ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS.

Returning Visitors Cutting Down Expenses-Happy Marriage-Bicycle Races. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer.

ROCK HILL, August 27 .- We notice each day on our streets some familiar face that for some weeks has been missed. One by one they are returning home after their holliday. Among those who have returned are Mrs. E. E. Poag, Miss Aline Mobley, Miss Florence Vance, Miss Annie Lyle Roddey and the Misses Sherfesee. The absentees during the summer have been many, but most of them are at home again.

The city council has decided to limit at noon. Chief Culp remains, as heretofore, in general charge. The latter managed to rid the town of a little vagabond a few days since. His name is Arthur Garner, and he has already tried chain gang fare. He was arrested under suspicion of having secreted himself in a store the night before and stealing some few and put in the old guardhouse, but in about 15 minutes was gone again. His room is much preferred to his company 565, and Watts beat Richbourg 38,806 in any capacity.

Yesterday afternoon, at 6 o'clock, in the Presbyterian church at this place, Mr. Robert B. Cunningham and Miss Bessie Russell were married. Rev. Alexander Sprunt officiated. Mr. Cunningham is from Kershaw county, but has been among us so long that he may be considered as belonging to Rock Hill. Miss Russell was a daughter of Mr. M. W. Russell, long a citizen of Rock Hill. The ceremony was very simple. Messrs. Harrison, Oates, Boulware and J. M. Russell acted as ushers; while Miss Jennie, Russell the sister of the bride, and Mr. Ed Cunningham were the only attendants. Miss Roddey, our accomplished organist, rendered Taunhauser's and Lohengrin's marches as the party entered and left the church. The bridal pair at once left for an extended tour; first to Norfolk and then to points further north. The bicycle races this afternoon gave some fine riding; the races were as fol-

They Must Run a. Second Race For the U.S. Senate.

MR. ELLERBE NEXT GOVERNOR.

The Vote One of the Largest Ever Polled and It Came Principally From the Country-Reformers Want to Purify the Party.

The daily papers of yesterday contained complete returns from all over the state as to the United States senate, and gave the figures with regard to all the other contests with sufficient accuracy to determine the result beyond question. The vote state, and the most remarkable fact Lenoir (N. C.) Topic, Wednesday: about it was that the great bulk of it Miss Sue Shannon of Yorkville, S. C., is came from the country districts. Charleston polled less than one-third of its strength, and the people of Coited relatives and friends in Yorkville lumbia manifested so little interest that Evans, for whom they have abso-Mr. R. E. Montgomery who has been lutely no use whatever, was actually confined to his bed with fever during the allowed to carry Richland county. Edgefield, Tillman's county, literally buried Evans, and even in Aiken, his home county, the governor managed to get only a slight majority. It is estimated that not more than twothirds of the Conservatives in the state voted; but notwithstanding this fact, Evans lacks in the neighborhood of 900 votes of having a majority, and there must be a second race between him and Earle. The complete returns from the senatorial race are as

Mr. Ellerbe swept up the earth with the number of our police to three for the present. Two will divide each 24 hours that has been cast for any gubernatorial candidate since the war. In the First district, Elliott was renominated without opposition. Tal bert was re-nominated in the Second district in the same manner. In the Third, Latimer got a majority over Keitt, Wideman and Bowden. In the Fourth, Stanyarne Wilson-came within a few votes of doubling on Johnson and Farley. The result of the Ffth is given elsewhere. In the Sixth district McLaurin was nominated without opposition, and in the Seventh, Stokes got twice as many votes as Moses.

FORT MILL MATTERS.

The Election-Pleasant Entertainment-Personal Mention.

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. FORT MILL, August 27 .- A great deal of enthusiasm was displayed during the election, on Tuesday and every one seemed to cast his vote according to his own convictions. Miss Maggie Downs is visiting her siser, Mrs. Lois Parks of Rock Hill. Mr. L. J. Massey, one of our prominent merchants, left Monday for Baltimore, to select his fall stock.

Mrs. M. A. Meacham returned from Pineville, N. C., on Wednesday, after spending several days with her many friends there.

The young people of the town were very delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at a New Woman's entertainment given by Mr. and Mrs. A. Young in honor of Miss Susie Nelson of Camden. The principal feature was five contests participated in by the young men as follows: 1st. Button contest, won by Stewart McMurray; 2nd. Pattern contest, won by E. W. Kimbrell; 3rd. Hat Trimming contest, won by Lee Spratt; 4th. Patching contest, won by Lee Spratt; 4th. Patching contest, won by Coot Blankenship. Misses Bessie Meacham, Mable Ardrey and Gussy Hotchkiss acted as judges.

The young people of the town were the young sensition of Commissioners which, it will be remembered, is composed of one man from each township and all appointment of the county board prescribes and not especially of any particular section. The chaingang will work wherever the county board prescribes, and wherever it works I shall make it my business to see that it accomplishes the best possible results. My record as a public official is before the people, and all I ask is that they judge in New York have offered me better terms in New York have offered friends there.

Mr. D. W. Culp of Pleasant Valley, was the first to bring new cotton to this market, two bales being sold by him to Potts & Belk, at 71 cents, on last Friday. Mr. Sam P. Watson is spending a few days at Cleveland Springs.

UNCLE GEORGE ON BRYAN.

Hon. George D. Tillman has given the Augusta Chronicle his opinion of nearly all the great men of this country, and with many from foreign countries; and while serving two years in congress with Bryan, he always impressed me as being the greatest man I ever met, and as being just as good sample as anybody, and to give as good sample as anybody, and in addition to this will give MORE pounds of lint from a given number of pounds seed cotton than any other ginner unless he has a new Pratt Gin. Give the Black boys a trial.

FRED, ARTHUR & NORMAN BLACK. as he was great. As an orator I have never heard but three men who could never heard but three men who could be compared with him. They were Ben Hill, Blaine and Blackburn. He either knows everything or has such a faculty of reference to books that he can quickly get any information he wants. His memory is simply marvelous, and he has such an intimate knowledge of men that he can read their character at a glance. He is always at work seeking knowledge, by reading, conversation or reflection, and seems to look upon idleness as a crime. If he has even any small vice—chewing, smoking, drinking, gambling, cursing, etc., I never discovered it during two years' personal and official intercourse with him. In covered it during two years' personal and official intercourse with him. In fact, the man always appeared to be conscientiously inspired with enthusians to do good for others. Yet he is a most devoted father, and acts more like a lover than a husband towards his wife. In a few words, morally speaking, he is so well balanced that he could not intentionally do a wrong thing if he were to try, and his intellect is so clear and strong that he always avoids evil as near as it is conscientiously inspired with enthusialways avoids evil as near as it is human to do so. TO THE PUBLIC. I AM informed by my friends that there has been put in circulation about me a report to the effect that if elected supera report to the effect that if elected supervisor I will keep the chaingang in the eastern portion of the county. I think I can afford to leave it to the love of fair play which pervades this county to decide whether or not this is unjust. My opponent, Mr. Leech, is an honorable gentlement, and I know that he is not responsiman and I know that he is not responsi-ble for the story. It should be remem-bered that the disposition of the chain-gang, as well as all other important mat-ters is solely within the jurisdiction of the county board of commissioners which
