

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

For Comptroller General. Major J. K. Alston, of Columbia, is being urged by his friends as the right man for Governor Ellebe to appoint as comptroller general.

Constables All to Go. The governor has issued a proclamation in which he announces that the commissions of all state constables are revoked on September 30. Two state detectives, including W. H. Newbold, will be retained.

Secretary Wilson, of the department of agriculture, has been invited to Columbia to make an address during the state fair. He has not yet indicated his acceptance of the invitation; but the officials in charge believe that he will come.

Charleston Free Again. Governor Ellebe, on last Monday, published a proclamation in which he removes the Metropolitan police system from Charleston. The order goes into effect on September 30, after which date the policing of Charleston again devolves upon the municipal authorities.

Not Guilty. In the Morman whitecap cases down in Fairfield county, the jury, on last Friday, returned a verdict of not guilty. At first the jury stood eleven for acquittal and one for conviction, and wanted to make a mistrial. Judge Benet, however, sent the jury back again, and when it did reach a verdict it was not guilty. The jury deliberated over the case for 21 hours.

Dr. Meadow Not Guilty. The sensational case of Dr. William Meadow, indicted on the charge of having attempted, on the night of February 8, 1897, to burn the building occupied by the Union Drug company, and the People's National bank, was tried in Union last week. There was a great deal of conflicting testimony in the case; but the jury, after remaining out only about half an hour, returned with a verdict of acquittal.

Another O. P. Move. Columbia Register: The attorneys of Bluthenthal & Bickart, of Atlanta, have asked and been allowed to amend the original bill in the case to compel the Southern railway to haul original packages. The amendment shows that the Southern and all other railroads, are accustomed to haul crockery, glassware, bric-a-brac, and all other such goods, packed in straw, and not inclosed in cases or protected in any special way to insure against breakage and thieves. The attorneys will endeavor to show by this that there is collusion between the railroads and the state authorities.

Special Notices.

YORK DRUG STORE.

ATHENS, GA., June 17, 1897. Mr. G. H. O'Leary, Yorkville, S. C.: DEAR SIR—When I was at your place recently I was suffering badly with indigestion, and you recommended me to get some medicine made next door. I did so, and have used up a bottle with most splendid results, and I want some more. I would like very much to have a bottle in my valise all the time when on the road. Will you kindly see the druggist and ask him to write me prices on half dozen bottles delivered to my home, or can he send me a single bottle by mail? I would like to know how it is made so as to keep it with me all the time; but don't suppose the formula could be gotten. I am very highly pleased with the "Anti-Ferment," and want some more right away. Yours very respectfully, W. W. BOGLE, (Address) Dalton, Ga. With Chas. Noble & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.

DALTON, GA., July 14, 1897.

Mr. John C. Kuykendall, Yorkville, S. C.: DEAR SIR—Your letter came to Mr. Bogle last afternoon, and I forwarded it to him immediately in Florida. He gave several of the bottles to his friends in order to advertise it. It is certainly the best—yes, the very best—medicine we have ever used for indigestion, and I am confident Mr. Bogle will be perfectly satisfied for you to use his name also our daughter, Mayme Bogle, 19 years old, who has suffered all her life with indigestion, and your medicine is the only relief she has ever had. Will you please send me two bottles by mail or express as early as you can. Mr. Bogle is traveling through Florida, and I want the Anti-Ferment for Mayme, our daughter. I will give you the privilege of using both their names and will be so grateful. Very truly, Mrs. J. W. BOGLE.

Shelves and Counters Groaning Under Their Burden.

$25,000 WORTH OF SEASONABLE GOODS!

The Largest, the Nicest, and the Cheapest Line of Gents' Clothing Ever Displayed in Yorkville--The BEST GOODS at the LOWEST PRICES!

MY STOCK OF DRESS GOODS AND NOTIONS BEGGAR DESCRIPTION!

And What Is More, No Concern South of the Mason & Dixon Line Shall Furnish You Goods at a Less Price than Strauss.

The gift of gab is a wonderful accomplishment when exerted in the proper direction. Eloquence and fine rhetoric have stirred nations to deeds of valor, and the silver-tongued orator with his wondrous power of word-painting can almost make you believe that your father was a woman and that the sun, moon and stars are myths, and given their existence by the minds of only a few writers of fiction.

It needs but the masterful, pathetic pleading of a Moody, to move to tears and repentance the hardest and most thoughtless sinner, while the keen, sharp, biting, stinging sarcasm and acerbity, of an Ingalls, can make you believe that all things are bad or even worse, while STRAUSS tells you the story of his goods in a plain, straight forward manner with no attempt at sensationalism.

I have been north twice in the past three months—once on a pleasure and business trip combined, and once especially in the interest of MY CUSTOMERS AND PATRONS. I went to buy goods for my customers—the kind and quality that they demand—and I took the CASH with which to pay for them. I bought regular lines and MANY JOB LOTS, and no man, no matter who he may be, bought goods at a lower price than I; and since the expense of conducting my business is reduced to the minimum of economical management, I challenge an exemplification of lower prices than I am offering! I can say, without hesitation, that I have the largest and most complete lines of Dress Goods and Trimmings, Gents' Clothing, Shoes and Notions, I ever had, and as I have just said, they were bought with the almighty dollar, which prepares me to lead an aggressive and vigorous fight in the great contest for public favor, and I will neither surrender or retreat until I have captured the great, intelligent and discriminating public.

DRESS GOODS. Klondyke. A Turkish Bath Towel, 20x40, for only 10 cents. Other and larger Towels ranging in prices from 12 1/2 cents, 15 cents, 20 cents and up to 50 cents. They are nuggets for that.

