PAVING AND SEWERAGE.

The Barnwell Sentinel takes this opportunity of casting its ballot in favor of sewerage and paving. It does so not only because it will add to the beauty of the town and will be a financial asset from a business point of view. It will not only put Barnwell well up in the procession of progressive towns. It will not only increase the comforts of our citizens. But it will also decrease our annual cost of disease and death more than enough to pay the annual interest on the bonds. Sewerage together with an efficient inspection of the various premises in Barnwell will give it an almost practical immunity from malaria and continued fever. Modern investigation has proven that we cannot have mosquitos, open wells, flies and unsanitary outhouses and avoid the tremendous money tax for sickness and death. Barnwell enjoys more features of beauty than almost any town of its size in the state. It should no longer be satisfied with appearances, but should strive for the honor of being the cleanest, healthiest, and most progressive town in the state. Why should we be satisfied to leave distinctions to some other town?

THE METHODIST CENTENARY FUND.

The relation of religion to money has never been so well understood as during the last ten years. It has gradually been dawning upon the individual consciousness that while a man may possess money, yet he does not own it. It was thought a big thing for South Carolina Baptists fifteen years ago to raise for Furman university the unheard of sum of $100,000. A few years ago men like Rockefeller would give 25 per cent of any sum for education provided the denomination would raise the remaining 75 per cent of it. The Episcopalians started out to raise $8,000,000 for the relief of aged ministers. Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts was put behind it and astonished the world by raising it. Their example was followed by other denominations in providing for their worn out ministers. Southern Baptists being farther behind in this matter than any others.

The raising of great liberty loans for war purposes showed our people what they could do in the matter of raising money. It was a broad vision of statesmanship that inspired our Methodist friends to raise $100,000,000 as a Wesley Centenary fund. Of course they will go over the top with it. They have for a long time been most highly organized for efficient work. Their success in this campaign proves it. They have received a splendid inheritance, and enjoy a magnificent equipment for service. Our prophecy is that this financial success has shown them their power and will be worth more to them as a denomination, churches or individuals than all of their bishops and church machinery. God has honored them in their success.

BANKS AND BANKING.

Some wag with the genius of a cartoonist once drew a picture of a woman delving into her stocking where she had placed her money for safe keeping and entitled his sketch "the first national bank." Some people have learned as much as this woman, for they have failed to find a safe place for their money. Last week, Charlie Green, of Aiken county, who was known as the "hermit of Hawthorne," reported to Sheriff Howard that he had been robbed of $1,250. During the day he carried the money on his person and being a powerful man he depended on his personal ability to protect it. At night he kept it hanging by a peg near his bed. He thought it was safe, but some one saw a hole through the wall and borrowed his money, never to return it. The moral of that story is that if his money had been placed in a bank, he would be that much to the good.

In the Treasury Department in Washington is a bureau which issues good money for mutilated notes. Many pitiful stories attend these notes. Some have for safe keeping been stored in some stocking foot and being turned into a rat bed by some enterprising rat who wished to set up housekeeping. In other cases the stockings were sent to the laundry where the greenbacks were turned to paper pulp. In other cases they have been placed in a baking pan and placed in an unused stove as a place that no thief would ever think of looking for it. Someone built a fire in that stove and the notes were burned to a crisp.

Some people are afraid either of banks or are unwilling for anyone to know just how much ready money they have. They bury it in the ground and then forget the place of burial. Nobody knows just how much money was buried in this country before General Sherman's raid. Much of it was lost because its place of burial could not be remembered.

People who patronize banks do so because banks do better bookkeeping than they can do. They also realize that it is not wise to have about them more money than is needful for immediate purposes. While the majority of their payments is made by checks. They also realize that whenever a bank is asked to regard the amount of deposits as confidential and violates that confidence it has violated the fundamental principle of banking. Banks do not tell such things. Keep your money in the banks where it is safe. It is not safe anywhere else.

Special attention is called to the following rules:

30. The managers shall open the polls at 8 o'clock a. m., and shall close them at 4 o'clock p. m.; Provided, That in the cities of Charleston and Columbia the polls shall open at 8 o'clock a. m., and close at 6 o'clock p. m. The managers shall then proceed publicly to count the votes. After tabulating the result, the managers shall certify the same and forward the ballot box containing the ballots, poll list and all other papers, except the club roll, relating to such election, by one of their number to the chairman of the county committee within 36 hours after the close of the polls.

