Humorous Department.

A FORTNIGHT'S SICK LEAVE. "Sore throat, eh?" said the surgeon to a member of a military band, according to the Chicago News. "Let me see. Oh, that's not so very bad A slight irritation-nothing more You'll be all right in a day or two. I think you had better take no risk in renewing the trouble by using your throat, though, so I will recommend you for a fortnight's sick leave."

Armed with the surgeon's certificate, the bandsman obtained his two weeks sick leave. The two weeks had just come to an end, when he met the surgeon on the parade ground. The bandsman saluted. The surgeon recognized the face and stopped. "How's the throat?" he asked, pleasantly.

"It's quite wel!, sir," was the reply "That's good, said the surgeon. "You can get back to your duty without fear. By-the-way, what instru-ment do you handle in the band?"

"The small drum, sir," said the musician.

HE KNEW WHEN TO STOP .- A man was traveling on a Dakota railroad managed by a local company. The train moved so slowly that it forced him to believe that eternity rather than time was in view by those in charge. After a while it stopped entirely and began to back up. Approaching the conductor, the passenger said:

"See here, sir; what's the matterwhat are you backing up for?" "Cow on the track ahead," replied the official. "Well, 'spose there is-what of it?" "Why, great Scott, we don't want to run into her, do we ?" "Of course, run into her if she doesn't get out of the way !"

"Yes, I'll be pretty apt to go smashing into a cow that's standing on the track with her feet braced, and shaking her head and bellering, and jes' waiting for us! S'posen we should knock her out. The old farmer is standing up there looking at us, and he would come down and drive us off before we could get the hide and taller; and then he'd go and sue the company, and then where would we be! Pretty fix for a railroad to get into, wouldn't it-suit coming on and no hide and taller to fight it with ! Big judgment agin the company, and obliged to sell the injine and sleeping car to pay it! I tell you, if I had run into the cow, that in less than two months that old farmer would have owned this road and would have taken my place himself and given the presidency and general management to some of his neighbors! You bet, I know when to back up !"-Chicago Tribune, KINDNESS REMEMBERED .- "John," she said, thoughtfully, "tomorrow is the birthday of that little Jones boy next door." "What of it?" he denext door." "What of it?" he de-manded. "Oh, nothing much," she bly. If you do that?" he asked, irr you are mistaken. If I owe him any- you." thing, its a grudge." "Of course," man in the world!" he cried, delight-am not yet." "What are you doing him, as I had told many others, that with that candy and meat, then?" I must return to Toulon. I ret "Going to see my girl." "Do you I felt sure that he was not the man thing, John? Now what can I get for air. you?" With a wan smile he answer- I saw Cazaubon at his desk, and promptly, "you can't have that. That's to have me robbed, he had already set bon was tried and condemned to death for the funeral."

FUN ENOUGH .- "I want to go to the funeral of the little girl across the street," said little Molly Fizzetop to her mother.

"No, no, my child," replied Mrs. izzetop. "You were at a matinee Fizzetop. yesterday afternoon; last night you to a children's party tonight. That is enough amusement for a little girl of 12 years of age."

of countenance sat on a dry goods box. "Are you ill?" some one asked. close by where the mule stood. "No." "Have you lost anything?"
"Never had anything to lose." "What's the matter, then?" "I'm setting on a wasp." "Why don't you get up?" "That was my first impulse, but I got to thinking that I was burting the wasp as badly as he was hurting me, and I concluded to sit here awhile.

"Did I understand you to say that you didn't have any company in the kitchen while I was out, Katie?" "Yis, mum; that's what I said." "But mum; but we were in the parlor."-Yonker's Statesman.

The Story Teller.

THE ROMANCE OF REALITY

A FRENCH DETECTIVE'S STORY

I had some renown as a successful rogue-catcher, and I had some experience, too. My field of operations, as a usual thing, lay within the confines and stooped down for that purpose prefect of the third arondisement, yet glance. As I bent over and took hold upon me whenever he chose. One to his bosom and draw something out. May-I received a note from the pre- his quick, eager breathing. In an inand see him with all possible haste. upward, and as I did so I heard a The message came through the office sharp report like the explosion of a of our sub-prefect, so that I had nothtook an early dinner, assumed the held. He struggled to free himself Digne just at nightfall, and as soon as him. it was dark I waited on the prefect. He seemed relieved when he saw me, and took me to his private closet. "Now," said I, "have you got work for me?"

"Yes," he replied; "sit down and listen."

