ANNIE'S VIOLETS.

I walked to-day in the ancient wood That the brook meanders through, And I thought that again sweet Annie stood On the bank where the violets grew.

That again I gazed in her clear blue eye, And held her hand in mine; While the little streamlet, murmuring by, Made melody divine.

I thought that she culled from the bank a her feet, A bunch of the fairest there;

And once she kissed the violets sweet, As she bound them with her hair. But alas! I dream; the old oaks sigh O'er the violets fresh and fair; coraAnd the streamlet sings as it basses by the Committee, this morning. WASHINGTON, April 8. The House spent the morning hour principally in fillbustering attempts to seat Solomon L. Hoge, the minority candidate for the Third Congressional District of South Carolina. Hoge ing in money value upwards of $2, was finally seated. In the Senate, Morton introduced a resolution proposing to inquire the adoption of the lifteenth constitutional amendment by Virginia, Mississippi and Texas as a condition precedent to the admission of Representatives from those States.

The Reconstruction Committee unanimously agreed to report a bill authorizing the President to order elections in Mississippi, Virginia and Texas, and to submit to spare votes the objectional features in their proposed Constitution.

Mr. Sheldon, from Louisiana, was sworn in as Senator.

Gen P. B. M. Young, representative from Georgia, informed a delegation from that State to-day that Butler's Georgia bill would probably not be resumed this session, and if taken up it would certainly be defeated.

The President has nominated Chas. H Pettingill as Assessor for the First and C. H. Baldwin for the Second Revenue Collection Districts of South

Washington, April 10. Amongst other appointments, which onfirmed by the Senate to-day, was that of Charles H. Pettingill as Phird District of South Carolina. The bill restoring the property of Blanton Duncau, of Kentucky, (some of which lies in Columbia,) was passed, and sent to the President. The Source adjourned, at 12 M, tolay, sine die.

The bill, for the further removal of political disabilities, failed utterly. The President has assigned the bill providing for elections in Virginia, Mississippi and Texas.

News Itams HARTFORD, CONN., April 6.

The Republican State ticket has been elected. For Congress, the Senate delegation divided, and Dixon defeated. Jewel's unjority is about | 500. The Legislature is Republican, which secures Connecticut's ratification of the fifteenth amendment.

HAVANA, April 6. The Spanish steamer Quintin des arrived with the Comanditane, captured at Sterrip K.y. Ten Cubans were drawned while attempting to escape. The Diario, in a leader to-day, con siders the rebellion in the central depart ment entirely suppressed. The steamer Conterrook has gone to the mouth of the Mississippi to intercept, a preparted expedition from New Orleans.

The Mexican Government intended sending a commissioner to Washington to have Rosencrans recalled.

NORFOLK, April 10. The propeller, Thames, from New York for Galveston, was burned off Cape II tterass, yesterday. The cook, three seamen and a coal-passer, are supposed to be lost. The rest sav-
