

with other business, and the argument of the motion to dismiss the proceeding and release the defendant took place this afternoon and lasted throughout the day. Judge Gage overruled the plea, and the defendant's counsel then tried to get a stay of proceedings so the plea could be passed upon by the supreme court; but this also was overruled, and the trial of Mrs. Hughes was ordered to begin next Wednesday.

Pay of Witnesses.

Greenville News, Thursday: Judge Gage yesterday made a ruling as to the pay of witnesses that is entirely new here, and it has put about 50 witnesses, who failed to get their pay on account of it, in a fighting humor. He rules that state witnesses in cases no billed or not pressed shall receive no pay, although the authority of the court was used to compel their attendance, because the law is that only "material" witnesses shall be paid. This has acted as a great hardship on some of the witnesses who have come here from long distances against their inclination, and will now have to pay all of their own expenses. There is some talk of bringing suit to make a test case of the matter; but as no single witness has enough at stake to incline him to pay the cost of such litigation, it is likely that the suit will not be brought.

Disappeared in Greenville.

The mysterious disappearance of John A. Benedict, of Athens, Ga., in Greenville, recently, is creating quite a sensation throughout the country. Mr. Benedict was cashier of the Exchange bank of Athens, and also proprietor of the Roller Cover company, of the same place. He arrived in Greenville on May 23, for the purpose of visiting various cotton factories from that point. He left his hotel presumably to go to a livery stable and has not been seen since. His wife, in Athens, received a letter from him dated May 23; but hearing nothing further after that, started a search. Friends went to Greenville; but have been unable to get any information as to the missing man's whereabouts. The books of the Exchange bank of Athens have been examined and found to be correct.

Fire in Winoosboro.

The residence of Mr. W. H. Flenniken was destroyed by fire between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock last Monday morning. The fire alarm was sounded; but the house being built on a hill some distance from the town, the engines could do nothing to save it. It is supposed the fire was caused by rats taking matches to the attic, as it originated there. Two of the girls sleeping upstairs awoke just in time to see the ceiling on fire, and about to fall in on them. They then aroused the rest of the household down stairs; but the flames had made such rapid progress that they were barely able to save themselves, a few pieces of furniture and some of the children's clothes. The family has the sympathy of the entire community, as this makes the second time the flames have made them homeless. Both the house and furniture were insured; but that will not replace many valuables that perished in the flames.

"STAFF OF DEATH."

FEW men have made more successful experiments along the line of "health foods" than the eminent English physician, Dr. Rowbottom, and, therefore, his statements are entitled to serious consideration. Professor Rowbottom points out that ordinary "white" flour (know by us as fancy patent) bread is very largely starch, which is more difficult of digestion than the entire wheat, and which tends to bring dyspepsia, ossification, rigidity, decrepitude and an early old age. Furthermore, he holds that the mineral elements and phosphates—the strength giving food properties of the wheat kernel—being dark colored, are the very properties lost in the effort to make flour "white." Therefore, he claims, "we may call bread the 'staff of death' with as much propriety as we call it the 'staff of life.'" Those who eat bread, however, need not be worried, for this same eminent authority asserts that "bread made from the entire wheat flour may, with all justice, be considered the 'staff of life' in consideration of the amount of the nutritious matter it contains. The flour most entitled to the title, the 'staff of life,' and which is absolutely free from the objections about which Dr. Rowbottom complains, is Champion Mills Flour, made by G. L. Riddle, at Zeno, York County, of the ENTIRE WHEAT, and nothing except wheat. It contains all the nutriment of the wheat berry, because it consists of the wheat kernel ground whole, nothing being removed but the outer shell, which nature designed solely as a protection for the valuable food matter inside. This flour is richest of all in food matter.
We have it and guarantee that it will please. Try it once and you'll use it regularly.

WHOLESALE SLAUGHTER.

$1,000 Worth of Drummer's Samples to be Sacrificed for a Song.

THIS WEEK'S CLOTHING SALE WAS A DEWEY SUCCESS.

