The debate at the school house, last Friday evening, drew a considerable crowd, and the occasion was a very pleasant one. The query, as has already been stated in this correspondence, was, "Which gives the most pleasure, the pursuit of an object or the possession of it?" After some very interesting arguments on the part of the debaters, the arguments on the part of the debaters, the committee, consisting of Messrs. R. T. Castles, J. N. Quinn, Mike Austell and Emmett Plaxico, decided in favor of possession. Several Hickory Grove boys were up here, but they did not take any part in the debate. They were afraid of the girls. If they had had none but the boys to contend with they would have probably gone in to win, as would have probably gone in to win, as had some experience, and this is Smyrna's first debate.

Use as directed and you shall surely get rid of them. Try it and see. Yes we have our nice new labels and bottles, and they are beautiful.

And you can rest assured that wonderful will be your feelings and your pride when you "inspect" the mirror and see your face. Then you will have grave doubts whether it is you or some one else. Every bottle of May's Silver Bell Freckle and Tan Cure

Is put up in a neatly printed wrapper, and none can be genuine without the trade mark photograph of old Dr. May, the founder, in 1864. Try it, and we will prove all we say, and the half has never been told yet, for we are saving the great big gun for parties who will say: "Oh! this is no good," etc., then we will show them the gun, well loaded with the testimonials of young ladies and gentlemen, who say we hate to have every one know that our faces were LIKE A GUINEA EGG; but if you don't sell

THAT $50 SEWING MACHINE Now we will call this prominent citizen Smithers, but that is not his name. We simply use the name in order to tell our story about Mr.

Quarter.

EVERY man that comes to town rushes into our house, with one of our circulars in his hand, exclaiming:

if we are not cheaper, do not buy from us. This is fair, and you may rest assured, if we did not have the stuff, as well as the prices, we could not afford to talk so boldly. WE DEFY COMPETITION.

By all means you should see our 50-inch Dress

"Smithers" so that the reader can thoroughly comprehend it. Now Mr. Smithers had one (we don't know how many more) besetting sin, and that was that HE WAS VERY FOND OF "MOUNTAIN DEW." He would sometimes take on more than he could comfortably carry, and this not only worried his family but the pastor of the prominent church as well. The family did not know what to do about it. The pastor thought he did. He thought he could cure Brother Smithers. He, to Hanan's Shoes for gentlemen.

the subject of "CHURCH MEMBERS AND MOUNTAIN DEW." He showed the evil effects, etc., of the practice. In fact he thought from the way Smithers was HAT, you should, by all means, call on us. listening that he had adopted the proper course to accomplish his purpose. A majority of the large congregation knew that the preacher was "shooting" at Smithers, in fact they thought that Smithers also knew that he was the target.

though? I don't think I could hold my head up if I was in Bill's place. Bill ought to be ashamed of himself. He ought not to drink another drop. You know it has a bad influence on the community for a man of Bobkins standing in society and the church to drink liquor!' I would seem from the above statement that It would seem from the above statement that the "parson" had wasted his ammunition. THE READER WILL NATURALLY INQUIRE what all the foregoing has got to do with Family and Fancy Groceries and Plantation Supplies. Well, we will now proceed to tell you by develop-ing the moral of the above story. We have sold ing the moral of the above story. We have sold a great many goods on time during the present year. If you bought anything from us you know exactly the day when your account is due, and we want to say that we expect you to SETTLE YOUR BILL AT THE TIME PROMISED. Now do not come to the conclusion that we are talking to or about Bill Bobkins, because we are not. We are talking to YOU; that is if you owe us. Don't imagine that because you have property and have the reputation of paying your debts that we will esteem it a privilege to carry your account or note, because we won't. WE ARE NOT MILLIONAIRES You Ought to Have Seen Our Place if some people do seem to think so. Don't conclude that we intend this for your neighbor.

Saturday Evening Last

It looked as though the whole town and surrounding country had assembled right there. Each clamoring TO BE WAITED ON FIRST. PRICES TELL, and the people know we have them way down. Some buy CROCKERY, CHINA, WOOD AND WILLOW WARE, Some buy DRESS GOODS, DOMESTICS, BLANKETS, TICKINGS. Others want NOTIONS, SHOES, TRUNKS, VALISES. In fact, you can scarcely name an article in DRY GOODS that we do not carry. One thing we challenge you to do:

COMPARE OUR GOODS AND PRICES

With those of any other dealer in Rock Hill, and the property of any other dealer in Rock Hill, and the property do not buy from us. This was a property of the low price of cotton, or the backward condition of the crop. Now, friend, we have explained why we related the incident in regard to Mr. Smithers, and we do not want you to apply our request for a prompt and FULL settlement to "Bill Bobkins." We know that some people are prone to say

"THEY DON'T MEAN ME,"

(and for this two intend this for your neighbor. We say again that YOU one us anything. You will please settle without delay. We are not responsible for the low price of cotton, or the backward condition of the crop. Now, friend, we have explained why we related the incident in regard to Mr. Smithers, and we do not want you to apply our request for a prompt and FULL settlement to "Bill Bobkins." We know that some people are prone to say
