

died at his home on Turkey creek, last Tuesday morning. Mr. Moore was born on June 22, 1809, and at the time of his death was aged 89 years and 5 months. His remains were interred in the cemetery at Sharon on Wednesday.

Thanksgiving Accident. Mr. W. A. Bolin, of the Clark's Fork neighborhood, had his right hand badly torn up last Thursday as the result of a hunting accident. From such information as the reporter was able to secure, no amputation was necessary. Mr. Bolin, however, is a habitual hard worker and the misfortune will fall quite heavily upon him.

Portrait of Colonel Alston. The Columbia State, Thursday: The large oil portrait of the late Colonel Joseph K. Alston, of the First South Carolina regiment, which the officers of that regiment will present to Mrs. Alston as a testimonial of esteem and respect for the dead soldier, has arrived and is now on exhibition at Howie's studio. The painting is made from a photograph of the colonel taken by Howie, and which itself has been highly praised for its faithful likeness.

Colored Dramatic Folks. A company of local colored dramatic talent gave an entertainment in the Friendly Aid hall last Wednesday night, in the interest of the colored M. E. church. The programme included the rendition of "Rosabella's Lover," and "Heavy Showers." W. H. Adams and Coot McKnight, the band leaders, have charge of arrangements. Quite a number of white people were present at the entertainment, and they report that the occasion was a very amusing one. The programme is to be repeated some night next week, probably on Wednesday.

Made to Serve. At a meeting last Thursday night, the town council ratified the election of Dr. Cartwright as chief of the fire department, by the members of that organization. For several months past the fire department has been without a chief, and at a meeting of the members Thursday night, Dr. Cartwright was re-elected by a practically unanimous vote. A number of representative members had given him to understand very emphatically beforehand that unless he served as chief, they would not serve in other capacities, and under the circumstances the doctor consented to resume the responsibilities of the position.

Negro Died—Shelor Discharged. The Negro who was shot by Mr. W. S. Shelor, of Gastonia, at Gaffney, last Saturday night, died on Tuesday afternoon. His name was Doc Jackson. The coroner's jury which investigated the case regarded the matter as an unfortunate mistake without criminal intent on the part of Mr. Shelor, and the Negro's mother asked that Mr. Shelor be discharged. Mr. Shelor paid the expense of the surgical aid that the Negro received, had the remains shipped to Spartanburg, and gave the mother $10. Jackson was a worthless character, and was suffering from a loathsome disease. The affair, however, was regrettable. No officer has a right to shoot at a fleeing suspect, and if the matter had been pushed against Mr. Shelor he would have been put to considerable trouble.

Satisfactory Settlement. In another column, Messrs. Sam M. & L. George Grist, general agents of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association, of New York, publish an acknowledgment from Mr. Paul Workman, administrator of the late A. R. Smith, of Rock Hill, of the receipt of $5,000, payment in full of a claim under a policy issued by this company on Mr. Smith's life. The proof of death was not served on the company until over two months after the decease of Mr. Smith, and the promptness of the payment, under the circumstances, seems to be all that could be asked for. The record of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association for promptness and reliability is second to that of no other company doing business in this section.

Good Goods, Well Advertised. Going the rounds of the press is an item stating that the Royal Baking Powder company is the largest advertiser in America. Of course, the business itself must be an enormous one to justify so great an expenditure in publicity. There is no fallacy more dangerous than that success can be gained by advertising an article of indifferent merit. But, given an article of the highest quality like Royal Baking Powder, which when the house-keeper has once used she finds if she desires the best food she cannot do without, then the greatest measure of success is attained by keeping it continually before the public. Great merit and good advertising are both essential to make a product a great success. The Royal Baking Powder possessing the first, its proprietors have wisely used the second, and the result is apparent throughout the land. The Royal company believe that there is no medium for advertising like the newspapers, since in these enlightened days everybody reads them.

SOUTH CAROLINA NEWS. Guarding the Dispensary. Greenville special: Governor Elberle will probably have a clash with the United States military authorities here. A provost guard, corporal and two privates, have been stationed at the dispensary door and no enlisted man is permitted to enter the state institution. This is not all; the guards on the streets have arrested Negroes for buying whisky at the dispensary for the soldiers, and been turned over as prisoners to the city authorities. As the state counted largely on furnishing the troops with the "chemically pure," this action on the part of the military will knock a hole in the profits.

Negroes Give Trouble. Charleston correspondence of the Columbia State: Some of the members of the Ninth Ohio (Negro) regiment, seem bent on giving trouble. They have taken offense at the separate, or "Jim Crow," coach or compartment for Negroes, and persist in violating the rule of the South Carolina railroad in that respect when they have occasion to ride on the cars in coming to Charleston. A white provost guard is detailed to accompany every train now, however, with instructions to arrest the men when they make trouble, and it is thought there will be no more annoyance on this score. Sunday afternoon three of the Negro soldiers, who had been drinking, were standing on a corner near the depot in such a way as to block the sidewalk and force ladies passing them to walk round. Policeman Heneberry told the men to move, and attempted to arrest one of them, when he became obstreperous, whereupon all three presented pistols at him. The provost guard came up in the nick of time and took charge of the Negro soldiers. It is understood the matter will be investigated by the authorities as Camp Marion and the disorderly Negroes properly disciplined.

