

man myself. During the 53 years of my life I have not drunk as much as a half-barrel of whisky; but I believe where a man uses whisky without abusing it, where he merely drinks for the exhilarating effect and stops there, and does not waste his substance on it, I believe he has as much right to drink as he has to eat. The Bible does not teach prohibition. There is one little passage in Habakkuk about putting the bottle to thy neighbor's lips that is often misquoted; but Paul advises Timothy to take a little wine for his stomach's sake; while another place tells us, "to drink and forget our poverty." But what is the matter with you York county people? If you don't want the dispensary, don't vote for it; but for God's sake leave us alone and don't try to make hypocrites of us too. In his concluding remarks Senator Tillman said that there was not a preacher in Edgfield county who would corroborate the assertion of Dr. Gardner to the effect that he, Tillman, sought to throw discredit upon the preachers. Senator Tillman was listened to throughout his speech with the closest attention, and was frequently cheered. He said some pretty hard things; but his manner of saying them was so inoffensive that they left no sting. Even when he used the terms fools and jackasses, it was apparently just in fun, and although in print it may seem that he was apparently quite aggressive. As a matter of fact he was really on the defensive throughout. There was as much real strength in what he had to say as in any other speech he has ever made from the York county stump; but the audience was one of the calmest and coolest he has ever addressed in this county, and that made a difference.

Good Yield of Oats. There was a mixture of figures in the previous report of the oat crop made by Mr. Wm. Borders, of King's Creek. The yield was 314 bushels, instead of 119, to 9 bushels sown. Twenty-eight to one.

Mr. Thomas N. Wood, of the northern part of York township, harvested 196 bushels of wheat from seven bushels sown on fourteen acres. He sowed Ripley wheat and, as will be noted, at the rate of a half a bushel to the acre.

Due West Female College. It is hardly necessary to call especial attention to the announcement of the Due West Female college in another column. The people of this section generally understand that there is no better institution of the kind to be found in the state.

Rev. R. D. Perry Dead. A telegram received here on Monday announced the death, on Sunday, of Rev. R. D. Perry, at Blackslock. Rev. Mr. Perry is the man who sued the Seaboard Air Line railroad for damages, for injuries alleged to have been sustained at Catawba Junction.

Has Already Been. The reporter remarked to Senator Tillman last Saturday: "I understood you were to campaign in Dakota this summer in behalf of Senator Pettigrew." "I have already been there," replied the senator. "I may go back. I'll go wherever the Democratic executive committee sends me."

Delegates to Greenwood. At a meeting of Micah Jenkins Camp, U. C. V., in the court house last Saturday, delegates to the Greenwood convention on August 1, were elected as follows: Major James F. Hart, John Caldwell and A. F. McConnell. Alternates: W. N. Elder, S. S. Smith, M. S. Carroll. Miss Ollie Elder, of McConnellsville, was elected as sponsor for the camp.

WITHIN THE TOWN.

Mr. S. M. McNeel and others who have the capital, stand ready to organize a national bank in Yorkville at the earliest practicable moment.

The sermon that was to have been preached by Rev. J. M. Steadman in Trinity church, last Sunday night, on the subject: "Does the Bible Teach Prohibition?" has been postponed until next Sunday night.

There is no use to try to deny the fact that by the failure of the Loan and Savings Bank, Yorkville is hard hit. The blow falls not only upon the stockholders; but upon the entire community. But the stockholders are among the worst sufferers. Among the stockholders are many individuals whose entire savings are represented by this single investment, and though in most cases it is only a few hundred dollars each, to them this represents much. Still there is no need for indulgence in any recriminations of whatever nature. For instance, it is not the fault of Mr. McClain any more than of the bank officials. Whatever wrong that may have been done by either is an error of judgment—the miscarriage of intentions that were only of the best. The damage cannot be repaired by any attempt to fix blame.

Dr. S. E. Brice, Esq., was summoned to Due West last Saturday night by a telegram announcing the critical illness of his mother. A card received from him yesterday stated that his mother was much better and he would be home today.

THE ENQUIRER had a pleasant visit last Saturday from the present governor and the next governor. Governor McSwenney and Colonel Hoyt both called and had a look through the office. Both are old acquaintances and fellow newspaper workers. Either is fit to be governor of South Carolina or president of the United States, and it has been many a long year since the people have had the opportunity to vote for the superior of either. One of them will surely be the next governor. It hardly seems that there is anyone else in the race.

Such efforts as are being made to save the Sutor mill should fail, the calamity will fall first on Mr. T. B. McClain, and next upon the town of Yorkville. Than Mr. McClain no man who has ever lived in Yorkville has contributed more to the growth and prosperity of the town. He has worked in season and out of season, carrying his days far into the nights, and devoting all his efforts to developments that have redounded to the benefit of the entire community. The Sutor Cotton mill is different from other enterprises only in that it is of greater proportions. Mr. McClain's commercial integrity and private character have been unimpeached and unimpeachable. His mill is only in need of working capital and fully capable of paying dividends on all that is required. If failure should come under such circumstances, we use a mild term when we say the situation is regrettable.

FINANCIAL TROUBLE.