We sat down, and he proceeded. "Within a few months past there have been some of the most mysterious murders committed in this department and in the department of as he presented it to me. war, that have ever come under my notice. They are done mostly on the road from Castellane to Aups. The know that evil was in it. It appeared first victim was a Marseilles merchant, who had come up to Castellane to purchase dried fruit. His body was found by long use-only the amber mouthby the roadside, near the line between piece was missing. I did not stop to the two departments, and at first it examine it then, but turned my attenand died in a fit, as no marks of vio-lence could be found upon him. His that now would be the time to work and died in a fit, as no marks of viopocketbook had been rifled, however. The next one was found near Annot, and under the same circumstances. He was a merchant, also, and from Nice. Since then, five or six more I was thoroughly informed. have died upon the same road in the same mysterious way, and no marks that he knew just what I meant; but of ill-usage have been found upon any he tried to recover himself, and assertof them, but all have been robbed." "Have most of them stopped in Castellane ?" The prefect told me they had. "And I suppose they must have put up at the same inn, then?" I remarked. "Yes," said the prefect.

I then supposed that some of the andlords must be concerned. But my companion informed me that they had been narrowly watched, and that no shadow of evidence rested against them.

"But," said I, "is there not poison in this matter? Some innkeeper may administer the poison, and then send an accomplice after the victim."

"No," returned the prefect, with a shake of the head. "Experienced gradually and reluctantly; but my physicians have examined the stom- wit finally triumphed, and I gained achs of the dead men, but without that Mr. Jones gave our Willie a drum whole thing into your hands. You He was born in Paris, but never knew on his birthday." "Well, do you think must go to Castellane at once, and who his parents were He was born in Paris, but never knew must go to Castellane at once, and I feel under any obligations to him for there you can get such further infor- live with Cazaubon when quite young, sub-prefect can give mation she answered, sweetly. "That's why and went to a woolen factory and and that it was in Paris he invented his master to lend him to him as a I thought that perhaps you might saw the business agent. His name want to give the Jones boy a big brass trumpet." "The most resourceful wo-to Castellane about a year before. He seemed to be a straightforward busiedly. And the Jones boy got the ness man, and yet he was the only man whom I had thought of suspecting. In conversation about the mur-Smith walked up Market street ders he had been a little too free and lane, where the master got his present out the army as its ranks thinned. the other evening with a box of candy off-handed, treating the subject more situation. Cazaubon marked the vicunder one arm and a big package of coolly than a man with a heart would tims who were to be robbed, and the meat under the other. "Hello, Smith," be apt to do. But still, I had thus far young man did the work. He used said Brown, "gone to housekeeping? been unable to prove anything against various artifices to carry out his plans, I didn't know you were married." "I him. On the present occasion I told but the usual one was what he tried have to furnish the family with meat who had done the direct work of the sub-prefect, I took a gendarme already?" "Oh, no. The candy is death. The plot was deeper than along with me and went to the factory. for the girl, and the meat is for the that, or he would have been discovered dog. I have to square myself with ere this. So I resolved to wait awhile see me back again so soon; but he ANTICIPATING THE OBSEQUY.—A followed him if I could have done so to take a walk with me; and when I with safety, when I saw him leave the called the officer and bade him put the poor man lay dying, and his good wife was tending him with homely but affectionate care. "Don't you in less than 15 minutes he came back." but affectionate care. "Don't you in less than 15 minutes he came back. think you could eat a bit of some- He walked now with a sober, innocen-could do with a little bit of that." ready for it. If the factory agent was "Oh, no, John, dear," she answered, at the bottom of the crime, and meant his machinery in motion, and the next and the prefect of Dinge took posses development would be upon the road. sion of the infernal machine. Before I examined my pistols, and then left the villain was executed he confessed river towards the Alps. I had crossed the little cascade of ment and produce the poison-and St. Esprit, and was descending a short, also owned that the young man had steep hillside, when I saw a young been driven to help him through fear man by the roadside, at the foot of the of his life. descent, engaged in whipping a mule. were at a concert, and you are going He was a slightly-built fellow, and his Dupin, his accomplice, spent two coarse garments were covered with weeks in confinement, and was then meal. I knew that there was a mill set free, and commenced an honest life. upon a branch of the Verdon, not far As for me, I got all the praise I deback, and I supposed he might be the served, and perhaps more. At all A man with a painful expression miller's boy. As I came nearer, I saw events, I had done the country some a large sack lying upon the ground service, and the people were not slow

