

follows: Two young white farmers who live near Gaffney, named Charley Smith and Byrd, had spent the day in that town and started home, very much intoxicated, in a wagon together. About three miles from Gaffney they commenced quarreling and fighting, and the finale was that Byrd drew a pistol and shot Smith three times, killing him instantly. Byrd has been arrested and lodged in the Cherokee county jail.

Flanagan's Tomatoes Cornered.
Gastonia Gazette: The canning industry of Flanagan & Company, at Bowling Green, S. C., is one which deserves success and is apparently winning it. Edgar Love & Company, of Gastonia, have just closed a trade with them for their entire season's product of canned tomatoes. This is the third season this firm has handled the Flanagan canned goods. Hitherto they have canned both beans and cherries which proved very popular on this market; but these crops failed this year and the company's entire pack is limited to tomatoes, of which they put up some 300 cases. Twice that much could have been put up but for the great scarcity of cans on the market. All these Flanagan goods have a good reputation among those who use them, and they are ready sellers.

Death of Mr. Plexico.
Mr. W. Lee Plexico died at Sharon, on Thursday morning last, of consumption, aged 25 years 2 months and 8 days. Mr. Plexico was formerly in the railroad business, and was located at Yorkville for sometime as assistant of the O. R. & C. agency. He was a young man of fine character and was well-liked. He gained some considerable local reputation as an amateur composer of music, and in this connection it will be remembered that he was the composer of the music for Mr. Hobbs's song: "Tillman's Pitchfork." He had been confined to his bed with consumption for many weeks, and his untimely cutting off, especially from a life so full of promise, is peculiarly sad.

Always in Working Order.
Before discharging the grand jury last Tuesday, Judge Benet gave that body some information that will be of interest to a great many people who have heretofore been confused on the points touched. His honor explained that although there would not be another term of court until next spring, the grand jurors continue as such until the qualification of their successors. Should occasion arise, it is not only perfectly competent, but it is the duty of the present grand jury, to come together and consider any matter that might require attention. Not only this, the grand jurors are to continue their general supervision of the peace and well-being of the county, and report to their successors, or at the next term of the court, just the same as if they would have reported at the present term.

The Original Package Shop.
The Tirzah original package shop has not been re-opened yet. Judge Simon-ton's order has been served on Detective Newbold and Deputy Sheriff Harshaw, and demand has been made on Detective Newbold and Policeman Steels for the delivery of the seized liquors. Detective Newbold, however, is rather deliberate about the matter. He is not exactly certain whether he should obey the order or not. At any rate, that is the way it appears; but that he will turn over the liquor, and that before he is ruled for contempt, is altogether probable. Solicitor Henry does not think that the original package people are doing the right thing by the state. "The case was continued on the motion of the defendants," says the solicitor. "For reasons of my own I made no objections. Furthermore, I have respected, and propose to respect, the orders of the Federal court, and it looks as if they should respect the state court. They can certainly do no less than to keep their shop closed until the hearing on October 5." The probability is that the original package people will re-open again as soon as possible, regardless of any consideration which might or might not be due to the state court.

CHAT FROM CHEROKEE.

Chapter of Accidents—The Orphanage Open, With Miss Agnes Wylie as Matron—Other Notes.

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer.
ETTA JANE, November 2.—Our community was shocked last week with several distressing accidents. Mr. Giles Hill was thrown from his wagon, loaded with three bales of cotton, and the wheels ran over his leg, crushing the bone and lacerating the flesh to such an extent as to render amputation of the foot necessary. This took place within the corporate limits of Gaffney, last Tuesday.

On last Monday, the Lemaster Brothers had their gin house and machinery, together with about nine bales of cotton, burned. Matches in the cotton ignited while passing through the gin. They will be ready to run again this week, I am told.

Jimmie George, son of the late J. J. George, had his hand cut off in Jeff. D. Hughes's gin on Saturday last. Drs. McCluney and McKeown dressed the stump and he is reported getting along finely.

W. G. W. Going, an old veteran of Gary's cavalry during the war, fell and crushed his foot to such an extent that he will not be able to walk for several months, if ever again.

I might add that our county superintendent of education, Prof. W. F. McArthur, while trying to hold a team of wild mules, was thrown against a wood pile and got his leg broken below the knee. He is getting along very well, so I am told.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McDaniel, of Hickory Grove, with their children, visited friends and relatives in this section last Saturday.

The rain yesterday was a setback to the farmers, many of whom have cotton in the field yet.

I understand that the orphanage will be opened at Hickory Grove on Thanksgiving day, the 25th instant, under the auspices of the A. R. church. Rev. W. W. Orr will preach a sermon, and Hon. D. E. Finley will make an address on the occasion.

This is an institution which merits the support of all patriotic people irrespective of religious creeds or denominational affiliations. Rev. J. P. Knox, the beloved pastor at Hickory Grove and Smyrna, has been untiring in his efforts to build up this institution, and we all rejoice with him at seeing this great work fully consummated.

I understand that Miss Agnes Wylie will act as matron. Than she, no purer or nobler Christian lady could be found for such a dignified position; and under her management the institution will succeed. Let everyone come up with their means and support Bro. Knox in this, the grandest achievement of his life; and particularly let every child to whom God has spared kind, loving parents, to provide for them, bring or send some substantial testimonial of their beneficence, to warm, cloth and feed their less fortunate little brethren and sisters whom He in His providence has made the objects of His love and of our care and sympathy.

Rev. W. R. Owings will preach at Salem next Sabbath, the 7th instant. He will also preach there on Thanksgiving day.

