To Build the O. R. & C. The talk of completing the O. R. & C. railroad shows no indication of subsidence. The reporter was told a few days ago by a gentleman who says he has just returned from the territory referred to, that an engineer corps has been over the line and completed the location from Marion, N. C., to the Ohio river.

He thinks that there is every reason to believe that work will be commenced all along the line within a very short time. superintendent, J. J. Gaudin, teachers and all who helped to make the meeting a success, deserve credit. Dr. Sampson Pope, Lily White leader, tonight announces his surrender and urges his followers to go over to the Webster wing. The same advice is also given by a Negro leader on that side.

Senator Earle's Funeral. The funeral of Jos. H. Earle took place at Rock Hill on Saturday last. It was attended by a delegation from the senate and house of representatives, headed by Senator Tillman, and also a large concourse of people from all parts of South Carolina. Governor Ellerbe was not present, having been prevented at the last minute from going.

The pastor gave words of encouragement and praise to the members of the school and spoke of the good order observed during the day. The dinner was excellent and abundant and greatly enjoyed. The conclusion of all present was that the day was pleasantly and profitably spent. Collection commendable.

SHARON SHAVINGS. Personal and Other Notes—Mrs. Crosby Improving. Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer.

SHARON, May 24.—We had a refreshing shower of rain last evening, and this morning everything looks healthy and bright. Rev. J. B. Swann and wife, of Bullock's Creek, are in town this morning.

Rev. Mr. Swann preached for the Woodlawn congregation last night. Mrs. Caine, of Georgia, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Grier. Misses Alice Higgins and Aggie Sherer have returned home from Huntersville, N. C., for the summer vacation.

Mr. John A. Byars has moved into his new house. Rev. W. R. Owings will preach at Woodlawn church next Sunday morning and night.

The wheat crop is looking better than at this season for several years. Mrs. A. N. Crosby, who was bitten by a snake about a week ago, is getting along very nicely. Mr. J. D. Kell got his elbow joint dislocated one day last week by a horse striking him with its foot.

With the exception of a few cases of dysentery, the health of the country is good. The people of this section were very much grieved to learn by THE ENQUIRER of last Saturday, of the death of Senator Earle. South Carolina has sustained a serious loss.

EARLE'S SUCCESSOR. Looks Like John L. McLaurin Is the Man. Columbia State, Tuesday.

It is scarcely a matter of speculation any longer who will be the successor of the lamented Earle in the United States senate. As indicated in THE STATE yesterday morning, it seems that the man will be Congressman John L. McLaurin. In political circles yesterday it was generally conceded that he was the man whom the governor would appoint, and all talk about the chances of others whose names have been mentioned in connection with the place was abandoned.

A few who had not consulted the men who are prominent in politics continued to talk a little of other possibilities, but the opinion is practically unanimous that Mr. McLaurin will be appointed by Governor Ellerbe. It is also considered practically settled that the appointment will be announced before many more suits.

So much for the situation as viewed outside of the executive office. Yesterday Governor Ellerbe talked pleasantly about the situation, indicating that his mind was fully made up in regard to the matter, but he had very little to say that was indicative. The governor was very discreet and non-committal. He intimated, however, that the appointment would be announced in a day or two.

Since the death of General Earle, friends of the gentlemen named below have urged their claims for the appointment upon Governor Ellerbe, and these are, he says, the only names he has considered. Here they are: Congressman McLaurin, Solicitor G. Duncan Bellinger, General Wade Hampton, State Senator J. L. M. Irby, Dr. James H. Carlisle, Railroad Commissioner W. D. Evans, C. A. Woods, Jno. C. Duncan and Colonel D. K. Norris.

To give an idea of how the friends of men in certain localities have been looking after the appointment, while the mass of the people seemed to desire the selection of Congressman McLaurin, the following contents of a postal card received yesterday by a well-known public man from a friend in Colleton county is published: "The friends of Colonel B. Stokes are urging his appointment for United States senator in place of Senator Earle, deceased, in a card circulated today in our midst. Anything that you may do personally to promote his appointment is earnestly solicited by his many friends."

Governor Ellerbe has received a large number of letters from all over the state in regard to the appointment and the future race for the unexpired term. Many of the writers have suggested to the governor that he himself make the race for the senate in the election next winter. Governor Ellerbe some days ago, however, announced that he would not be a candidate for this position under any circumstances.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS. Delegates to Galveston. Columbia Journal: Governor Ellerbe has appointed the following delegates to the cotton growers convention at Galveston, Texas, on August 7: At large, J. E. Tindal and J. C. Blacklock; first district, Thomas Martin; second, S. G. Mayfield; third, D. K. Norris; fourth, J. D. M. Shaw; fifth, W. N. Elder; sixth, J. H. M. Manning; seventh, W. S. Barton.

Pope Surrenders. A Columbia special of Sunday to the Atlanta Constitution, says: South Carolina's Lily White Republicans who for four years have been organizing a new Republican party, taking in many whites and the more educated Negroes, has been whipped out by the old regulars under E. A. Webster. They had hopes of some day taking in all the discontented whites and capturing the state, but obtaining no recognition or encouragement at Washington, have surrendered. Dr. Sampson Pope, Lily White leader, tonight announces his surrender and urges his followers to go over to the Webster wing. The same advice is also given by a Negro leader on that side.

