Secretary Strauss, of the graded school board of trustees, is still receiving applications for the teacherships recently disposed of by the board.

Manager J. P. White, of the Yorkville baseball team, telegraphs from Greenwood that the Greenwood team has made arrangements to play in Yorkville next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

To meet the increasing demands of the local patronage, a section of new delivery boxes has been added in the Yorkville postoffice. The office room has been remodeled to accommodate the addition.

H. H. Beard, on Monday, released the pigeons referred to in THE ENQUIRER of last Saturday. The weather was cloudy on Saturday and Sunday mornings, and the pigeons had to be held over until Monday.

Next Wednesday, the Fourth, will be observed in Yorkville by a pretty general suspension of business. The reporter has not made the round of the entire town; but the understanding is that the stores will be closed.

Since the closing of the Baptist High School, thieves have stolen some $500 worth of lead plumbing from the King's Mountain Military academy building. If the guilty parties can be discovered it is likely that some of them will have to sweat.

For revenue or not? This is the vital question in connection with the conduct of the local water plant. If the plant is to be conducted for revenue, then there must be authority from the general assembly.

As matters now stand, the municipality cannot legally engage in the water, or any other business. The fact that it has been conducting a water business does not make the matter either legal or right. In the circumstances, however, there is no legal or other obstacle in the way of the town's furnishing water to its citizens at cost.

Mr. G. L. Suggs, of Enquirer, was in Yorkville on Tuesday, and a short conversation that the reporter had with him developed that he is very much interested in the road question. He thinks that the candidates for the general assembly ought to express themselves on this subject, and especially to say whether or not they are willing to try to secure the passage of a bill to carry out the provision of the constitution intended to give townships the right to vote bonds for road improvement.

The survey, via Cook's Gap, has been completed to Lenoir, and the engineers will now begin a survey via John's River and Grandmother Gap. The route via Cook's Gap is entirely practicable, and if the people interested along that line offer proper encouragement, there is little doubt about its being the line chosen.

Children's Day at Antioch. Children's Day was observed in the Antioch Sunday School on Thursday of last week. Rev. J. C. Stoll presided, and an elaborate program was rendered. Short addresses were delivered by Rev. Mr. Beasley, of Rock Hill, and J. B. Harris. The contributions for Sunday School work were quite liberal.

New Trial For Jaggars. The supreme court has granted a new trial in the case of the state against Wm. Jaggars, convicted at the November term of the court of general sessions for York county, before Judge O. W. Buchanan, for the murder of Geo. Burris. The defendant is represented by Messrs. Jas. F. & Jno. R. Hart. The appeal to the supreme court claimed errors on the part of Judge Buchanan in admitting testimony as to alleged dying declarations of the deceased when it had not been shown that the declarant had reason to believe that death was imminent at the time he made such declarations; also for the admission of new testimony for the prosecution after the defense had closed.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

Some of the Incidents and Features of the State Canvass.

At Sumter, the other day, it was agreed among the campaigners that gubernatorial candidates should have 30 minutes each, and the others 10 minutes each. All were satisfied with this arrangement except Mr. Patterson, who claims that the time is too short in which to say his say.

Colonel Knox Livingston, senator from Marlboro, and candidate for lieutenant governor, who had not previously appeared on the stump, joined the campaigners at Sumter. He announced himself as a genuine prohibitionist from a county that had been prohibition for 60 years. He said that during his service in the legislature he had been voting for every genuine prohibition bill presented.

At Sumter, McDonald Furman called attention to the number of Garys that have held office since 1890. Mr. Gary replied that they had held offices because of their ability, and the ability of his kin people should not prejudice his own case. He was cheered.

Mr. Patterson has been making an issue against the newspapers. At Sumter he began to specify in favor of the county papers as against the daily papers. He thought the county papers were generally all right, while the daily papers are generally all wrong.

J. H. Tillman is devoting himself principally to the policy of twitting his low candidates. He asked, at Sumter, what Colonel Hoyt would say to the governor of North Carolina in the event of his election, etc.

