

This is the Pair the Democrats Will Have to Beat.

As stated last week, the Republican convention in session at Minneapolis, effected a temporary organization on Tuesday by the election of J. Sloat Fassett, of New York, as temporary chairman.

On Wednesday, the committee on permanent organization reported Governor Wm. McKinley, of Ohio, for permanent chairman. McKinley was looked upon as a Harrison man, with strong presidential aspirations.

He stepped forward and addressed the convention in a speech of about fifteen minutes, which he devoted to an eulogy of the Republican party, and in expatiating on the wonderful advantages of the nation that had been and are to be derived from the protective tariff.

Chairman Bingham, of the committee on rules, reported the adoption of the new rules governing the session of congress.

McKinley then announced as the next order of business, the presentation of candidates for president and vice-president, but he was rather previous, Ingalls, of Kansas, arose and called for the reading of "The Rule."

The committee on platform rendered its report and adopted as follows: We reaffirm the American doctrine of protection. We call attention to its growth abroad.

Well, the Republican convention has been held, and Benjamin Harrison and Whitelaw Reid have been chosen to be the standard bearers of the party during the coming campaign.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

It is thought in Washington that Chaney M. Depew, of New York, will be appointed to succeed James B. Blaine as secretary of state.

Washington—Harrison 1, Blaine 6. Ohio—Harrison 1, McKinley 45. Oregon—Harrison 1, Blaine 1. Pennsylvania—Harrison 1, Blaine 1. McKinley 42.

Immediately after the result of the above ballot was declared, the convention took a recess, and within a few minutes after reconvening for the evening session, nominated for vice-president, Whitelaw Reid, of New York, editor of the New York Tribune, by acclamation. The convention then adjourned sine die.

The proceedings of the day were opened with prayer by Rev. Wayland Hoyt, of Indianapolis, who prayed for the success of the candidates, and a benediction was pronounced by the Lord, and a man after his Son's own heart.

At the conclusion of the prayer, Chairman McKinley rapped for order, and a little confusion ensued on the subject of the report of the committee on credentials, and after this was over, the chairman announced that the next business in order was the presentation of candidates for president of the United States.

Senator Walcott, of Nevada, arose and in a stirring speech nominated James G. Blaine. Nearly every sentence of his speech was loudly applauded, and when the convention went wild. The tumult lasted for several minutes, and when it subsided, Ex-Secretary of the Navy R. W. Thompson, of Indiana, nominated the warriortatesman, Benjamin Harrison.

At the close of Eustis's speech, the Blaine men tried to nominate their man with cheers. They made a mighty demonstration, but the cheering would not end. The crowd yelled, cheered, danced, waved umbrellas, threw hats in the air and finally broke into the old stamping cry of "Blaine, Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine."

Whitelaw Reid, the Republican nominee for vice president, is a native of Ohio, and is now fifty-five years of age. Having received a good education he entered in life as a school teacher, and later became editor and proprietor of the Xenia (Ohio) News.

Pursuant to the arrangement of the State executive committee the caucus of the Democratic party has commenced. Nearly all the candidates on both sides are taking part, and though the fight is being conducted with considerable spirit by the various speakers, the public interest has been somewhat dull.

On Tuesday last week, the crowd present is variously estimated as numbering between 700 and 1,000 people, a large proportion of them being men from drinking.

Several of our young people attended the meeting of the State Normal school on Tuesday last. They were highly pleased with all they saw and heard.

The jury commissioners, assisted by the clerk and sheriff, met in the office of the clerk of the court yesterday and drew the following list of petit jurors to serve during the approaching term of the sessions court, which will convene on Monday, July 4.

SHARON SHAVINGS. SHARON, June 13.—We are having good times about the place. Chickens are getting ripe, plums and blackberries will soon be in, and as soon as we can get our crops laid in we will be ready to entertain all the candidates that come around.

YORKVILLE VS. CLOVER. There was an interesting game of baseball in Yorkville last Thursday afternoon. It was between the Yorkville and Clover teams, and there was a large number of people, including many ladies, present to witness it.

ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS. Closing Exercises of the Yorkville School. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. ROCK HILL, June 14.—The people began to assemble for the exercises at an early hour last Friday afternoon, and by 9 o'clock the house was crowded.

THE CROPS—Increased acreage of wheat—Bullock's Creek—The Yorkville Enquirer. CORN, June 13.—The crops in this section are in a fine growing condition and the outlook is very encouraging.

YORKVILLE VS. CLOVER. There was an interesting game of baseball in Yorkville last Thursday afternoon. It was between the Yorkville and Clover teams, and there was a large number of people, including many ladies, present to witness it.

ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS. Closing Exercises of the Yorkville School. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. ROCK HILL, June 14.—The people began to assemble for the exercises at an early hour last Friday afternoon, and by 9 o'clock the house was crowded.

THE CROPS—Increased acreage of wheat—Bullock's Creek—The Yorkville Enquirer. CORN, June 13.—The crops in this section are in a fine growing condition and the outlook is very encouraging.

YORKVILLE VS. CLOVER. There was an interesting game of baseball in Yorkville last Thursday afternoon. It was between the Yorkville and Clover teams, and there was a large number of people, including many ladies, present to witness it.

ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS. Closing Exercises of the Yorkville School. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. ROCK HILL, June 14.—The people began to assemble for the exercises at an early hour last Friday afternoon, and by 9 o'clock the house was crowded.

THE CROPS—Increased acreage of wheat—Bullock's Creek—The Yorkville Enquirer. CORN, June 13.—The crops in this section are in a fine growing condition and the outlook is very encouraging.

Both sides appeared to be very well satisfied with the results of the day.

At HAMPTON. Wednesday's meeting was at Hampton Court House. The most successful estimates put the crowd as numbering about 850 people.

The crowd at Beaufort was very small. There were not more than 100 whites and 300 negroes. J. B. Humbert, candidate for controller general, was the first speaker, and made a telling, far-reaching address.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

game was called at 4.30 o'clock and lasted about two hours and a half, resulting in a victory for Bulluck by a score of 9 to 1.

THE YORKVILLE GRADED SCHOOLS. The closing exercises of the Yorkville Graded schools will take place in the school building next Friday evening, and all who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

MURDER IN GREENVILLE.

GREENVILLE, June 13.—A very prominent citizen of this city, was foully and brutally murdered here this morning at 9 o'clock on the corner of Main and Coffee streets by Nims Sullivan, a white man, who was a member of the party.

THE YORKVILLE GRADED SCHOOLS. The closing exercises of the Yorkville Graded schools will take place in the school building next Friday evening, and all who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.

At COLLETON. The Colleton meeting was held at Walterboro, the county seat, on Friday. The crowd present was estimated at about 1,000, including a great many negroes.