

ginia, and so far as climate and health location are concerned, Yorkville offers advantages even over points farther north. I expect to go back over the same route that I have just traveled before September, unless unforeseen developments should render my return unnecessary or impractical.

While Colonel Davis is away, Colonel Stephenson is in daily receipt of letters of inquiry from the surrounding states, and also from this immediate vicinity in regard to rates of board, tuition, etc., and the answering of this mail takes up much of his own time as well as nearly all of the time of Mr. Goodwin, his secretary.

The repair work on the academy buildings and grounds continues steadily, and in permanent fashion. The plans include the general idea of bringing all the surroundings at least up to the high standard that obtained in the old days before the war; but there are no indications that Colonels Davis and Stephenson will be entirely satisfied even with this.

Miss Emmie Boyce spent last week with relatives and friends in Gastonia.

Messrs. Wyllie and Baxter Moore, of Chester, are in Yorkville, the guests of Mr. B. N. Moore.

Mrs. M. J. Clark left on Monday for Carson Springs, near Newport, Cocke county, Tennessee.

Miss Mamie Hall has returned to her home near Fibert, after a visit to Mr. J. Q. Wray's family, in Yorkville.

Miss Mayme Lyles, of Abbeville, is visiting in Yorkville, and is the guest of Miss Mary Moore, on East Jefferson street.

Mrs. John Sandifer and daughter, Miss Maggie, of Warren, and Miss Kittie Harshaw, of Guthrieville, are the guests of Mrs. Jno. R. Logan.

Miss Ida Harshaw, of Guthrieville, is visiting relatives and friends in Yorkville, and is the guest of Mrs. Oliver Grist, on East Liberty street.

Miss Janie Massey, of Rock Hill, is visiting in Yorkville, and is the guest of Misses Blanche and Rose Lindsay, on North Congress street.

Miss Sallie Wray, of Shelby, N. C., is in Yorkville, visiting relatives and friends, and is the guest of her brother's family, Mr. J. Q. Wray, on South Congress street.

Mrs. R. Lavy Grier and children, of Gastonia, stopped over at Auditor W. W. Boyce's one night last week, on their way to Rock Hill to visit Capt. J. Wilson Marshall's family.

Rev. Lucy L. Little, missionary to China, who left there in May to visit his aged mother in North Carolina, is expected to conduct services in the Yorkville Presbyterian church on Sunday, July 21.

Colonel and Mrs. W. G. Stephenson have taken up their residence in the south wing of the King's Mountain Military Academy building; but for the present, until they can get their house-keeping arrangements perfected, are taking their meals with Dr. and Mrs. M. W. White.

Mr. W. S. Gordon, who cut himself so seriously with an axe several weeks ago, and who has since been confined to his home, most of the time to his bed, was in Yorkville last Friday for the first time since the accident. He has been very much reduced in weight, in fact down to about 85 pounds; but is now on the mend again and hopes soon to be able to get about without crutches.

"Uncle" Robin Love is visiting at Mr. J. W. Love's, on the Charlotte road. He has been spending some time with his son, Mr. R. J. Love, on Clark's Fork. He shook hands with many friends as he passed through Yorkville yesterday. The old gentleman looks as hale and hearty, and is as kind and genial as in the days of long ago, as far back as most middle aged people are able to remember.

Mr. B. M. Blackburn, of Atlanta, was in Yorkville yesterday in the interest of the Southern Business league, which holds its annual convention in Atlanta on July 18, 19 and 20. The object of the league is to give intelligent direction to southern development. At a meeting held yesterday, it was decided that Yorkville should be represented, and Mayor Willis appointed Messrs. W. B. Moore and W. M. Prost as delegates. Other delegates may also be appointed.

Rock Hill correspondence Columbia State: On the evening of the 6th, Colonel and Mrs. A. R. Banks, at their home in Oakland, entertained, and their many friends had the pleasure of congratulating them upon the quarter century which they had spent together. It was their silver wedding anniversary which was celebrated, and although their cards had borne the legend, "no presents," a number of handsome articles in silver marked the high esteem in which the host and hostess were held by their friends. The number of guests was large, some of them coming from a distance. It was a pleasure for all to meet Mr. Wm. Banks and his charming bride, who were guests of honor and who assisted their parents in receiving.

Mr. Humbert Ferguson, formerly of Yorkville; but now of Tampa, Fla., was with the party that came up on a ten days' excursion last Wednesday. He spent a day or two in Yorkville last week, and while here gave a good account of the York people in Florida. He told an interesting story of a recent political housecleaning in Tampa and Hillsborough county, that was effected in large measures by the South Carolina contingent. Mr. Ed Hobbs, formerly of Yorkville, but now conducting quite a good sized business in Tampa, was elected as one of the aldermen of the city on the Reform ticket. There has been much political corruption in Tampa, and the Reformers have a big task ahead of them. One of the first acts of the new city government was to begin the enforcement of ordinances intended to bring about a reasonable observance of Sunday as a day of rest, at least from business. The dry goods stores were closed, Sunday before last, for the first time in years.

