ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS.

Work Resumed at Winthrop-In Memory of Dr. Preston-Other Notes of Inter

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. ROCK HILL, September 28.-For sev eral mornings the bell at Winthrop has been sounding forth its summons to breakfast and to work. The instructors are coming in one by one, and by Tues day evening's trains, a large number will come to resume work. Mrs. Simpson, the matron, and Mrs. O'Bryan, the housekeeper, are already on hand. All is pre-pared, the guests only are lacking.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Cunningham have returned from a short visit to Liberty Hill, in Kershaw county, the old home of Mr. Cunningham. The tent meeting recently conducted by Messrs. Ligon and Harris is to be moved to Catawba. We have not heard a summary of the results of the meeting here, but much interest has been manifested. Rev. Alexander Sprunt of the First Presbyterian church, attended the memorial exercises in the First Presbyterian church of Charloite, whose pastor, Dr. Preston, died two weeks ago. There was a very large gathering showing the esteem in which Dr. Preston was held. There were several speakers; Mr. Hanna, to represent the officers of that church; Dr. Boarman, the ministerial union of Charlotte; Dr. Hoge of Wilmington, the church at large; and Mr. Sprunt, who spoke of the de ceased as a friend. In consequence of the absence of Mr. Sprunt, there was no service in the First Presbyterian church on Sabbath morning. At night, Rev. Mr. Browne of the Methodist church, preached.

Dr. F. W. P. Butler, of Edgefield, has been on a visit to friends here since Saturday night.

Mr. John Ratterree has moved the small tin covered store room in the corner of his let fronting on Main street, and is putting up there a larger and more commodious stand on the same site.

Gardeners here are rejoicing over a gentle rain that is falling just now. It insures a stand of turnips and winter vegetables, which will be very welcome after at 4.30. our summer failures.

THAT YALE AFFAIR.

What the Papers Have to Say About the Howling Down of Mr. Bryan.

St. Louis Republic: The Yale faculty has reason to blush that young men of presumably gentle breeding who attend the university should show in their treatment of a political opponent a total lack of the essential attributes of the scholar and the gen-

Memphis Commercial-Appeal: Mr. Bryan lost nothing by the encounter but the stigma of disgrace was placed upon a college which hitherto has been a symbol of the American spirit of fair play and free speech.

Chicago Record: Old Yale can hardly be proud of the fact that the first open discourtesy to be shown a presidential candidate in this campaign college boys who endeavored to interfere with Mr. Bryan's speechmaking at New Haven. The advertising which the institution has received through-out the length and breadth of the land is of a kind that will not be relished is of a kind that will not be relished by its alumni and faculty, and ought to be humiliating to the student body at its exact worth by him. But at the same time, it was no less an insult to the west, of which Mr. Bryan is peculiarly the representative, and to every advocate of free coinage and opponent of the single gold standard in the land. If it does not react against those who inspired it and who approve it by their silence, human nature has changed very much of late.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN BOOK .--Representative Benton McMillin of Tennessee, has completed the Democratic campaign book. It will be ready the latter part of this week. The title page contains the admonition Large Lot of Jefferson in his first inaugural address to bow to the will of the majority.

From the Chicago convention i gives the platform, Bryan's speech, the notification speeches and letters of acceptance. It lays down the fundamental principles of the Democratic party as expounded by Jefferson, Allen of Ohio, Seymour of New York, and Bryan. One hundred pages are devoted to the silver question.

There are chapters on McKinlev's public record on the subject of silver. Chinese immigration, the force bill and the effects of the McKinley tariff law. Under the head of the Monroe doctrine and diplomatic relations the book quotes from Jefferson, Monroe and

A chapter on the income tax gives Bryan's speech in the house on that subject, the report of the committee, the dissenting opinions of the supreme court and Senator Vest's review.

Under the head of labor the book reproduces in full Mr. Bryan's speech on Labor Day at Chicago. The chapter on trusts, treats of the trust laws passed by the Democratic party. There is a chapter on pensions, one on public lands, one on untaxing the rich. another on the record of the Fiftyfourth congress and finally a chapter on the tariff. The first edition consists of 10,000 copies; price, 50 cents.

they were bought right. We bought them to sell. We are going to sell them for CASH, and we are offering them right. Come and see us. We will be right here until the FIRST MONDAY IN OCTOBER, when we will go to Yorkville with something to suit anybody and everybody. Don't forget us. We talk pretty large sometimes; but we mean it. See if we don't. WHISONANT & CASTLES.

SEE THE CIRCUS!

Breakfast Tidings! I have just received a supply of the finest MACKEREL that the natives of York ever had the pleasure of seeing. I sell them right along and that is good