Colonel Patterson is endeavoring to make it appear that Colonel Hoyt is committed in favor of an alliance between the prohibitionists and high license people. Colonel Hoyt denies that he has ever advocated such an alliance, or that he is willing to make any concessions whatever to high license as against prohibition. He considers the dispensary the next best thing after prohibition, and thinks that if prohibition is not secured, then there should be a better enforcement of the dispensary law.

took a recess to allow the grand jury time in which to make up its final report and adjourned on Tuesday. The business of the term was not especially light; but all the jurors were farmers, who were anxious to be in their crops.

COULD NOT UNDERSTAND THE CHANGE.—Mail advices from the Orient, says a Seattle, Washington dispatch, give particulars of a strong rebellion in progress in Baratonga, a Pacific island under the British flag in the South Seas. The uprising has spread over the whole island and the natives are advancing on the European settlement along the coast, and are threatening the capital.

If it were not for the war in South Africa and the Chinese disturbances, the rebellion would create world-wide comment, not only on account of its being a struggle between the populace and the aristocracy; but through its unique features.

Not understanding the disturbing effects of the 180th degree of longitude, the first missionaries set the usual day, Sunday, for worship. As is well-known at the degree of longitude mentioned, the days jump back twenty-four hours. Discovering this mistake, the Christian leaders of the island attempted to rectify it. Upon urging the change the Christians aroused a sullen resentment. Thinking that the white people were deceiving them all along, the natives began butchering and murdering on all sides.

The greatest carnage and murder are being witnessed. Over 50 Europeans have already been killed.

ALONG THE OLD ALIGNMENT.—A prominent member of Emperor William's entourage, says a Berlin dispatch, who has just returned to Berlin from Kiel, where the emperor is, says that his majesty and Count von Buelow, the foreign minister, are considerably perplexed as to how Germany is to meet the present situation in China, inasmuch as they are inclined to think that a much larger force of troops will become necessary to carry the campaign there to a successful issue. Both are also convinced that Germany will bear her full share of the responsibilities.

Meanwhile disquieting reports continue to arrive from Kiao Chau, where Governor Jaeschke fears that an outbreak may occur at any moment, precipitating a general revolt and the irruption into the German sphere of large bands of Boxers known to be in the surrounding district in the province of Shan Tung.

Moreover, it is understood that Emperor William has not yet decided whether to continue the former entente cordiale with Russia and France in China as after the China-Japanese war, or to turn more to the side of England, the United States and Japan.

SENSATIONAL CUT-PRICE SALE.

WASH GOODS SLASHED TO UNHEARD OF PRICES.

During the next week we offer a startling reduction on the always low prices that have been prevailing in our store, especially on all kinds of Wash Goods. We have too many goods for this stage of the season, and it is our purpose to make them move if there is any virtue in prices that are fixed regardless of cost. Below are some of the goods and prices. We reserve the right to withdraw these prices and go back to legitimate profits upon due notice.

- 15,000 yards of 3-4 Percels cut from 8 cents a yard—just half in two—to 4 cents.
600 yards of 4-4 Percels, cut from 10 cents a yard to 5 cents a yard.
40 yards of Percels for $1. This has, all along, been a bargain that could be procured nowhere else, except at our store. We are still able to offer it for a while yet.
1,600 yards of Crash, for ladies skirts, cut to 5 1-2 cents. This supply is limited and ought not to last long at this figure.

MISCELLANEOUS BARCAINS.

We have just received and opened a lot of 75 pairs of Moleskin Pants, of the kind that we have been selling at 75 cents, and we propose to give them away at 48 cents a pair. Our tremendous line of Linen and Crash Suits is being offered at prices that make them the cheapest clothes a gentleman can wear. Straw and Crash Hats are going at ridiculously low prices. The like has never been known before in this section.

We have an even 100 pairs of Ladies' Fine Dongola Shoes that are good values at $1 a pair. From today the price is only 75 cents.

Our entire line of Men's Low Cut Shoes, except the Douglas make, including hundreds of pairs of all styles and qualities, are now going at actual cost. This offer should be speedily investigated.

IT IS UNNECESSARY

To call attention to the tremendous stock of goods we are carrying. The most casual observer can see this for himself. Buying in such quantities as we do, it is easy for the customer to understand how we can sell at such close prices. The figures we are making now are special on special goods; but we would like the reader to keep in mind the fact that our big stock is complete in all lines. It includes practically everything in Dry Goods and Notions, and people who are for the best values for their dollars, do not generally strike rock bottom prices until they come to us.