> "What's the matter?" I asked, as I went up near him. "This ugly mule has thrown both me and my bag of corn from his back,' he answered.

very grateful." pecting the young man had not enter- have been copied in another railway ed my head; but the suspicion darted story. "Have you," inquires a cleri-I smell the tobacco from a pipe all upon me now. He was altogether too cal passenger, looking up from his keen a looking fellow for a miller's appoliceman was in for half an hour, prentice. He gave me a glance from "No," replies his vis-a-vis, who hapa pair of quick, sharp eyes that meant pens to be a commercial traveler, "but more than he had spoken. And then, I have black sheepskin rugs."

if I had not been very much mistaken, I had seen him holding his mule very firmly with his left hand.

I leaped from my saddle, and moved towards him, being careful to watch his every movement.
"Now," said he, "if you will take hold of that end, we will put it on.' He lifted at the other end, and pretended that it hurt his shoulders, and begged of me to lift it on alone.

I professed to be willing to comply of the Department of the Lower Alps; keeping my head in such a position and though I served under the sub- that I could watch him by a sidelong the prefect of the department called of the sack, I saw him carry his hand morning-it was in the latter part of I saw his dark eye flash, and heard fect, ordering me to come to Digne stance I seized his wrist and bent it ing to do but get ready and start. I of smoke curl up from the hand I dress of a peasant, browned my face from my grasp, but I held him with and hands, and set forth. I reached a grip of iron, and fixed my gaze upon

"I've found you, have I?" I said drawing my pistol, and cocking it. "I will simply inform you that I am an officer of prefecture, and that I have been hunting for you. Just offer a partical of resistance, and a bullet goes through your brain! Now give me that weapon."

The young man was frighted and trembled violently. "It is only a tobacco pipe," he said

And certainly it looked like nothing more; but I had seen enough of it to to me to be an ordinary meerschaum pipe, the bowl being colored as though

He started, and I saw very plainly ed that he knew nothing about the individual I had named.

"You needn't lie to me," I sternly replied, "for I know all about you. Louis Cazaubon has been watched by me when he didn't dream of it. He thought I was a tradesman. But you are young, and I would save you. Confess everything to me, and I promise your life shall be spared."

I saw that he wavered, and followed up my advantage, and ere long I had and the task of bringing his body home him bent to my wishes. I made him understand that I held his life in my hands; and that I could protect him from the vengeance of anyone he in the old family burying ground at might criminate, and that he had Saluda. everything to gain and nothing to lose by a full confession. He came to it the secret.

His name, he said, was Henry Dupin. and had been with him ever since. He said Cazaubon used to be a chemist, and did some business in that line; ist, and did some business in that line; and that it was in Paris he invented the infernal machine which they had used with such fatal effect. About two years previous to the present time they left Paris together, and spent nearly a year in traveling over the linear markets and problems of hard fighting, for Gregg's South Carbon was did some business in that line; and the first master to lend him to him as a body servant. Mr. Goode consented, and Billy went to his third and last is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Sam M. Grist having disposed of his interest in the business to ROBERT B. Billy was the witness of a great deal of hard fighting, for Gregg's South Carbon was described by the solution of the particular and business to lend him to him as a body servant. Mr. Goode consented, and Billy went to his third and last is this day dissolved by mutual consent, Sam M. Grist having disposed of his interest in the business to ROBERT B. Billy was the witness of a great deal of hard fighting, for Gregg's South Carbon and the particular and th kingdom, murdering and robbing for a living. Finally they came to Castel-

I returned to Castellane with my prisoner; having left him in charge of Monsieur Cazaubon was surprised to and see if he returned. I would have was more surprised when I asked him resist, and he was conveyed to the ger for the executive office. Each sucsub-perfect without any trouble. At first he denied everything; but when ed, feebly, "Well, I seem to smell a then I returned to my horse. I knew he found that this would not avail ham cooking somewheres; I think I I had a risk to run now, but I was him any, he swore he would kill his accomplice. In due time Monsieur Louis Cazauthe town, taking the road along the his crimes-told how many years he had worked to perfect his fatal instru-

So the rascal was executed. Henry in acknowledging it.

A SCOTCH JOKE.-A traveler had left his wrap in his carriage. The guard, opening the door of a com-"My left shoulder is hurt," he said, mackintosh here?" "No," answers and I can't lift this sack again. If one of the big-bearded Highlanders monsieur would help me, I would be inside, "there's no black Mackintosh, but there are six red Macgregors.' Until this moment the idea of sus- This anecdote would almost seem to Miscellaneous Bending.

