

Scraps and Facts.

It has developed that there is a shortage of about $85,000 in the accounts of Mr. Spofford, the congressional librarian.

An agreement has been signed by Secretary of State Olney, Minister Dupuy de Lome, of Spain, Antonio Maximo Mora and Mr. Mora's counsel, providing for the settlement of the Mora claim on the basis of $1,500,000 on the 15th of September next.

The Ohio State Democratic convention met at Springfield last Wednesday and nominated James E. Campbell for governor.

The Chinese officials are not disposed to allow the American and British consuls to be present at the investigation of the Kucheng massacre.

The idea of having a Mexican bull fight at the Atlanta exposition has been abandoned.

The supreme court of Georgia has just handed down a decision that is of interest to the traveling public.

Charlotte Observer: The Rev. J. H. Pressley, the pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, of Statesville, preached last Sunday, according to The Landmark, on the new woman, taking the Shunamite woman as his subject.

Some of the friends of General Ransom, late minister to Mexico, are beginning to suspect Cleveland of playing a double game.

sented Cleveland rather than the people of North Carolina, and the fat job in Mexico was his reward.

YORKVILLE, S. C.: FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 1895.

The returns from the recent election clearly indicated the fact that the people of the State have not got their hearts in the proposition for the formation of a new constitution.

The only one thing necessary to the success of the free coinage proposition, is the union of all the elements that favor it.

A few weeks ago Director Bauer, of the South Carolina department of the weather bureau, was rather blue over the condition of the corn crop in the State.

The letter in which Mr. H. B. King, of Augusta, announces his conversion to free silver might be read with profit everywhere.

Ex-Judge T. J. Mackey is now in New York making his living by writing for the magazines.

Secretary Morton, of the department of agriculture, is giving those of his employes who dare to advocate free coinage what he facetiously calls an "object" lesson.

Warren's, August 21.—Joe Neely, colored, was killed by the material train last Saturday night at South Fork trestle, just below Smith's.

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. WARREN'S, August 21.—Joe Neely, colored, was killed by the material train last Saturday night at South Fork trestle, just below Smith's.

Governor Evans Threatens the Factories. Governor Evans says his attention has been called to the fact that several cotton factories in the State are flagrantly violating the law which requires that no factory shall work its operatives more than 11 hours a day.

UNTIL JANUARY 1896. THE TWICE-A-WEEK ENQUIRER will be furnished from this date until January 1, 1896, for 65 cents.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Grist Cousins—Say that a first-class bicycle cannot be bought for $40; but a good one can be purchased of them at from $65 to $125.

THE CROP IS LATE. The cotton crop is quite late this year. A gentleman who has been in a fairly good position to know, said yesterday that he did not believe there is an open boll in the county.

COMPLIMENTARY GERMAN. Quite a delightful german was given in Bratton's hall last Wednesday night, complimentary to Misses Juliet McClure, of Chester, and May Moorman, of Columbia.

RESULT OF THE ELECTION. Here are the returns from Tuesday's election. We did not consider that there was sufficient interest in the matter to warrant us in going to the expense of getting up the information by telegraph.

THE NEGRO AT THE POLLS. Though we are unable to say just what it means, there was evidently considerable method in the action of the Negroes at the polls last Tuesday.

Table with 4 columns: Precincts, Democrat, Republican, Total. Lists results for Antioch, Blainsville, Bethany, Buffalo, Bullock's Creek, Clover's Fork, Coates's Tavern, Forest Hill Academy, Hickory Grove, McConnellsville, Newport, Rock Hill, Sharps, Smyrna, Tirzah, Yorkville, and Totals.

WALFS FROM WARREN. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. WARREN'S, August 21.—Joe Neely, colored, was killed by the material train last Saturday night at South Fork trestle, just below Smith's.

Governor Evans Threatens the Factories. Governor Evans says his attention has been called to the fact that several cotton factories in the State are flagrantly violating the law which requires that no factory shall work its operatives more than 11 hours a day.

UNTIL JANUARY 1896. THE TWICE-A-WEEK ENQUIRER will be furnished from this date until January 1, 1896, for 65 cents.

registration certificates. They went off to a room some where and reported their names to a committee.

Clover.—Two Republican votes were thrown out on account of mutilation. One Democratic vote was thrown out for the same cause.

ABOUT PEOPLE. Mrs. W. G. White is visiting in Chester. Mr. J. R. Warren, of Heardmont, Ga., was in town this week.

Major James F. Hart was on business in Blainsville, several days this week. Miss Belle Wilkie, of Charleston, is visiting relatives and friends in Rock Hill.

LOCAL LACONICS. A Picnic of Peas. In a 2-column advertisement today, the Ganson Dry Goods company announces a big picnic of low prices that are to obtain at their establishment on next Tuesday and Wednesday.

THE MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT in the court house last Tuesday night, for the benefit of the town clock fund, was quite a success.

TRIAL JUSTICE WATERS, on Wednesday, sentenced John Cureton, colored, to 30 days in the chain gang for carrying concealed weapons.

ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS. Making Ready for the Veterans—Beat Chester at Baseball—Personal Mention. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer.

ROCK HILL, August 21.—For the past few weeks, Captain Fredell Jones and his various committees, have been very active in making preparations to entertain the many visitors who are expected to be in Rock Hill on next Tuesday, the occasion of the reunion of the Confederate survivors of York county.

THE FOUNDATIONS of the Manchester cotton mill have been laid, and under the supervision of Mr. A. D. Holler, the brick work is progressing rapidly.

THE "OUR BOYS" went to Chester on Monday last and crossed bats with the ing a few days at Mrs. M. E. Shannon's. Miss Edna Hull, of Rock Hill, is visiting Miss Hattie Banks.

Mrs. N. J. N. Bowen returned yesterday from a visit to Ebenezer and Rock Hill.

Mrs. R. A. Crowell, of Albemarle, N. C., is visiting her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Lowrance, in this place.

Mrs. Joe Alexander and children, of this place, returned last Monday from a visit to relatives and friends at Rock Hill.

Messrs. Wylie and Baxter Moore, of Chester, visited relatives in Yorkville this week, the guests of Mr. B. N. Moore's family.

Mr. Geo. P. Holler, superintendent of the Rock Hill Buggy factory, with his family, visited relatives near Yorkville, this week.

Mr. S. L. Hobbs, the popular agent at the O. R. & C. depot at this place, returned yesterday from an extended visit to Blacksburg.

Mr. H. W. Smith, of Yorkville, has been drawn as a grand juror, to serve at the approaching term of the United States court in Greenville.

Mrs. T. M. Faysoux and children returned to Yorkville last Monday afternoon, after a pleasant visit to relatives at Pleasant Ridge, N. C.

Probate Judge McCorkle and son, Mr. Paul G. McCorkle, are at Cleveland Mineral springs, where they expect to remain for a week or more.

Miss Erral Hay, of Hickory, N. C.; Mrs. Woodruff, of Savannah, Ga.; and Mr. Skinner, of Wintboro, are visiting at the Rev. Mr. Hay's, in Clover.

Mrs. Esther Lewis and Mrs. Margaret Smith, of this place, are visiting their sister, Mrs. W. C. Owens, who is quite sick at her home in Charlotte.

Miss Julia Richardson, of Charlotte, but more recently of the Agnes-Scott institute, of Decatur, Ga., visited friends in Yorkville, this week, the guest of Mrs. C. M. Kuykendal.

Prof. H. H. Savage, of the Baptist High school, is expected to arrive in Yorkville tomorrow, preparatory for commencing his work in that institution on the 10th of September.

Has Moved to Yorkville. Mr. Pelham Morrow, who is to have the management of the big roller mill to be erected by his brother, Mr. Leroy Morrow, has moved with his family from Gastonia, and is now occupying the John Lowry house on Cleveland avenue.

Pleased With the Quality. Captain John Eudey, who has been spending some time investigating the manganese in the vicinity of Blacksburg, left for the North on Wednesday, taking along a number of specimens.

The annual picnic which was to have been held at Gold Hill last Wednesday proved a failure on account of rain.

Two Men Killed. Mr. J. W. Thomson, of Blacksburg, informed us yesterday that two men—ouie white and the other colored—were killed on the Air Line railroad yesterday, between Sparta and Charlotte.

Makes No Difference. "I am not a member of the association," said a Confederate survivor the other day in answer to a question as to whether he was going to Rock Hill on the 27th, "and I don't know whether I am included in the invitation or not." Membership in the association has nothing to do with the matter.

Applied for Bail. J. Logan Gibson, in jail charged with the murder of Rufus U. Hardin, went before Judge Witherspoon yesterday on a writ of habeas corpus, and made application for release on bond.

To Work the Roads. It is the purpose of the county board of commissioners to commence work on the roads in good earnest about the 1st of October.

FROM A PREACHER'S STANDPOINT. W. W. Ratchford Makes Some Pertinent Remarks on the Financial Question. Editors of the Yorkville Enquirer.

In the last ENQUIRER there is a lengthy argument on the silver question. I have not read it yet, and do not know whether I will or not, as I take no part in the discussion.

Shot Himself. Mr. Leroy Davis, formerly of Zeno, shot himself in the head with a pistol, in Rock Hill yesterday morning and is now in a dying condition.

Thirteen in Two Days. As the time for the opening grows shorter, Rev. W. O. Petty feels more and more encouraged at the prospects of the Baptist High school.

Takes the "Mutiny" Out. W. A.'s statement that burr mill flour is more nutritious than that ground by the patent process, reminds us of a good joke on a certain burr miller who does business not a great distance from Yorkville.

Work on the Streets. Mr. James Hamilton, a macadam expert, of Chester, was up on Monday for the purpose of giving instructions as to the work on Yorkville's streets.

The Reunion at Rock Hill. "Are you going to the reunion at Rock Hill on the 27th?" A representative of THE ENQUIRER has asked no less than a dozen old Confederate veterans from different parts of the county that question within the past 10 days, and, without exception, they said they would surely be there.