jones is ahead in Georgetown now. Who cares?

There will be a Rifle Club organized to-day at Jones' bridge in the Fork. Two mounted companies have already been formed over there.

The beautiful residence of Dr. Oliveros, on Russell Street, presents a grand appearance. We congratulate the Doctor on its design and beauty.

The place under the News' office, recently occupied by Mr. Ezekiel, is undergoing repairs. We learn that Mr. Kirk Robinson is to occupy it.

Mr. Belton Betterson painted that beautiful sign at the Grange Store. Mr. B. displays a good deal of skill in that line, and those who are in want of signs had better note the fact.

The Phoenix says from the 1st up to the 25th of this month, Lexington had forty-two rainy days. Selby must see double at times by this. How else could he make forty-two out of twenty-five?

The Columbia Phoenix prints Moses's documents for him. Both Republican papers of that place have refused to have any thing to do with the "Robber Governor."

The Abbeville Medium man has been interviewing Niles G. Parker, ex-Treasurer of South Carolina, on the situation. Niles says he wants to go to Congress. The people say they will think the matter over.

Mr. C. H. Green is prepared to fill orders for fresh beef at any time, and in any quantity. He is a good butcher, and those who desire his services can find him at all times at his place.

Our thanks to C. D. Kortjohn for late files of Northern papers. Dick, it appears, seems to be determined to keep up with the times, not only in the grocery and liquor business (for he has no equal in this line) but also with the events of the day.

THE NEWS AND COURIER—

Asserts in emphatic terms that neither of its editors were closeted with Chief Justice Moses about the time charged by us, and that neither of them have spoken to the old Chief within twelve months past. We make this statement as a matter of courtesy, inasmuch as they have solemnly denied our charge, and from a desire to do justice in our profession. It is but fair to say, however, that we had authority for what we wrote. Is the News and Courier satisfied?

MR. W. K. CROOK— Has opened a grocery store next door to Dr. Duke's drug shop. Mr. C. is well known throughout the County and commences on his own account, with the good wishes of the News.

MISS EVANS' SCHOOL— Will be resumed at the residence of Mr. P. V. Dibble on Monday the 7th proximo. She is a successful and accomplished teacher, and we bespeak for her the patronage of those who have children.

The Charleston Chronicle selects for its leading editorial articles such subjects as "Pig Iron," "Weather Reports," "Bananas," "Cranberries" &c. What an official paper for the great metropolis of the State! Scissors, what a paper!

THE CHARLESTON SUN— Is becoming as foolish and hot-headed as its elder brother, the News and Courier. Strange that one who has held office under the very government he abuses, should, after he is with the outs, squeal so lustily.

Did not Frank Moses make the first payment on the Preston Mansion with money got from his approval of a joint resolution, appropriating some two or three hundred thousand dollars of money, passed by the Legislature at the Session of 1872-3?

Moses says he hopes to have a jury here at the January term of the Court—at which time he is to be tried for stealing $9,000 of the hard earnings of the people's money—that will whitewash him as completely as the Plymouth Church Committee did Beecher.

Senator Patterson said in a speech at Beaufort that Moses had been weighed in the balance and found wanting. He was the greatest fellow to want he ever saw. Honest John should have added, That if he didn't get what he wanted by fair means he'd steal it.

The County Commissioners speak of having the County jail made more secure than it is at present. It is stated that our cautious Board came to this conclusion because it is thought that His Excellency will attempt some of Jack Sheppard's tricks, after being delivered to our jailer in January.

TRIAL JUSTICE COURTS—

For the past week business has been very lively in the Courts of Trial Justices Girardeau and Fordham. From what we can hear these gentlemen dispense with all matters entrusted to their care with satisfaction to all parties.

NEW COTTON—

The first bale of new cotton for this season was brought to this market on Thursday last by N. M. Riley, and purchased by Geo. H. Cornelson at 14 1/2 cents per pound. This augurs better times, and we hope soon to see our merchants busy again.

The Northern press seems terribly aroused on the situation, but in our opinion they magnify a great many things. No man is in danger of his life here who behaves himself. And certainly those who make incendiary speeches are not loved in any community. We are in for a peaceable settlement of the great questions before the country.

The funeral service of Miss Fannie Dibble were performed on Sunday morning last at the Methodist Episcopal Church by the Revs. Walker and Campbell. The church was crowded by a large number of mourning friends who, with their heads bowed low in sorrow, paid this last sad rite to the mortal remains of a departed loved one.

L. Cass Carpenter, editor of the Union of Columbia is spoken of as Elliott's successor in Congress. That distinguished representative of the colored race, could find no abler man among his white brethren here to fill his chair. Mr. Carpenter has done a great amount of good work for the party in this State, and has, we believe, the confidence of the Administration at Washington.