35. The county committees shall assemble at their respective court houses on the morning of the second day after the election on or before 12 o'clock noon to tabulate the returns and declare the results of the primary so far as the same relates to members of the general assembly and county officers, and shall forward immediately to the chairman of the State committee at Columbia, S. C. the result of the election in their respective counties for United States senator, State officers, congressmen and solicitors. The State committee shall proceed to canvass the vote and declare the result.

36. The protests and contests for county officers and members of the general assembly shall be filed within two days after the day of declaration by the county committee of the result of the election with the chairman of the county committee and said committee shall hear and determine the same at its first meeting thereafter.

Section 1. In every primary election in this State there shall be provided at each polling precinct one booth for every 100 enrolled voters, or majority fraction thereof. The booths shall be made of wood, cheap metal, or any other suitable substance, shall not be less than 32 inches wide and 32 inches deep, and 6 feet 6 inches high, shall be provided with a curtain hanging from the top in front to within 3 feet of the floor, and shall have a suitable shelf on which the voter can prepare his ticket. Provided, The provisions of this Act shall not apply to rural voting precincts outside of incorporated towns and cities.

Section 2. The polling places shall be provided with a table for the managers. The polls shall be provided with a guard rail, so that no one except as hereinafter provided shall approach nearer than 5 feet to the booths in which the voters are preparing their ballots.

Section 3. The tickets shall be printed on clear white paper in the usual manner but shall have a coupon at the top perforated so as to be easily detached. On the coupon shall be printed "Official Ballot," "Club," "Ward," "No.," "The numbers shall run serially for each club. There shall be 50 per cent more ballots than are voters at each polling place.

Section 4. The managers shall be responsible for all ballots furnished. When a voter presents himself he shall be given a ballot. The manager in charge of the poll list shall enter the number of the ballot next the name of the voter. The voter shall forthwith retire to one of the booths, and without undue delay prepare his ballot by scratching out the name of the candidate for whom he does not care to vote. No voter shall remain in the booth longer than 5 minutes. After preparing his ballot, the voter shall present him self to the manager. His ballot must be folded in such a way that the number can be seen and the coupon can be readily detached by the manager without in any way revealing the printed portion of the ballot. If the voter is not challenged, and takes the prescribed oath, the manager shall tear off the coupon, put it on file, stamp the ballot, and the voter shall deposit his ticket in the box and shall immediately leave the polling place. If a voter shall mar or deface his ballot, he may obtain another ballot upon returning to the manager in charge of the ballots the ballot so marred or defaced, with the coupon attached. The manager in charge of the poll list shall charge the number of the ballot on his poll list, and place the defaced ballot on file. No voter shall be given a second ballot until he has returned the first one with coupon attached.

Section 5. No person shall be allowed within the guard rail except as hereinafter provided. If a voter can not read or write, or is physically disabled, and by reason thereof did not sign the permanent book, he may appeal to the manager for assistance and the chairmen of the managers shall appoint two watchers, representing different factions, to assist him in preparing the ballot. Provided, After the voter's ballot has been prepared, the watchers so appointed shall immediately go behind the guard rail. Provided further, That if there be no such watchers available, the chairman may appoint two by-standers who are qualified electors to assist the voter in the preparation of his ballot.

Section 6. From the time of the opening of the polls until the announcement of the result and the signing of the official returns, no person shall be admitted to the polling place except the managers, duly authorized watchers and challengers, the chairman of the executive committee or member of the executive committee appointed in his stead to supervise the polling place, persons duly admitted for the purpose of voting, police officers admitted by the managers to preserve order or enforce the law, provided, however, That candidates for public office, voted for at such polling place may be present at the canvass of the votes. Provided, Canvass of the votes shall be open to the public.

Section 7. If the watchers or officers of the law who are admitted to the polling place by the managers shall interfere with the managers or obstruct the voting, it shall be the duty of the manager to suspend the election until order is restored or as may be provided by the rules of the party. No person shall be allowed to approach polling places within 25 feet while polls are open, other than the persons herein provided for.

Section 8. Upon the close of the election, managers shall account to the executive committee for all ballots delivered to them, and may make the following return: (a) The number of official ballots furnished to each polling precinct. (b) The number of official ballots applied and returned by voters. (c) The number of official ballots actually voted.

A copy of rules will be mailed to managers of each club with tickets.

Each executive committee is hereby notified that he will be required to furnish the managers of election with a suitable box for tickets for candidates for county offices. (Ordinary cigar boxes will do).
