Special Notices.

York Association.

The twenty-eighth annual session of the York County Baptist association, will be held at Hickory Grove, commencing at 11 a. m., Thursday, October 8. Arrangements have been made for the accommodation of all the delegates and visiting brethren in the town.

Week of Prayer For Missions. The general assembly of the Presbyterian church has recommended "that with many churches throughout the world, the first week in October be a season of prayer for the salvation of the world."

The presbytery of Bethel recently endorsed this recommendation to the churches within its bounds. Accordingly an association of Presbyterian ministers in eastern York has agreed to observe the week with appointments at the following places, at which addresses will be made by these ministers:

At Yorkville, Monday night. Beth Shiloh on Tuesday morning. Allison Creek on Tuesday afternoon. Ebenezer on Wednesday morning. White Memorial, Rock Hill, on Wednesday night. First church, Rock Hill, Thursday morning and night. Fort Mill, Friday morning and afternoon.

The association of ministers to observe this schedule of appointments is Rev. J. H. Thornwell, D. D., Rev. W. G. Neville, Rev. J. M. McLain, Rev. O. G. Jones and Rev. Alexander Sprunt. Short addresses will be made by them each day. The cordial support of these churches is earnestly solicited.

FLOUR, MEAL, COTTON. WE will turn your wheat into as fine a grade of flour as can be made in the United States. We will grind your corn so as to exactly suit your notion of what good meal ought to be. There is not a cotton gin in this whole country that can gin you a better sample or turn out a bale in less time. YORKVILLE ROLLER MILLS. PELHAM MORROW, Manager.

W. M. KENNEDY WILL furnish the high schools, the graded schools and the public schools, with their books at the lowest possible cash prices. Graphic copies and Stationery. Arrangements with the publishers of standard books, enable me to supply any not on hands in a very few days. Lamm & Company's new sample book for FALL and WINTER clothing is on hand, and we ask all who want a GOOD FIT IN GOOD GOODS to examine the styles and prices before buying.

OUR NEW PRATT GIN. THE NEW PRATT GIN with Feeder and Condenser, which we recently purchased from Mr. Sam M. Grist has arrived and has been placed in position, and is in operation every day, turning out MORE LINT COTTON FROM A STATED AMOUNT OF COTTON, and producing a better sample than any Gin in the county, except some other new Pratt Gins. Cotton ginned in a PRATT always brings a better price than that of other Gins. Bring us your cotton. FRED BLACK, JAMES BLACK, NORMAN BLACK.

STRAUSS AND BARGAINS

Are Synonymous, and They Are the Watchwords.

It has reached that point in my business that when the word STRAUSS is used, it is equivalent to saying BARGAINS with all the emphasis known to oratory, and it has been with all ease that Strauss has outstripped and outdistanced all competitors.

Strauss's stock of Dress Goods—a list of which, together with the prices, was printed in WEDNESDAY'S ENQUIRER—is pronounced the most elaborate, the most complete, and the cheapest ever displayed in this section of the state, and this opinion is expressed by ladies who easily know whereof they speak, and who have no interest as to whether Strauss's goods are fine or indifferent! But the highest testimony which Strauss's Dress Goods can receive is the hearty approval of quality and price and the eager and enthusiastic purchasers among our home people.

STRAUSS'S CLOTHING is not a sideshow to a single department in his establishment, and the young man or old gentleman who can't be suited there is a greater freak than the "Yale college boy," who recently came into contemptuous notoriety by acting as he by nature had been endowed to act, by offering an insult to the highest type of American citizenship—Wm. J. Bryan—who would not scorn a single suit of clothing in Strauss's stock. Mr. Bryan "don't" spize the 'violet flower, caze 'taint the rose!"

Strauss's stock of Corsets is a wonder to behold, and when in a few days more the outstanding order comes in, it will be the most complete line on this market.

In Hosiery for ladies, children and men, Strauss "stands in his stocking feet," head and shoulders over everybody.

My line of Men's Hats surpass anything ever yet seen in my store, and the prices, quality or style cannot be duplicated by anyone.

H. C. STRAUSS.

GOT UP AND DUSTED.

In order to give Strauss, the "Hustler," more room to "Spread" and let his Hair grow out,

I HAVE MOVED The Academy of Music

From the McClain Building, to the Allison Building, next door to the Presbyterian Church, opposite Law Range

I AM offering the LESTER PIANO, WILCOX & WHITE ORGAN, and the NATIONAL TYPEWRITER at prices lower than any other agent or dealer can possibly give on first class, high grade goods.

A few instruments are now in my stock, which I offer special bargains in to close them out, to make room for more.

MY MUSIC PARLOR is a nice, quiet place, and the Ladies are especially invited to call and bring their music and play as much as they like. I have a special bargain in a fine MAHOGANY PIANO for a few days. Call and see it. GEO. T. SCHORB.

An Earthquake.

THAT is if we had an earthquake that would smash up the cups, saucers and plates of every man, woman and child in the county, we believe we could furnish the demand at once from our present stock. In crockery we have just received a line of dinner sets and other goods at the lowest prices in our experience. You can't afford to go by if you want goods in our line.

CLOVER and Crimson Clover seeds at reduced prices. Overstock.

MACHINE OIL.—Do you use oil on your Engine, Gin or any other machinery. If so, we keep a good oil with some body and not like lamp oil or water. Try it.