Cel. Mosby and Payne of Virginia were to settle a little matter between themselves the other day, according to the code of honor, but a peace loving Judge, hearing of the difficulty, ordered the arrest of Mosby and put him under a bond of $5,000. This it is supposed will end the matter.

P. S.—The matter has been amicably adjusted.

SOMETHING GOOD—

Mr. Augustus Fischer holds forth at the corner yet. Fischer is a clever man in more than one respect, and has built up a trade which is equal to that of any grocer in our Burg. Reliable and fair in his dealings, he has drawn to his store an array of customers who swear they will never go back on Fischer. He will lay in a Fall supply in a short time when we will "puff" him as he deserves. Meantime, give him a call all ye that are fond of good groceries and liquor.

The Edisto Social Rifle Club was organized on Tuesday evening with the following officers:

- President—James F. Izlar. 1st Vice President—Samuel Dibble. 2d Vice President—W. B. Izlar. 3d Vice President—James S. Heyward. Treasurer—G. W. Brunson.

SENATOR ANDREWS—

Has been lying sick at his residence, for several weeks past, with a slight attack of erysipelas. He publishes a statement of his conduct as Treasurer, which will explain away a part of Mr. Boliver's letter. His settlement with the Auditor shows that he has vouchers for all he paid out while Treasurer.

SOLICITOR BUTTZ—

Is sweeping everything in Charleston County. Hardly a meeting has been held down there at which he came out behind. It seems that his friends are determined to send him to Congress. In this County he is the only man talked of. Buttz is a hard worker and will do us some good in Congress.

John Grimes, one of Governor Moses supporters, and recently from the penitentiary, was examined by Trial Justice Girardeau on Wednesday last, on a charge of grand larceny. He was bound over for his appearance to the October Court of General Sessions, when we hope he will be sent back to General Dennis. There will not be much danger of a pardon being granted to him by Gov. Chamberlain.

The last Harpers Weekly has a cut of Moses dealing out pardons to convicts in the Penitentiary. The face is exactly like Frank's, but the size of his feet and hands is exaggerated. We heard of his putting on somebody else's shoes and gloves one night through a mistake, and they were respectively No. 1's and 4's; that is to say, shoes 1's and gloves 4's. Try it again, Nast.

Bowley and Jones, the Georgetown rioters, have signed an agreement to be friends. So we will have no more wars in Georgetown. The quiet citizens of that place will now sleep quietly at night. White winged Peace has supplanted the cruel Mars, and the Revenue Cutter lies quietly in the waters off Charleston. Jones will repack his old journals, and Bowley will go on making speeches.

THE TIMES—

Mr. Siles R. Mellichamp has assumed control of the editorial columns of this paper, while our friend Whitehead, its former editor, continues with it in the capacity of publisher and business manager. Mr. Mellichamp is a graceful and pleasant writer, and we welcome him again to the editorial fold. His conservatism has always been marked with that degree of liberality which ever won for his utterances a careful consideration by his political opponents. We wish the Times success.

BASE BALL AT LEWISVILLE—

A match game of Base Ball was played at Lewisville on the 21st inst., between the Blue Stocking Club of Orangeburg, and the Rattlesnake Club of that place, and was won by the Blue Stockings by a score of 69 to 48. The return game will be played at this place on the 2nd of September. After the game was over, the clubs repaired to where a splendid supper awaited them, and where the evening was passed away in song, joviality and sentiment. Mr. Primus Berwick a crack player of the Blue Stocking Club, occupied the Short Stop, at which point he caught a ball which was struck right from the bat, and by which coup de maître he put out two of the Rattlesnakes.

AN UNSURPASSED SUPPER—

A supper, which was prepared at the expense of the Aurora Base Ball Club of this place for the entertainment of their visiting guests, the Kershaw Base Ball Club, was given on Thursday evening last at Meroney's hotel and partaken of by the two Clubs and their friends. It was a splendidly gotten up affair, and reflected much credit upon the successful perseverance and good taste of Mr. and Mrs. Meroney. The table was filled from end to end with all sorts of good things for the inner-man. Upon it were spread in abundance such substantial as turkeys, hams, shot, beef and chicken, with breads of all sorts. Other good things were plentiful, such as chicken and lobster salad, pickled cucumbers, peaches, melon rinds, grape jellies, citron preserves, peach preserves, pound cake, sponge cake, jelly cake, coconut cake, and candies and nuts of all kinds with apples, peaches and oranges to wind up on.

The supper was enjoyed by all present, and adds another laurel to Mr. and Mrs. Meroney's success as hotel keepers. What would Orangeburg do without this Hotel.