Charlotte Observer, Friday: Captain R. A. Torrence has received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. Dr. L. L. Moore, sent from Chuchu Fu, China, and dated May 29th, stating that Rev. Mark Grier, wife and child, had just arrived there from a recent absence at Shanghai and other places. Mr. Grier is a missionary of the Southern Presbyterian church and a brother-in-law of Rev. Mr. White, of the A. B. P. church, of Griffith's, and a brother of Rev. B. H. Grier, of Yorkville, S. C. Mr. Grier's friends in this country had hoped that he had heard of the troubles in north China in time to be warned to remain at Shanghai, or at least at Chin Kiang, a city near the head of deep water on a river near the Yang Tse Kiang river, which is guarded by gunboats of the powers. When Mrs. Moore wrote she had heard nothing of the Boxer troubles. Chuchu Fu is 80 miles to the northward from Chin Kiang, and the only hope that the little party of missionaries there have reached a safe port is that they may have been warned by some native runner, it being reported some time ago that these runners had been sent out to call in the missionaries in the stations of the Yang Tse valley. The insurrection has not broken out there, but it seems to be smouldering, and the viceroys, it is said, may not be able much longer to maintain peace.

LOCAL LACONICS.

Pretty Good Crop. Captain J. R. Lindsay has threshed out 1,156 bushels of wheat from this year's crop. Mr. Wade H. Hicklin gets 434 bushels of wheat and 1,460 bushels of oats. He preserved a portion of his oat crop in the sheaf and this is not included in the foregoing figures.

Our Greatest Educational Need. Upon looking over the announcement of the King's Mountain Military Academy, Prof. Patterson Wardlaw, of the department of pedagogy, South Carolina college, wrote to Colonel Stephenson, under date of July 3 as follows: "For sometime it has been felt that the greatest educational need of our state is for such schools as that which you are going to conduct."

Death of Mrs. Adams. Mrs. A. E. Adams, widow of the late Rev. J. M. H. Adams, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Brice, in Shelby, N. C., last Saturday, and was buried at Bethel at 10 a. m. last Sunday, the funeral service being conducted by Rev. W. G. Neville. The husband of Mrs. Adams was pastor of the Presbyterian church of Yorkville from 1851 until 1862, in which year he died. At the time of her death, Mrs. Adams was aged 82 years. Rev. W. G. Neville has for many years been an especial friend of the family and it was for that reason that he was invited to conduct the funeral service.

CONFEDERATE RE-UNION. Here is the Programme to be Followed at Greenwood.

General C. I. Walker, commander of the South Carolina division of the U. C. V., has issued the following as General Order No. 48:

1. The annual convention for 1900, of the South Carolina division, will be held at Greenwood, S. C., commencing August 1st. The opening session will be called to order at 10 a. m.

2. Our comrades and the good people of Greenwood have made liberal arrangements to entertain the division most handsomely, and we may look forward to having a most enjoyable reunion. Our numbers are yearly growing smaller, and few of us can attend many more reunions—to some of us this will be our last—therefore, let us draw closer together, and all endeavor to meet our comrades on this occasion. The state reunions always bring together the comrades who were close during the trying days of 1861-65, and more of the comrades than can possibly attend the general reunions of the U. C. V. Let every comrade in South Carolina attempt to meet his brothers at Greenwood.

3. Arrangements are being made for the usual low railroad rate of 1 cent per mile.

5. Each brigade, regiment and camp will please appoint one sponsor, and as many maids of honor as they may think best; and let each see that they all come. Nothing adds so much to the pleasure of such reunions, as the presence of the fair women of our state, devoted as they are to the holy memories of the great cause we fought for.

5. Any further details respecting the pleasure or comfort of the comrades, will be published to the division, if necessary.