SENATOR APPOINTED. Governor Ellerbe Selects John L. McLaurin to Succeed Earle. Just as THE ENQUIRER went to press it received a dispatch to the effect that Governor Ellerbe had appointed John L. McLaurin to succeed the late Joseph H. Earle in the United States senate.

WHICH ROUTE? If you were sent for your family physician to see a member of your family who was desperately sick—sick unto death—and there were two routes by which you could go, and one of the routes was not so good as the other, which one would you choose? Would you go round or through? We think you would go the high way.

IN CONSEQUENCE OF THE RAIN You have a desperate case on your hands now, in that planting time is at hand and half the distance is not so good as the other. Of course, you can plant your corn or cotton without getting your land ready; but if you do, you will have twice as much work to do as you would have had if you had prepared it before planting, and a corresponding decrease in the yield.

IT WILL PAY TO START RIGHT And go the high way. You can do this by using A GENUINE CORBIN DISK HARROW in breaking your land. If you will call on us we will show you the depth of six inches at less cost than you can break four to a depth of not exceeding two-and-one-half inches, by the ordinary method. By our plan, you will have little else on red land.

THE POTATO BUG CAN be killed and the Potatoes not injured by the use of the Potato Bug Destroyer. Either potato growers or those who buy potatoes must die or the bug. Come to Starr's Drug Store and get some PARIS GREEN, apply same, as directed, to the potatoes, and you will do so as may be necessary and you will do up Mr. Bug. Nuf Sed.

Starr's Red Bug Poison is sure death to Bed Bugs—a deadly poison. No trouble to apply; does not injure the furniture. Fly paper is here and we have the poison Fly Paper and the Stickey Paper. One kills, the other catches and they die. Does Mr. Hawk take any of your little chickens? If so, Starr will send you something to do for him up a job and he will not want any more of your chicks. Should the crows want to pull up your corn, we can fix him so he will have no more business in your cornfield. AT STARR'S.

WE HAVE MILLET NOW. WE were out of Millet Seed for a few days; but have plenty now. Will try to have it in stock all season. Can sow and make a good crop anytime up to July 10th; but best to sow early. Millet makes a quantity of good, nutritious feed. Can be milled in fine flour and sown in peas. We have a good Machine Oil at 25 cents per gallon.

WE OPENED UP THIS WEEK A VERY neat line of Stationery—something new in box paper. Good paper for 5 cents a quire. JAS. M. STARR & CO.

L. GEO. GRIST, FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY, Yorkville, S. C. I REPRESENT over $27,000,000.00 of assets in my fire insurance agency, and I am prepared to write FIRE and TORNADO INSURANCE on short notice at the lowest prevailing rates. Each fire policy carries with it, without extra charge, a "lightning clause," which protects the insured against loss or damage by lightning. I represent the Norwich Union Fire Office of England, which is an absolutely fire tested company, having been "dragged over the coals" since 1787. Then I have the Etina of Hartford, which has been doing business at the "old stand" since 1819; the Pennsylvania is by no means a "squatter or experimenter," having been in the fire business since 1825. The Delaware Insurance company has been pretty severely burned several times, but has maintained its credit, and I have the old Continental, which is living in exile from the South-Eastern tariff association, thinks she can stand alone and work in "single harness" and she is always "at home." Insurance left with my agency will always receive prompt attention. L. GEO. GRIST, Resident Agent.

MASE FERGUSON. PLANKINGTON'S HAMS. JUST NOW, while it is so difficult to think of something good to eat, allow me to call special attention to PLANKINGTON'S HAMS. They are PERFECTLY CURED, SWEET, JUICY, not too expensive, AND JUST THE THING. I'M WITH THEM. When the boys talk about SOAP, don't neglect to listen, for no doubt they have a good thing; but DON'T FORGET ME. I'm with them every time, and I have a good thing also. Then besides Soap, I have on hand Gold Dust Washing Powder. Something that is hard to down. MASE FERGUSON.

J. H. RIDDLE. EVERYBODY KNOWS IT. IT is long since that everybody has known that J. H. RIDDLE sells the very best quality of Family and Fancy Groceries at the very lowest bottom prices, and too, that he does it with a liberality or quibbling. They know that he marks his goods at a fair price and that he expects no more. They know that others cannot undersell him and stay in business. CLAY PEAS. At J. H. RIDDLE's you can find a limited supply of Clay Peas, and he would suggest to parties wanting them to lay in their supply now, for in the season there is always a scarcity which affects the price. Timothy "Hay in Clover." When you want Timothy Hay and Clover you had better get your interest to see J. H. RIDDLE. He can surely quote close figures and will supply you in large or small quantities on short notice. Plastering Hair, Lime, Cement and Shingles. Heretofore J. H. RIDDLE has kept only Cement, Lime and Shingles; but by constant demand he has been forced to add to his building material a large quantity of PLASTERING HAIR, which in the future you can expect to have as good as his place, and when contractors or large buyers need any of these articles, they may expect special prices. Fruit Jars and Harrows. Possibly Fruit Jars and Cotton Harrows should not be put in the same classification; but since the rains have come you will need the harrows, and when the future you can expect to have as good as his place, and when contractors or large buyers need any of these articles, they may expect special prices.
