LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP.

THE outlook is that several Binders will be needed in York county this year to harvest the wheat crop. We do not know at this time who will buy; but we are satisfied that somebody in almost every section is considering the matter. Several were sold last year; but not by us. We made no special effort to sell for the reason that we have never had any practical experience with Binders and could not, therefore, guarantee them unconditionally to be up and do all that was claimed for them. We had a machine shipped to us, set it up, tested thoroughly on rough ground, and, as we expected, its work was perfect, and won for it the praise and commendation of all who saw it as the following endorsement of eye witnesses will prove.

YORKVILLE, S. C., June 6, 1898. During the past week we, the undersigned, have seen the Buckeye Frameless Binder at work in the field, and for the information of all who have not seen it, we will say that it is everything that its manufacturers claim for it. It will cut, bind and save every head of wheat or oats with which it comes in contact, whether the stalks be long or short, thick or thin on the ground. We will also add that the ground on which the machine was at work was rough and uneven. The Binder is perfect, and all that is necessary is that it be properly handled.

JAMES B. ALLISON, W. D. GLENN, R. A. BRATTON, M. D. J. M. FERGUSON, L. D. WITHERSPOON, M. J. WALKER, M. D.

Now, of course, we do not claim that all of these gentlemen are practical farmers; but we do claim, and everybody who knows them will allow the claim, that they are all practical and honorable gentlemen and, therefore, they are competent to testify as the same number of most intensely practical farmers in the county.

The Deering Ideal Binder. We are also agents for the Deering Ideal Binder, and although we have never operated one, we are satisfied that it stands at the top. Dr. Tom Campbell bought a Deering Pony Binder last season, and although we have never had any talk with the doctor or his sons, who operated it, in regard to it, we like the machine, and we are entirely willing to risk our chances of a sale on what they may say.

You Can't Go Wrong. Or be disappointed in buying either a Buckeye Frameless or Deering Ideal. Both are sold on an absolute and unconditional guarantee to do all that is claimed for them, and if you contemplate buying you will advance your own interest and preclude the possibility of future regrets by buying one of these machines. We hope you will not close a trade with anybody before seeing us, getting prices, terms and all particulars. We will call and see you about the matter if you will drop us a card signifying your desire to have us do so.

If You Wait. Until your wheat is ready to harvest before placing your order, you will most likely not be able to get a Binder, as we do not keep on hand many in stock. All orders should be placed by the first of May. GRIST COUSINS.

NEW MILLINERY EVERY WEEK. The Rush for Dobson's Millinery. Still continues. Everybody is wanting MISS RAE'S stylish trimming. If you want A Stylish Hat See MRS. DOBSON. She is always HEADQUARTERS for Style and Low Prices.

RED OIL. Is getting in most of the homes in Yorkville. It makes a better light and there is no danger of explosion. Mrs. T. M. DOBSON.

W. B. MOORE & CO. SEED IRISH POTATOES. The best adapted to this climate—Virginia raised.

SEED OATS—White and Rust Proof. GARDEN SEED in all varieties. HOME MADE SORGHUM MOLASSES by the barrel—at bargain prices—something fine.

CHURN—Have you seen that Barrel or Keg Churn we are selling? If not you better look into its merits. It has no equal. Cleanly, quickly, and the butter made on it will bring more money. It has no dash to disturb the formation of butter. Sold on trial.

RUBBER HEELS—No one disputes its merits. It lightens the jar on ones body in walking; keeps heel from running over, prevents slipping, gives elastic step, makes one appear easy and graceful, no matter to injure carpets. To try them to continue the use of them. CHATTANOOGA TURN PLOWS are the best in America today, and will be sold by us for the next 30 days at spot cash prices, payable in full without interest. This gives you the use now, and for turning stubble before being out any cash. Call and see us when in town. Make your orders here in our store. Glad to see you, trade or no trade. Respectfully, W. B. MOORE & CO., The Everything Store.

Go to Ganson's Store, THE largest establishment in Yorkville, and see the Elegant Upright Grand Lester Piano they offer as a present.

In making the bargain with Mr. Jones, Manager of the Ganson Dry Goods Co., he said he got his patronage here, and he proposes patronizing "home folks," and not sending his money to another town for a Piano.

The Lester Piano has a high reputation here and elsewhere. I have placed THE Lester In FIVE of the best homes of Yorkville. That is another reason why Jones selected EVERYTHING. Go to Ganson's, see

The Lester Piano, buy your goods, get your Piano Coupons, then call on me for further particulars, catalogue, testimonials, etc. Any one wanting to purchase the Grand Lester Piano now at Ganson's Store can get it and I will order another like it for Mr. Jones.

J. J. HUNTER. Or be disappointed in buying either a Buckeye Frameless or Deering Ideal. Both are sold on an absolute and unconditional guarantee to do all that is claimed for them, and if you contemplate buying you will advance your own interest and preclude the possibility of future regrets by buying one of these machines. We hope you will not close a trade with anybody before seeing us, getting prices, terms and all particulars. We will call and see you about the matter if you will drop us a card signifying your desire to have us do so.