Miscellaneous Bargains. In the list given below you will find probably something you need, and I know that the prices can't be beaten by anyone. White and Colored Quilts at from 46 cents up to $2.50. Bed Comforts at from 49 cents up.

White and Colored Blankets at from 49 cents up to $8. Lace Curtain and Curtain Scrim at from 5 cents to 25 cents a yard. Cotton Flannels in bleached and brown, at from 5 cents, up. A full line of Jeans and Casimers for Pants and Suits at close prices.

A handsome line of Garter Webbing in silk, worsted and cotton in all widths and in all the leading colors. Black and Tan Shoe Polish and Blacking in large and small boxes. An assortment of Mirrors from a Pocket size at 5 cents up.

Handkerchiefs and Gloves. In Handkerchiefs, my stock has never had a rival, and this season I have outstripped all former efforts and I am offering values in Handkerchiefs that will cause wonder with the skeptical. I have a full line of Ladies' White Imported Hemstitched Handkerchiefs at ONLY 5 cents. They are veritable Klondike Nuggets. Also a full line of Laced Edges and Colored Borders and Silks. My line of Gents' Handkerchief is also superb and complete and range in price from 5 cents up. In GLOVES, I have Cashmere, Buckskin, Lisle Thread, Dog Skin and Unfinished Kids for Ladies and Gents, at from 10 cents to $1.25.

HOSIERY. At STRAUSS'S you'll find an elegant line of Hosiery for Ladies and Gents at from 2 1/2 cents up to 33 cents a pair, in balbriggans, in black, brown, striped and fancy colors. Also a line of Children's and Misses Hosiery in numbers from 5 to 9 1/2, at from 5 to 30 cents a pair, and of course at intermediate prices.

GENTS' HATS. In Gents' Hats I am strictly in it. I bought a Job Lot of Hats which cost from $12 to $36 per dozen to manufacture. I am offering you your choice at 75 cents! I also have Hats for Children, Misses, Youthes and Babies at from 5 cents up. If you can't get what you want, get what you can afford. Strauss has it for all conditions.

SHOES. It is impossible to describe my stock of Shoes and would be almost impossible to enumerate it. It is sufficient to say that I can fit anybody at almost any price they might want to pay.

MEN'S AND BOY'S CLOTHING

INCLUDING OVERCOATS AND UNDERWEAR. In my mammoth stock of Clothing, you will observe that I have spared no pains to get what the people want at the right kind of prices, and the more rigid your inspection of it the better you will be pleased. I have Men's Suits at from $3.50 up, and Chichilla Overcoats, worth $20, for only $9. And mothers, when it comes to dressing your boys, I can sell you suits cheaper than you can buy the cloth and make them even if some one throws in the thread and buttons. Remember that I have a tremendous line of Gent's Underwear of the highest quality, at prices which know no competition. To see our stock and get our prices, will convince you of the truthfulness of every word in this announcement. Yours for business, H. C. STRAUSS.

Ladies, remember that I am headquarters for CORSETS, and Carry a full line of the celebrated WARNER'S HEALTH CORSETS in all styles.

J. H. RIDDLE.

THE DEMAND FOR THE "MILBURN WAGON" IS IRRESISTIBLE.

I STILL have on hand a large number of the celebrated MILBURN FARM WAGONS, in sizes from one to six horse. I have them with the extra heavy wide tires and I have them with the ordinary width, and I say, without qualification that there is no wagon now being manufactured that will compare with the "Milburn" in workmanship, material, finish and durability, and they are ornaments to the public highways and a credit and the pride of all who are so fortunate as to own one. If you have never seen the "Milburn," call and examine them.

Cheaper Than Ever Before.

My supply of BAGGING AND TIES are now in stock and both are of the very best quality, and I am offering them at prices that will relegate the "second hand" quality to the rear. The fact is that the price at which I am offering the new goods should induce the farmers to dress every bale just like a dude. Come and see us and let us give you prices.

WE HAVE $2 KIND TOO.

Oh! yes, we've got the $2 kind too—the everyday variety that we've been selling all the time; but we've got something better now, if you've a mind to pay for it, and the difference in quality is much greater than the difference in price. Yes, we've got 100,000 LONGLEAF HEART PINE SHINGLES, which we are offering at the low price of $2.40 per thousand. They are the best shingles ever put on this market.

Plastering Hair, Lime,

LATHES AND CEMENT can always be found at our store, and contractors or purchasers of large lots can expect close prices. J. H. RIDDLE.

CAROLINA BUGGY CO.

NO BUGGY ON THE MARKET

IS EQUAL to the CAROLINA BUGGY at the price it is sold. It is not only the best buggy built in the southern states; but is also the best finished, in painting and trimming, and its durability is equal to almost any requirement. The painting never allows it to present a shabby, makeshift appearance at any stage of its existence. While it is made to sell, it is made to satisfy the customer and represent a value equal to the price for which it is sold. It is LIGHT AND STRONG and always built of the very best material to hand, and while its durability of its construction it is passed through a thorough, severe and critical inspection by one whose first thought is to have it built as near perfection as human skill can accomplish. We make them to order or keep them in stock, and it will be to your interest to consult us when in need of a vehicle.

THE CINCINNATI BUGGY

Can always be purchased from us and at a lower price. We can furnish them in any style desired. When you purchase a Cincinnati Buggy you had better first get our price, for the reason that if you don't you might throw money away. We sell them at true value only. CAROLINA BUGGY CO.