Next Week Will Be Even More Interesting In Bargain Getting.

THE PIANO COUPONS NEARLY HALF GONE!

Heavy Discounts On All Wool Dress Fabrics—Large Stocks of Summer Dress Goods From Liquidation Sale.

SHOE AND CLOTHING CLEARANCE SALE.

Trunks of Every Kind and Description at From 25 Cents Up to the Most Elaborate.

That the week just closing has been one of bustling activity at the GANSON DRY GOODS CO.'S—The People's Great Store—is a fact that no one will attempt to deny. The crowds were here and the bargains were here for them. The people seemed to realize that an opportunity had presented itself and they traded fast and freely, vieing one with another for the attention of our clerks, and we are sure that next week will be incomparably more interesting than this has been, for in addition to the many other bargains, we will offer $1,000.00 worth of Drummer's Samples, which consist of everything in the Notions line, at about half their value. Underwear, Hosiery, Handkerchiefs, Umbrellas, Buggy Robes, Work and Dress Shirts and almost anything else you may want. The samples will be sold at half their value, and with every fifty cents cash-over-the-counter-transaction, goes one of our Lester Grand Piano Coupons, every one of which has a positive market value.

Heavy Discounts will be made on all Wool Dress Fabrics, and at the same time we will slaughter a recently purchased stock of Summer Dress Goods, which we snatched from a liquidation sale. These goods, however, will not be placed on our counters for public inspection before next Monday, June 5th, thus giving our patrons at a distance an equal chance with those living in Yorkville. Remember that our Lester Piano Coupons, go only with each fifty cents cash-over-the-counter-transaction.

In our recent purchase at a forced liquidation sale, a handsome line of Dimities, Organdies, Lawns and Piques were included in the prize, and our advantage is yours.

2,000 yards of Fine Printed Organdies, same as we have been selling at 15 cents; next week only 8 cents.

1,600 yards Corded Dimity, fast colors; the 10 cents quality—next week at 5 cents.

Linon Lawns at 5 cents, 8 cents, 10 cents, 12½ cents, 15 cents, 20 cents and 25 cents, which are fully 25 per cent. better values than you can get in any other store, and what is more, they won't stay long with us at these prices.

SILK REMNANTS.

Since the beginning of the spring trade our Silk sales have been phenomenal, and in cutting so many silks, lots of chips are left. The mercantile term for this class of merchandise is "remnants." These remnants are in lengths of from ¼ of a yard to 10 yards, and these remnant silks carry with them all the attractions of remnant price added to their intrinsic merits of style and beauty. A remnant list is always a roll of honor, because it naturally includes the best selling silks. So here are bits of China Silks, Colored Taffetas, Crepe de Chine, Bengalines, Poplins, Satin Duchess, Indias and Peau de Soie, with a lot of plain white and cream Brocade Indias, Brocade Satins, etc. Remember, ladies, that in these remnants you will find a nest of bargains.

Ladies' Fine Hemstitched Handkerchiefs, worth 10 cents; next week's prices only 5 cents.

A Showy line of Belt Buckles, worth from 50 cents to 75 cents; next week only 25 cents.

New Shipment of Embroideries and Laces at Slaughtered prices.

Men's Laundered Percale Shirts at 15 cents each. Regular price 39 cents. This is next week, as long as they last.

We have the greatest stock of Trunks ever shown in Yorkville, and they are in variety. Not just a Trunk here and a Trunk there; but Trunks everywhere. Trunks for the summer girl and trunks for any girl. Trunks for men, women and children, and trunks at any price from 25 cents up. We are about as bad with Satchels, Valises and Traveling Bags, and our prices are marvelously low. In fact we are duplicating factory prices.

In Ladies' and Gentlemen's Fine Shoes we are offering unequalled values. The fact of the matter is that we sell more shoes than any three stores in the county, and its value that does it.

Join in with the rush. You can't afford to wait till it is over. Trim your lamps. Yours for the slaughter,

GANSON DRY GOODS CO.