Killed Her Husband. Mrs. George W. Hughes shot and killed her husband at Greer's, Greenville, county, on Friday last week. The pair had been leading an unhappy life for some time. The woman claims that the shooting was accidental; but there is reason to believe that it was cold-blooded murder. Friday night, it is reported, when Hughes was known to be in a dying condition, and Mrs. Hughes thought there was no one else present, she tried to get her husband to say that the shooting was accidental. He said: "No, Mattie; you know it was not accidental and that I did not grab your arm. You know you said, 'George, I'll give you two minutes to get up and fight like a man, and not die like a d—d cowardly dog; that I said I never would raise my hand against you even in self defense, and that the little boy said, 'Mama, don't shoot papa.' While I freely forgive you, I cannot die with a lie on my lips." "Yes, I know, George," she is reported to have said, "I shot you; but you know it would never have happened if you had not grabbed my arm." "No, Mattie; you know I never grabbed your arm," replied the wounded husband. Mrs. Hughes is in jail in Greenville. She is said to be good looking, and has a questionable record.

The Train Would Not Stop.—A dispatch from Rome, Ga., says: A Negro soldier was run down and killed instantly, Tuesday, at Lindale, 4 miles from Rome. It seems that the train, bearing a Negro regiment of infantry from Lexington, Ky., to Columbus, on the Southern road, had been side tracked at Lindale, so as to allow the regular passenger train from Atlanta the right of way on the main line. Several of the soldiers bantered each other to stand in front of the approaching train and make the engineer stop before reaching the depot. All of the soldiers but one withdrew from their perilous situation when they saw the passenger train would not stop. The engine dashed into the Negro volunteer soldier, throwing him some distance from the track a mangled corpse. The engineer blew his whistle and reversed the engine; but not in time to save the foolish adventurer. It is claimed that the Negro was drinking. The dead soldier's name could not be obtained. The body was carried on to Columbus.

Satisfactory Settlement. ROCK HILL, S. C., Nov. 24, 1898. Messrs. Sam M. & L. Geo. Grist, General Agents, MUTUAL RESERVE FUND LIFE ASSOCIATION, Yorkville, S. C. Gentlemen: I desire to express to you my thanks for the check of $5,000, being full payment of claim under policy issued by the Mutual Reserve Fund Life association on the life of the late Andy R. Smith. The settlement of this claim is satisfactory in every respect, and I will heartily recommend the Association to all persons desiring first-class and safe insurance at a very reasonable cost. It is due to you, and the Mutual Reserve people, to say that the proofs of death under this claim were not placed in your hands until July 21 of this year, over two months after Mr. Smith's death. PAUL WORKMAN, Administrator of A. R. Smith.

P. S.—All told, Mr. Smith paid the Mutual Reserve, in premiums, from February 13, 1863, the date of issue of policy, to date of last payment, $73.35. The same amount of insurance—ordinary life policy—in an Old Line company for the same length of time, would have cost $805.70, which makes an actual cash saving of $832.35. And he had paid the same amount—$73.35—in premiums to an Old Line company, his estate would have received $2,580 instead of $5,000 paid by the Mutual Reserve. A gain of $2,420.

DON'T BE AN OSTRICH. An Ostrich will stick his head in the sand and assure himself that he is safe from all harm. To shut his eyes he would be just as secure from danger, and would require much less effort, and it is to the eye-shutting process that many a man resorts in the purchase of "protection" against loss by fire. Their eyes are never opened until it is too late, and they find that their policy is a myth, written solely on the chance that it would never become a claim. When you want trustworthy, time-tried, fire-tested and reliable fire insurance see me. My agency is the strongest. L. GEO. GRIST, Resident Agent.

D. W. HICKS. R. B. RIDDLE. GRIST COUSINS. MEDICINE DEPARTMENT.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE Who buy goods in Yorkville have learned that we keep Standard Medical Preparations. They have also learned that we are satisfied with a reasonable profit. With us this business is a kind of side issue. We do not try to carry any great big stock. That would take more money than we care to invest, and besides, it is not necessary. One bottle or package of a given preparation is about all that one customer wants at a time, and it is our aim to always have that bottle or package when wanted. We have been succeeding pretty well so far, and our Medicine Department has grown to much larger proportions than we originally contemplated. However, we are keeping up with it, and now WE ARE ABOUT READY TO HAVE HUNDREDS OF OTHER PEOPLE KNOW WHAT WE ARE DOING.

IT WAS GRIST COUSINS. Who first knocked prices silly on Standard Medical Preparations in this market. In fact EVERYTHING we have seen fit to handle has taken a tumble, and new medicines that we may see fit to handle hereafter will tumble also. That is unless they are low enough by the time we get them. Here is the record up to date. The prices in each case have been fixed by us. They have come down because in our opinion they were too high and ought to come down. NOW LISTEN:

Article. Regular Price. Our Price. Fellow's Hypophosphites, $1.50 $1.25. Koch's Hypophosphites, 1.00 .75. Lambert & Lowman's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda, 1.00 .75. Liebig's Extract of Celery, .50 .30. Pitcher's Castoria, .50 .45. Radway's Ready Relief, .50 .45. Rochelle Salts, per pound, 1.00 .40.

Now have no fears about there being mistakes in any of the above. The goods are straight from the manufacturers through the same wholesalers who supply druggists. We have carefully read a printed proof of the list after the copy was put in type by the printer and we mean to stand by our figures as quoted. In addition to the standard preparations above in bottles and boxes, we have the following at prices that cannot be legitimately cut: Castor Oil, Sulphur, Calomel, Sweet Oil, Turpentine, Saltpetre, Borax, Beladonna Plasters, Coppers, Alum, Bluestone. The price of Epsom Salts used to be 10 cents a pound. We cut it to 5 cents, and since then we have been selling large quantities of it. Gum Camphor in Cubes went at 10 cents an ounce until not long ago. A gentleman came along and inquired for it at our Medical Department. He said that unless we had it, there was none to be had in town. Up to that time we had not been keeping Gum Camphor; but we have been keeping it ever since, and the price now is only 5 cents an ounce. If you want anything in our line give us a call, and ALWAYS BRING THE CASE. You can get what we have at prices that are right. GRIST COUSINS.