Back from Kansas City. August Kohn in News and Courier: Of the delegates to the Kansas City convention, Governor McCoskey, Senator Talbird and Messrs. Garriss and Welborn returned this afternoon. While in Kansas City the delegation rented a small dwelling sufficient to accommodate them, and they took their meals wherever it happened to be most convenient. While the delegation acted unanimously in the convention and cast 18 votes for Stevenson, there was quite a lively little racket stirred up when they would support for the vice presidency. The first choice of most of them was Hill; but his positive declaration that he would not accept the honor made the Carolinians cast about for another man to support. Senator Tillman was an enthusiastic supporter of Towne, and made a characteristically earnest and ardent speech at the delegation meeting, urging them to support him. But his efforts were in vain, and the senator was much put out because the delegation refused to look at it in the light that he did. Had it not been for the unit rule he would doubtless have made a speech in favor of Towne in the convention, and would have voted for him, too. But a majority of the delegation was not willing to support a Republican, even though the favored few silver, white life-long Democrats were available, and Senator Tillman had to yield to their opinion. The following is the text of the ballot whereby the delegates decided to vote for Stevenson: For Towne, Tillman, Stokes, Welborn, Traxler, Garris, 5; for Hill, Latimer, 1; for Stevenson, Governor McCoskey, Wilson, Strubling, McBeck, Bouchier, McGhee, John Gary Evans, Polaty, Talbird, Mooney, Gruber, 11; for Carr of North Carolina, Willie Jones, 1. The delegation left Senator Tillman in Kansas City attending a meeting of the executive committee. Messrs. Gruber and Polaty went on a trip to Colorado, L. Arthur O'Neal remained in Kansas City for a few days. Col. W. B. Wilson stopped in Asheville, Col. Jones stopped at a North Carolina mountain resort, and the others stopped at their homes.

People Traveling SHOULD at all times have a nice Grip, Trunk or Valise. There are almost as many necessities on a railroad journey. I don't mean that a traveler should carry a Grip and a Valise and a Trunk; but I do say that every traveler should have either one of the three of these articles. You need a Grip every time you go off for a day or so. You need a Valise when you go to visit, or when business calls you to some place, detaining you for several days or a week; and when your wife goes to visit her mother, it is necessary to have a Trunk. And again, almost everyone needs a nice Trunk to keep things in at home. A nice Trunk is a useful article, and everyone should own one. I have on hand a full line of Trunks, Grips and Valises at all prices. No one should think of borrowing either of these articles when I am selling Grip Trunks for 20 cts. to $2.50; Valises at from 50 cts. to $8.00; and Trunks at from 25 cts. to $11.00. Now don't put off seeing these goods. I have a full Dress Suit Cases to go at a bargain.

WANTED! I WANT to buy for CASH at once, ONE THOUSAND CORDS of DRY HARD WOOD. I will pay the highest market price. Bring your Wood and get the CASH. T. B. McCLAIN.

THE DR. LINDSAY PLANTATION FOR SALE.

A 321-Acre Highly Improved Farm, Adjacent to Town Convenues. FOR cash, or upon satisfactory terms to the right party, I offer at private sale that tract of land on the southwest corner of Yorkville, known as the Dr. J. F. LINDSAY PLANTATION.

This plantation includes 321 ACRES, lying on both sides of the Pineckey road, which runs nearly through the center of the tract. The S. C. & G. Extension railroad passes through one corner, and the C. & N.-W. R. R. runs within about 200 yards of the eastern boundary. The northeastern line is within 1 1/2 miles of the courthouse, and the town is accessible over either the Chester or Pickney roads.

There are under cultivation and in pasture about 200 acres, and the balance is in woodland, most of which is original forest, including many THOUSAND CORDS of FIREWOOD, and more or less valuable timber. The portion of land which is under cultivation is highly improved, including a thorough system of terraces cast along scientific lines and of from seven to ten years' standing. All the land lies well.

The buildings include a ONE STORY FRAME BUILDING, 5 rooms, in fair repair, suitable for overseer, on the Pineckey road, just two miles from the courthouse, a good barn, and our outbuilding, with well of good water. There are on the place FOUR TENEMENT HOUSES, each near a spring, and on the place six springs, all of which are convenient to one or the other of the different cultivated fields.

Several of the fields have, with favorable seasons, yielded an average of a BALE OF COTTON TO THE ACRE, and one four-acre tract has a record of SEVEN BALES. This plantation was improved by the late Dr. J. F. LINDSAY, during a period of 25 years, and most of the local public is aware that, especially during the last ten years of his life, he made on it heavier crops at less expense than were made by any other farmer on any other plantation in this section of the county. All of the land is as good or better now than it has ever been.

I ask for this plantation $25 AN ACRE. I am familiar with the place, and would want to give possession January 1st, 1901; but in the meantime the purchaser would be at liberty to build, cut timber or do anything else that would not interfere with the cultivation or gathering of the crop.

The situation of the property makes it valuable as a place to run a PUBLIC GIN, and one has been successfully run there for years. The gin house is well built, covered with metal and in good repair. The ginning outfit consists of a 12 horse power engine, 60-horse Yan Whinny condenser, feeder and press--all in good running order. If a sale is made in time to enable me to arrange to put my stock, etc., on another place for next year, I will put the ginning outfit in without charge to the purchaser.

For further information, call upon or write to me at Yorkville, S. C. J. R. LINDSAY. June 6 w 3m
