

is over waist high and the limbs meet at the row. The Sunday school of the Philadelphia Methodist church held its annual picnic yesterday in connection with the celebration of children's day. The introductory address was delivered by our superintendent, Mr. J. I. Spinks. The other speakers on the programme were Misses Lilly Farris, Fannie Coltharp, Pearl Sutton, Maggie Jennings, Lee Nicholson and Ola Garrison, young ladies, and W. M. Crook, W. J. Coltharp, R. L. Warren, Elmore Crook, Burney Spinks and W. C. Owen, boys. The concluding address was delivered by our pastor, Rev. J. W. Humbert. The crowd then retired to the beautiful grove across the road from the church, where, after a committee had been appointed to especially invite all strangers and others without lunch, a dinner was served. I think everybody got plenty to eat.

There were several candidates with us. The Gold Hill band was at its best, and among other selections rendered some beautiful solos, as follows: "Phenomenal Polka," cornet solo, by C. P. Blankenship; "Crown Jewels," baritone solo by J. G. Smith; "Illusion Polka," alto solo, by W. H. Crook, and "Tioga Bass," solo by S. C. Faris. The death angel has again laid his hand on our midst. Little Ardrey, 8-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Spinks, departed this life last Monday at 11 p. m., to meet him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Her remains were interred in the Flint Hill cemetery on Tuesday at 4 p. m. Mrs. Julia Boyce, wife of Mr. William Boyce, died on Saturday, 4th. She was buried at Blackstock cemetery yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. She was a consistent member of Center A. R. church. Miss Connie Merritt and Mr. John Bailey were united in the holy bonds of wedlock on Sunday, June 28th. Mr. Samuel Kimbrell, the oldest son of Mr. Will Kimbrell, is in bed with typhoid fever. I will close by saying, "Hurrah for Uncle Ben Tillman, and may he be the next president."

Edgar W. Nye, FAMILIARLY known as "Bill Nye," was perhaps, the most popular humorist of the Nineteenth century, and millions of people read his productions each week, and were pained to hear of his death a short time ago. Mr. Nye's home was Buck Shoals, near Arden, in an ordinary life policy in an old line company and paid it the same amount in premiums that he paid the Mutual Reserve his wife, who was the beneficiary, would have received $2,526 instead of $5,000. Gain by insuring in the Mutual Reserve $2,474.

IT SEEMS QUEER to "a man up a tree" that sensible men, who are accustomed to apply business principles to all their other affairs, will continue to go without insurance, or that some of those who do buy it will voluntarily pay the old line rates when they can secure just as good protection for less money. Don't it look that way to you since the matter has been called to your attention? You need insurance. We sell the best offered in the world today. Moral: See us without delay. Tomorrow may be everlastingly too late. SAM M. & L. GEO. GRIST, General Agents, Yorkville, S. C.