BILLY ROSE'S UNIQUE LIFE.

outh Carolina Negro Who Has Beer Through Three Wars-Long a State Employee.

rom the New York Times.

COLUMBIA, July 7 .- One of the most interesting figures in South Carolina today is Billy Rose, the colored veteran of three wars, who for more than twenty years has filled the post of porter in the governor's office. Thousands of tourists have gone to the quality. State House for the special purpose of seeing him, and the people of Columbia have in the course of time come to regard him as one of their most interesting curiosities.

The Governor's Guards, the crack military company of the city, elected him an honorary member of their or-him an honorary member of their organization nearly a generation ago, and since that time he never has missed a parade, always appearing in full uniform, and always accompanying the guards on trips outside of the state.

He is a very old man now, and his snow-white hair, which reaches almost to his shoulders, is in marked contrast with his dark brown complexion, for Plastering Hair, Lime, Cethough a pure Negro, he is by no means an ebony black one. He is so old he no longer can walk with ease,

The history of this interesting veter an-the most popular Negro in South Carolina-is unique. Born a slave Onristmas day, 1813, he was a boy of 13 when Lafayette visited Columbia. COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION for use in the FREE PUBLIC SCHOOLS Christmas day, 1813, he was a boy of He still remembers seeing the heroic old Frenchman walk from the house for distribution in the office of the County path literally covered with flowers by TERMS OF SALE STRICTLY CASH. upon him.

"So you are selling your soul to Monsieur Louis Cazaubon?" I remarkter, apprenticed him to a carpenter; but during the following the following him know that I was thoroughly informed.

path literally covered with nowers by little girls. A year later Billy's master named Barrett, apprenticed him to a carpenter; but during the following Holmes's New Fourth Reader, 20 Holmes's New Fourth Reader, 32 Holmes's New Fourth Reader, 60 Holmes's New Fifth Reader, 60 Holmes's New Fifth Reader, 60 Monsieur Louis Cazaubon?" I remarkter named Barrett, apprenticed him to a carpenter; but during the following year he became the property of Pierce was the property of Pierce and the property of M. Butler, who made him his body servant and took him to the Seminole Swinton's Word Primer, war in Florida when Butler went as Webster's Common School Dictionwar in Florida when Butler went as commander of the South Carolina volunteers. Returning, Colonel Butler was elected governor of the state, and Billy held the proud place of his valet. After the Mexican war broke out, ex-Governor Butler was elected to lead the Palmetto regiment, and Billy went to his second war. The Palmetto reg-ment covered itself with glory; but the ment covered itself with glory; but the gallant Butler fell at the battle of Chapman's South Carolina History,...

Churubusco, near the City of Mexico, Stowell's Physiology, in three grades, fell to his faithful servant. He proved himself worthy of the trust, and the bones of the gallant colonel now rest

In 1858 Billy narrowly escaped a In 1858 Billy narrowly escaped a dreadful fate. One of the Butler estates was sold for division and he fell into the hands of Negro-traders, who were buying slaves to ship to the Red river and Texas. In dire distress Billy river and Texas. In dire distress Billy appealed to a Mr. Goode, a comrade of his dead master, and that gentleman D. W. HICKS. bought him to save him.

Three years later the Civil war commenced, and Colonel Maxcy Gregg who had known Billy for years, asked of hard fighting, for Gregg's South Carolina brigade became famous through

General Gregg was killed at the battle of Fredericksburg, and the melancholy task of bringing another master's body home devolved upon Billy. Before his death General Gregg gave Billy his watch, which he still has, refusing large offers for it from the general's sisters, who live in Europe. The watch was given as a token, Billy says, and he means to wear it until he dies. Then it will be returned to the family. The war over, Billy returned to the trade of a carpenter, to which he had been apprenticed 40 years before. But life was a struggle with him, and when General Hampton became governor, in 1876, he made him porter or messen- Yorkville, S. C., August 3, 1897. 1876, he made him porter or messenceeding governor, even Governor Till- W. B. MOORE & CO. man, who turned out practically all the State House employees, retained Billy. Probably Billy will hold the place until he dies. He never was married and has no relations; but when he dies the Governor's Guards will build a monument to him after they have laid him to rest in his brilliant staff uniform with military hon-

TOWN PROPERTY FOR SALE. THE undersigned offers for sale, the HOUSE AND LOT in Yorkville, known as the "Meek House," occupied by Mr. O. E. Grist and situated opposite the O. R. & C. R. R., depot. The house contains six large rooms and a base-ment. The house is in good repair, and contiguous to water-works fire-plugs. On

J. H. RIDDLE.

FANCY GROCERIES

MY stock of Fancy Groceries is as full and complete as if I were making a specialty of that line. The fact of the business is that I handle only the choicest quality of canned goods and I always sell them at the bottom figures. I have the very best quality of Queen Olives.

