Letter from Lesslie. JNO. C. KUNKENDAL, Yorkville, S. C. DEAR SIR: During my term as a juror at the county seat, I had a painful attack of Dysentery. You were kind enough to recommend a dose of Anti-Ferment, and I think it my duty to you to state that the one dose made a perfect cure in my case. I had no more trouble after taking it. I do not object to your publishing this. Yours truly,

W. J. LESSLIE. Deliverance of a Doctor.

JNO. C. KUYKENDAL: I consider Campt Ferment the best remedy in existence schie disorders. I found it extremely effistomachic disorders. I found it extremely efficacious about a year ago—giving me prompt relief after other remedies had failed. During an extended fourney by rail not long since I became very much nanseated by the motion of the cars. I betook me to Anti-Ferment with the happiest results. I think it would prove invaluable to those who make ocean voyages. Yours sincerely. M. W. WHITE, D. D. S. Wylie Witnesses.

DR. JNO. C. KUYKENDAL: A few days ago I was affering from an acute attack of Indigestion, and affer taking one dose of your Campbell's Anti-Ferment, I was immediately relieved. In all such cases ment, I was immediately remediately remedi

We desire to say one word about the formula of these powders. They are made expressly for us by Parks, Davis & Co., one of the largest and most reliable firms of manufacturing druggists in the country, and the ingredients used are ABSOLUTELY PURE.

In other words, they are made from Dr. Han-cock's Formula which is endorsed by the Agri-cultural Department of the United States. It will save thousands of little chicks and make them sound and healthy. Many a large old fat hen will come to Yorkville and be converted into money, which otherwise would die of disease.
