THE DR. LINDSAY PLANTATION POR SALE.

A 321-Acre Highly Improved Farm Adjacent to Town Conveniences. FOR cash, or upon satisfactory terms to the right party, I offer at private sale that tract of land on the southwestern that tract of land on the southwestern outskirts of Yorkville, known as the Dr. J. F. LINDSAY PLANTATION.

This plantation includes 321 ACRES, lying on both sides of the Pinckney road, which runs nearly through the centre. The S. C. & G. Extension railroad passes through one corner, and the C. & N.-W. R. R. runs within about 200 yards of the eastern boundry. The northeastern line is within 13 miles of the courthouse, and the town is accessible over either the Chester or Pickney roads.

There are under cultivation and in pasture about 200 acres, and the balance is less valuable timber. That portion of land which is under cultivation is highly improved, including a thorough system of terraces cast along scientific lines and of from seven to ten years' standing. All the land lies well.

The buildings include a ONE STORY FRAME BUILDING, 5 rooms, in fair repair, suitable for overseer, on the Pinckney road, just two miles from the court-pair, suitable for overseer, on the Pinckney road, just two miles from the courthouse, a good barn and four outbuildings, with a well of good water. There are on the place FOUR TENEMENT HOUSES,

each near a spring, and on the place
six springs, all of which are convenient to one or the other of the different cultivated fields.

Several of the fields have, with favorable seasons, yielded an average of a BALE OF COTTON TO THE ACRE, and one four-acre tract has a record of better now than it has ever been better now than it has ever been.

I ask for this plantation $25 AN ACRE.

I am farming the place this year and would want to give possession January 1st, 1901; but in the meantime the purchaser would be at liberty to build, cut timber or do anything else that would not interfere with the cultivation or gathering of the even ering of the crop.

The situation of the property makes valuable as a place to run a PUBLIC GIN, and one has been successfully run there for years. The gin house is well built, covered with metal and in good repair. The ginning outfit consists of a 12 horse power engine, 60-saw Van Winkle gin, condenser, feeder and a press—all in good running order. If a sale is made in time to enable me to arrange to put my stock, etc., on another place for next year, I will put this ginning outfit in without took during the next week by giving a discount of so per cent charge to the purchaser.
