called a "double" or huming. No. 524.—Is a No. 18 size, Boss hunting, 14 karat gold filled case guaranteed for 20 years. The case is handsomely engraved—it is a beauty. This case is fitted with a 15 jowel nickel Waltham or gilt Elgin adjusted movement, with pat-ent regulator. This watch is undoubtedly one of best made in the United States, and the man who buys one will have a watch which he can leave to his son when he no longer needs a watch. The regular retail price of the watch is $50.00.

Our price is $29.75. For the information of those not familiar with gold filled cases, we will say that a 14 karat filled coase of either the Boss, Fahys or Crescent patent, is equal in appearance and wearing qualities to a 14 karat solid gold case. There are probably five gold filled cases sold to one solid gold case, which proves very conclusively that a large majority of those persons who buy watches do not care to pay a big price for the doubtful satisfaction of owning a solid gold case. All the above described, watches are stem winders and stem setters, and are in every way just as represented. Their appearance, in beauty of design and finish, is far better than we can describe.