A CONVENIENT CHANGE. NOT long ago we all touched Organias lightly on the score of economy. We fancied them because they were prettier alone because of their cost. Yes, it is different now. We can afford to air our fancy for them just as fine and daintily at half cost. It is a happy change and so convenient.

Until your wheat is ready to harvest before placing your order, you will most likely not be able to get a Binder, as we do not keep on hand many in stock. All orders should be placed by the first of May. GRIST COUSINS.

ONLY A CANARD.

What is Thought in Washington About the Alleged Tillman-Butler Deal. Much interest, says a correspondent of the Columbia Record, is felt among South Carolina people in Washington over the report which is going the rounds that Senator Tillman and General Butler have entered into an agreement, alliance or combination, or whatever it may be called, to defeat Senator McLaurin for re-election. While it is not possible to obtain much information in regard to the report, as it bears every evidence of unreliability, it is generally disbelieved. In the first place, Senator Tillman is not now in a position to oppose McLaurin for re-election, even if he so desired, as so, as the senator's term expires in 1901, while the term of Senator McLaurin does not expire until two years thereafter. Tillman and McLaurin are ostensibly friendly, while there has never been any great affinity between them.

Senator Tillman is in the city for the purpose of attending to some business before the department, and he is not paying much attention to political matters. His friends who have seen him say that he is not paying the slightest attention to the senatorial situation in the state so far as McLaurin is concerned; but is devoting himself to his own personal affairs. The senator is not expected to remain in Washington for many days; but will leave during the early part of the week for his home at Trenton, S. C. During the congressional recess the senator will be in Washington from time to time, as occasion may require. This is his first visit to Washington since his return from the trip to Cuba, where he went immediately after the close of the session of congress with a party of congressmen.

ROCK HILL HAPPENINGS. Last of the Star Course Entertainments—Work on the Roddey Building—The Veterans at the Re-Union.

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. ROCK HILL, April 17.—The last performance of the Star Course entertainments at Winthrop college, was rendered last Friday night to a large and attentive audience.

Work on the Roddey building is gradually closing in, and the building will soon be complete.

The old veterans are looking forward to a big time at the reunion at Charleston, and it is hoped that they will fully realize their hopes in every way.

Much work is being done by farmers around here and if it stays dry a little longer, crops and gardens won't be so late after all. JOHN.

land Park Mill No. 2, and is doing very well. Barnhill has not yet been arrested. The affair occurred outside of the incorporation, and, although a policeman went to the scene, he had no authority to make the arrest.

The List Increasing. The list of subscribers to the Rock Hill Herald's movement to send Confederate veterans to the Charleston reunion is increasing. According to The Herald, of Saturday, the subscribers were as follows: D. B. Johnson 1, George D. White 1, W. J. Rawlinson 1, Oakland Lodge of K. of P. 2, G. B. Greene 1, Julius Friedheim 1, W. L. Roddey 1, R. T. Fewell 1, Sidney Friedheim 1, W. J. Roddey 1, A. H. White 1, E. B. Mobley 1, J. M. Cherry 1, J. R. Barron 1, R. Lee Kerr 1, Paul Workman 1, Prude Ratteree 1, T. A. Crawford and V. B. McFadden 1, Rock Hill Herald 1—20 in all. The reporter was informed last week that Captain S. E. White, of Fort Mill, intends to send at least one veteran from his township and probably more than one. The reporter has also had information for ten days of a citizen of Yorkville who proposes to pay the railroad fare and other expenses of a veteran of his selection.

Entertainment of the Veterans. The Lancaster Ledger prints the following letter from General C. I. Walker to Captain G. W. Jones, of Lancaster: Dear Sir—Yours of the 6th instant to-hand containing roster and remittance for those from whom you have collected. I will be perfectly candid in answering your inquiries, and would say that the only veterans who will be entertained free are those whose circumstances are such that they can not afford to pay, and to secure this privilege they will have to have a certificate from the commander of their camp, or if not a member of a camp, from the commander of the nearest camp to them, that such is the case. On your arrival you will find committees who will give all the information needed; but no special quarters have been assigned to any special camp, and you had better engage the same in advance. Write Mr. R. P. Evans, chairman committee on information, if you want to secure quarters in advance. Delegates, of course, will be expected to pay the same as other veterans.

Death of E. D. Thompson. Mr. E. D. Thompson died at his home at Point last Friday, after a long illness. He had been in bad health for more than a year; but was able to be up and about until a week of his death. Mr. Thompson was aged about 44 years. He was a man of considerable information, took a deep interest in public affairs and was an exceptional farmer. It was Mr. Thompson who, two years ago, succeeded in raising four bales of cotton on an acre of land. He leaves a widow and four children. The funeral took place at Bethel on Saturday afternoon. The following testimonial came to THE ENQUIRER on Monday afternoon from a well-known citizen who was a close friend of the deceased: "In speaking of Mr. Thompson, you need not hesitate to associate his name with everything that is honest and truthful and manly. There was no better man in York county. If you were intimately acquainted with Mr. Thompson my suggestions are superfluous."

Graves of the Veterans. General Moorman recently applied to General Walker for a list of the Confederate burying grounds in South Carolina. As to York county, General Walker could only furnish information as follows: Yorkville, in two cemeteries, 65 graves; Fort Mill, 32 graves; Flint Hill, 41 graves
