THE COUNTY CAMPAIGN.

Constitutional Convention Candidates at Blacksburg Yesterday. By Telegraph to The Yorkville Enquirer.

BLACKSBURG, July 23.—The constitutional convention campaign opened today pursuant to the revised programme adopted by the county Democratic Executive committee last Saturday.

Messrs. A. H. White, W. B. Wilson and J. S. Brice came up yesterday afternoon, Mr. Spencer arrived last night, and Mr. W. N. Elder came in this morning through the country.

Major A. H. White said that if he should be chosen as a delegate he would discharge his duty to the best of his ability. He wanted white supremacy and the retention of the home state, and also the school tax.

Mr. Wilson said that the franchise question was the all important matter, and expressed himself as being an advocate of the Mississippi plan.

Mr. Elder said he was in favor of the home state law as it stood; wanted school money to go to those who paid the taxes; was opposed to the division of York county, and was in favor of white supremacy.

Mr. Ashe was not present on account of the serious illness of his wife; but sent a written statement of his position on various questions.

CAPTAIN SAMUEL E. WHITE, of Fort Mill, is not a politician; a man man of patriotism and intelligence, a Conservative Democrat, and eminently qualified to make laws for the whole people to live under. TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF YORK COUNTY:

MAJOR A. H. WHITE, of Rock Hill, is hereby announced as a candidate for nomination as a delegate to the CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION, subject to the action of the Democratic primary. Major White is well known to the voters of York county, and is valued because of his intelligence, honesty, integrity and patriotism. He is non-partisan, not a politician, and his many sterling qualities of head and heart eminently qualify him to represent York county, and to do full justice to every citizen. For these reasons, you are earnestly asked to support and elect him. YORK COUNTY. July 10 43

FOR THE CONVENTION.

EDITORS OF THE YORKVILLE ENQUIRER: Please announce as a candidate for the constitutional convention, Mr. J. S. BRICE, of Yorkville. We make this request not especially on account of favoritism or on account of any personal consideration; but as a logical consequence. During the last four years of political strife, he has been truly conservative. Guarding against the extremes of both sides, he has courageously worked to the best interest of the whole people, and proved not only his ability for service in the responsible position indicated; but also that he is worthy of the unlimited confidence of the whole people. Say that Mr. Brice is suggested at the instance of REFORMERS. July 10 43

ROCK HILL BUGGY CO., ROCK HILL, S. C.

IT IS POSSIBLE

THAT at some time during the past few months we have intimated in this space that Buggies and Ladies Phaetons manufactured by us were the equal in every particular of any offered on the market. We not only intimated the foregoing, but, in fact we made the claim unconditionally, and we desire to reiterate it. We know what kind of material we use in the manufacture of our buggies and phaetons and we know that no other manufacturers use any better, and many not so good, and we know also that our workmen are skilled and can do put up as good a vehicle as is built anywhere by anybody. Every vehicle we sell is backed by an iron clad guarantee. Our prices are less than others charge for a similar grade of work. Mr. Sam M. Grist handles our work at Yorkville and will always be pleased to talk to you if you want a vehicle of any kind and mean business. Suppose you call and see him about a buggy or whatever you may want in the vehicle line. He will make it interesting for you. Now don't forget that we build as good vehicles as are sold on our Southern market and that we are file leaders on low prices. ROCK HILL BUGGY CO.