Potted Ham of the best quality at only cents a box. Skinless Lunch Tongue. A nice dish for Chipped Dried Beef of the very best Salmon Steak of the finest quality, put up in flat cans.

Prepared Mustard in large bottles at ty. Grated and Sliced Pineapple of the very best quality.

Glass Kerosene Oil Cans.
A few nice Milk Churns and a Coffee Mill or two.

Fruit Jars.

I have a big line of Fruit Jars and can make prices at the bottom, since I don't care to handle them any more.

ment and Shingles.

Heretofore J. H. RIDDLE has kept old he no longer can walk with ease, and when the guards were inspected a few weeks ago, it was noticed that he followed in a carriage which members of the company, who are fond and proud of the old man, had furnished for his convenience.

The history of this interesting veter-

SCHOOL BOOK DEPOSITORY.

THE FOLLOWING SCHOOL TEXT

Tarbell's Lessons in English, No. 1... Tarbell's Lessons in English, No. 2... Maury's Elementary Geography,..... Maury's Manual of Geography,..... Maury's Physical Geography,..... Robinson's Rudiments of Arithmetic Robinson's Practical Arithmetic,..... Wentworth's Algebra,.... Hansell's School History,..... Hansell's High School History of the or Supplementary Reading, sample copies of Riverside Literature, at from 15 cents to

R. B. RIDDLE

GRIST COUSINS.

DISSOLUTION.

Yorkville, S. C., August 3, 1897.

NEW FIRM.

ness from its inception.

D. W. HICKS,
R. B. RIDDLE.

Yorkville, S. C., August 3, 1897.

SAM M. GRIST will continue with the new firm and will represent the interest of myself, and is authorized to act for me in all matters pertaining to the business

BICYCLES.

SAY! It's a thing of the past! What? To pay $50 or $75 for BICYCLES. W. B. MOORE & CO. now run a line of Wheels guaranteed fully up-to-date.

'97 WHEELS AT $29.50, $35,50, And $40. Why pay more for the name? "Rot." The above are as good as the best for all practical purposes.

MOWING MACHINES Are now in demand. We sell the only "CHAMPION." Principles are entirely different from any other make. Cannot be compared with any other. Apply your intelligence to the examination of the two principles. The one that the CHAMPION is built on, and the one all others are built on, and judge for yourself. Buy the BEST, and we won't be provoked if you, select some other than ours. It is your privilege.

CANE MILLS at a bargain this season. Evaporators at lowest prices. Bunker Hill Harness Oil kept by the barrel. You can get any quantity.

can get any quantity.
W. B. MOORE & CO. THE ICE FAMINE ENDED.

OWING to circumstances over which I had no control, I have been unable to furnish my customers with ice as I had expected; but on yesterday I received a CAR LOAD and am now prepared to supply all comers without further annoyance.

T. B. McCLAIN.
July 17 56 stf

S. W. WATSON. PHOTOGRAPHER,

Cleveland Avenue, Yorkville, S. C.

July 17

ment. The house is in good repair, and contiguous to water-works fire-plugs. On the premises is a well of excellent freestone water.

Also, a cottage on Madison street. It contains four rooms. The house is in good repair and on the premises is a well of good freestone water.

L. M. GRIST.

YORKVIIIE, S. C.

HOTOGRAPHY in all the latest of styles of the art. Special attention given to outdoor work. My gallery is thoroughly and comfortably furnished with all the latest improvements. Terms reasonable and strictly cash.

S. W. WATSON.

LOUIS ROTH.

LAST WEEK

MENTIONED some fancy Columbia River Salmon. Let me add that they are of as fine a quality as ever came to this place and the price is only 15 cents a full pound can.

Give the California Broiled Mackerel in Tomato Sauce a Trial

And you will not have to be asked to buy them again. A large can 20 cents.
Currant Jelly in Mugs at 15 cents; two for 25 cents, as well as loose Jelly in pails.
Apple Butter and Cranberry Sauce. Oatflakes in 2 pound packages.
LOUIS ROTH.