In two weeks' time, with good weather and health, the most of the cotton will have been gathered and much wheat sown. From present prospects there will be more wheat sown this year than has been in any one year since 1881. It will settle all or most of the vexed questions with which the agricultural classes have to contend.

Miss Ethel Strain, aged 16 years, has made an album of cloth, paper and paste-board which, for uniqueness, beauty and usefulness, equals many of the more pretentious products of Yankee workshops.

The present probabilities are that Miss I. May Crosby, of Sharon, will teach our school this session, beginning the 15th instant.

WAIFS FROM WARREN'S.

Gathering the Crops—Marriage—First Frost of the Season—Other Notes.
Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer.
WARREN, November 4.—The nice weather continues, and since the writing of my last letter we have been making the best use possible of it to gather our crops. The bulk of the cotton crop is gathered; but there is considerable cotton in the fields on some farms in this section yet, although a great many have already gathered more than they expected to make at one time. The low price is causing a great deal of discouragement among the farmers. They are very much undecided as to whether it will be best to sell or hold their cotton.

At present we are quite busy gathering corn, and in a few more days, if the weather continues nice, the corn in this section will be cribbed.

A nice rain fell on last Monday. It will help turnip patches, and put the ground in nice fix for sowing wheat and oats; but owing to the chinch bugs very little of either will be sown in this section. There will probably be a few fall oats sown.

We noticed in Wednesday issue of THE ENQUIRER, that the "original package" at Tirzah is to be reopened. We were in hopes when it was closed, that it would remain closed. Well I suppose those shops are original; but we hope that no more of them will originate in this section.

Married, by Rev. J. Barr Harris, on November 2, Mr. James R. Parrish and Miss Bessie Dornay.

Warren has broken the ice, and we have it from madam rumor, that Lowryville will follow suit in a few days, with "B." as one of the contracting parties. I have been noting "B's" failure to occupy his place in THE ENQUIRER for sometime. He is perfectly excusable under the circumstances; but after the honey-moon is over and he has returned from the wedding tour, he must let us hear from him again.

They are all getting married but me; The mice and the rats are mated, And the fishes in the sea— They are all getting married but me.

The next meeting of the Gospel Temperance union will be on Saturday night before the 3rd Sabbath in this month.

The weather prophets have been scaring us with frost ever since October 2; but the first of the real article was seen in this section on Saturday morning, October 30.

The new stores at Warren, mentioned in my last letter, are now open and selling goods.

Mr. J. H. Duncan is erecting a new dwelling.

The whooping cough has about subsided in this section.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Percival died on Tuesday evening, the 2nd instant.

Mrs. W. T. McFadden is very ill and not expected to live.

I have written these few items of news to let you know that I still claim my place in THE ENQUIRER, and will write again when I have more time. S. K. J.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS.

South Carolina Synod.
The South Carolina synod met at Darlington on Friday of last week, Rev. Alexander Sprunt, of Rock Hill, presiding as moderator. The synod adjourned to hold its next meeting in Lancaster, commencing on Tuesday before the fourth Sabbath in October, 1898.

The State Wins.
Judge Simonton, on Wednesday, dismissed the injunction in the case of J. Groeschel, of Chester, and refused to issue a restraining order. Groeschel, it will be remembered, was charged with selling liquor after hours and to minors. Judge Simonton says that the proceedings against the defendant are regular, and the question as to whether or not there has been any violation of the police regulations of the state, is for the state courts to settle. If Groeschel is convicted in the state courts, his liquors will be forfeited and he will be punished otherwise.

ARE YOU COMING
To the circus? If you come in on next Tuesday to see the animals and the street parade, we would be pleased to have you call and examine the Evans Steel Frame Lever Harrow—the best tooth harrow in the world; or the Oliver Chilled Plow—the best plow in the world; or the genuine Corbin Disk Harrow. We know that you need them all in your business and are losing money by trying to get along without them.

YOU MAY KNOW
More about farming than we do, and have an idea that the implements we mention will not help you. We are free to confess that there are hundreds of farmers that know more about farming than we do; but we know that men who are recognized by all as the best and MOST SUCCESSFUL farmers in this section say they would almost feel like quitting the business if they were forced to do without the implements we name, now that they have once used them and fully realize their advantages as time and money-savers and crop-increasers.

PAY IT NOW.

To parties indebted to me for GUANO, I will say that it is necessary for them to settle their accounts ON OR BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF NOVEMBER, for the reason that I can't grant further indulgence at this time; and it is absolutely essential that debtors given themselves accordingly, for I have no desire whatever to send a man to see you, and thus starting the neighbors to talking. Let everyone take this matter to himself and give it the attention I am sure it deserves.

Cheaper Than Ever Before.
My supply of BAGGING AND TIES are now in stock and both are of the very best quality, and I am offering them at prices that will relegate the "second hand" quality to the rear. The fact is that the price at which I am offering the new goods should induce the farmers to dress every bale just like a dude. Come and see us and let us give you prices.

WE HAVE $2 KIND TOO.
Oh! yes, we've got the $2 kind too—the everyday variety that we've been selling all the time; but we've got something better now, if you've a mind to pay for it, and the difference in quality is much greater than the difference in price. Yes, we've got 100,000 LONGLEAF HEART PINE SHINGLES, which we are offering at the low price of $2.40 per thousand. They are the best shingles ever put on this market.

Plastering Hair, Lime,
LATHES AND CEMENT can always be found at our store, and contractors or purchasers of large lots can expect close prices.