When You Want Eye Glasses or Spectacles, see Tom Speck. He'll Save You Money,

And fit your eyes with the same quality of eye-glasses for $1, for which the "traveling opticians" charge $2.00. He buys from the same houses and can "examine" your eyes as well as anyone, and can always be found at his store to make good his claims. Gold frames, of course, add to the cost.

ERSKINE COLLEGE, Due West, S. C., OPENS LAST WEDNESDAY IN SEPTEMBER. Largest attendance last year in its entire history. Two courses leading to the degree of A. B. and B. S. Total expense for the nine months in the "Home" $115.
In private families—$135.

Spacious and comfortable "Home" complete and equipped with modern conveniences of bath rooms, etc. Entire building heated by hot water system.

Write for catalogue to

W. M. GRIER, President.

July 10 WOFFORD COLLEGE.

Spartanburg, S. C. JAS. H. CARLISLE, LLD., President. Courses in Mathematics, Geology, Chemistry, Physics, Latin, English, Greek, Metaphysics, Political Economy, German, French and History. New Gymnasium. The WOFFORD FITTING SCHOOL

The WOFFORD FITTING SCHOOL is conducted in a handsome four-story brick building beautifully located near the college. The Head-master, A. MASON DUPRE, and the Matron, live in the building. Send for catalogue.

J. A. GAMEWELL,
Secretary of Faculty.

August 7 3t*

ESTABLISHED 1891.

L. GEO. GRIST, FIRE INSURANCE AGENCY, Yorkville, S.

OTICE is hereby given that the part-pership heretofore existing between T of assets in my fire insurance scane. of assets in my fire insurance agency, and I am prepared to write FIRE and TORNADO INSURANCE on short no-TORNADÓ INSURANCE on short no-tice at the lowest prevailing rates. Each fire policy carries with it, without extra charge, a "lightning clause," which pro-tects the insured against loss or damage by lightning. I represent the Norwich Union Fire Office of England, which is an absolutely fire tested company, hav-ing been "dragged over the coals" since 1797. Then I have the Ætna of Hartford, I which has been doing business at the We take this method of informing our friends and the public generally, that we will continue in business at the old stand under the firm name of GRIST COUSINS, and ask for a continuance of the same liberal patronage heretofore bestowed on the old firm. We assure all that they shall receive the same courteous treatment that has characterized the business from its inception.

1797. Then I have the Ætna of Hartford, which has been doing business at the "old stand" since 1819; the Pennsylvania is by no means a "squatter or experiment," having been "fightin' fire in all its fury" since 1825. The Delaware Insurance company has been pretty severely burned several times, but has maintained its motto—"Just, Prompt, Certain" since 1835. The Old Continental, which is living in exile from the South-Eastern its fury" since 1825. The Delaware Insurance company has been pretty severely burned several times, but has maintained its motto—"Just, Prompt, Certain" since 1835. The Old Continental, which is living in exile from the South-Eastern tariff association, thinks she can stand alone and work in "single harness," and since 1853 the "old lady" has helped her children to something over $35,000,000 and she is always "at home." Insurance left with my agency will always receive prompt and careful attention.

L. GEO. GRIST, Resident Agent.

WHEN YOU WANT

To have your PHOTOGRAPH taken, you should not fail to come and see me. I have been in the "picture taking" business for a great many years, and am confident that I know my business. It has always been my desire to please my customers. I am prepared to take Photo-graphs in the latest styles and at reason-able prices.

HAVE YOU ANY Photographs that you would like to have enlarged? If you have, come and see me about it. I can do the work.

DURING THE WINTER, You will find my Gallery warm and pleasant. Come and see me whenever you need photographs. Respectfully, J. R. SCHORB.

UNDERTAKING.

AM handling a first class line of COF-FINS AND CASKETS which I will sell at the very lowest prices. Personal attention at all hours. I am prepared to repair all kinds of Furniture at reasonable prices.

J. ED JEFFERYS. COFFINS ROBES AND CASKETS. WE now have probably the largest stock in the county to select from. Prices to suit customers, from the cheapest to fine Oaks, Walnuts, Broadcloth's of various qualities. Metalic and White goods in infants and adults sizes. Personal attention. New Hearse.

W. B. MOORE & CO.

IT WILL CURE CANCER.

I HAVE a purely vegetable salve that will absolutely cure any skin or rooted cancer, about which there has been no cutting. Correspond with or call upon me for particulars, terms., etc. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mrs. R. L. FERGUSON, Yorkville, S. C.