The Loan and Savings bank failed to open its doors for business last Saturday morning, and since then it has been dawdling more and more clearly upon the people that the town is in trouble and lots of it. The bank failed for about $85,000. It is a complicated story, and a clear statement of details is impracticable. No man can tell it just as it is, and probably there is nothing to be gained by the attempt. For the present the fact of the failure, and the fact that a majority of the business people of the town are directly interested either as depositors or stockholders, is sufficient. Although the fact has just come out, for quite awhile the bank had been heavily over-loaded. There were included in its assets a number of securities that were of doubtful value. The cash in the vaults had been drawn quite low. There came a crisis that revealed the situation, a run was commenced late Friday afternoon, and at a meeting of the directors Friday night, it was decided, after a careful canvass of the situation, not to open for business Saturday morning.

With liabilities of about $85,000, and with cash and other quick assets of considerably less than one-third of that amount, it appeared that there was nothing to do but throw the matter into the hands of a receiver, and steps were taken to that end on Saturday. For the convenience of those interested, Judge Gage came up from Chester on Monday to hear the case.

Two petitions were presented to his honor. One was by W. W. Lewis, Esq., upon the advice and consent of directors, and in behalf of a large creditor. The other was by W. B. McCaw, Esq., at the instance also of directors, stockholders and depositors. The first bill merely sought the appointment of a receiver as is usual in such cases, and the second requested the court to empower the directors of the bank to wind up its affairs, they having agreed to serve without compensation. There was a contest between the two petitions occasioned principally by the fact that some of the people who had sanctioned the first proceeding, afterward changed their minds and gave their adherence to the second. The matter was temporarily settled by a postponement of the receivership matter until the 29th of August, leaving the affairs of the bank in statu quo in the meantime.

What is going to be done remains to be seen. There has been talk of a earnest effort on the part of the stockholders to try to get the cash with which to pay off all depositors. This may succeed and it may not. If it fails, a receiver will be appointed, and the stockholders will be held bound to the depositors and other creditors not only for the amount of their respective holdings, but for 105 per cent. in addition.

As to whether the Sutor mill condition is as desperate as that of the bank cannot be stated positively. It does not look so bad. The mill made a profit of $2,000 a month back in the spring, and under present conditions is capable of netting $1,000 a month now. This is sufficient to pay interest on all its fixed charges and leaving a handsome monthly credit to a sinking fund besides. It is only a question of holding back creditors while the property lifts itself out of danger. If the creditors are sensible and look to their interests, the mill will not fall into the meshes of a receivership and become food for the lawyers. Secured and unsecured creditors alike will get all that is theirs. Otherwise, secured creditors will get, in most instances, a part of what belongs to them, and unsecured creditors will get nothing—that is, not out of the particular wreck that is now in view. Some experienced mill men have made an advantageous proposition to creditors; but whether or not the creditors are going to accept has not developed.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running snore or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

W. B. MOORE & CO. THE DR. LINDSAY PLANTATION FOR SALE. A 321-Acre Highly Improved Farm, Adjacent to Town Conveniences.

FOR cash, or upon satisfactory terms to the right party, I offer at private sale that tract of land on the southwestern outskirts of Yorkville, known as the Dr. F. LINDSAY PLANTATION.

This plantation includes 321 ACRES, lying on both sides of the Pinckney road, which runs nearly through the center. The R. C. & G. Extension railroad crosses through one corner, and the C. & N. W. R. R. runs within about 200 yards of the eastern boundary. The northeastern line is within 1 1/2 miles of the courthouse, and the town is accessible over either the Chester or Pinckney roads.

There are under cultivation and in pasture about 200 acres, and the balance is in woodland, most of which is original forest, including many THOUSAND CORDS OF FIREWOOD, and more or less valuable timber. That portion of land which is under cultivation is highly improved, including a thorough system of terraces cast along scientific lines and of from seven to ten years' standing. All the land lies well.

The buildings include a ONE STORY FRAME BUILDING, 5 rooms, in fair repair, suitable for overseer, on the Pinckney road, just two miles from the courthouse, a good barn and four outbuildings, with a well of good water. There are on the place FOUR TENEMENT HOUSES, each near a spring, and each with a place for a spring, all of which are convenient to one or the other of the different cultivated fields.

Several of the fields have, with favorable results, yielded an average of a BALE OF COTTON TO THE ACRE, and one four-acre tract has a record of SEVEN BALES. This plantation was improved by the late Dr. F. LINDSAY, during a period of 25 years, and most of the local public is aware that, especially during the last ten years of his life, he made out the heaviest crops at less expense than were made by any other farmer on any other plantation in this section of the county. All of the land is as good or better now than it has ever been.

I ask for this plantation $25 AN ACRE. I am farming the place this year and would want to give possession January 1st, 1901; but in the meantime the purchaser would be at liberty to build, cut timber or do anything else that would not interfere with the cultivation or gathering of the crop.

The situation of the property makes it valuable as a place to run a PUBLIC GIN, and one has been successfully run on the place for many years. The gin house is well built, covered with metal and in good repair. The ginning outfit consists of a 12 horse power engine, 60-saw Van Winkle gin, condenser, feeder and a press—all in good running order. If a sale is made in time to enable me to arrange to put my stock, etc., on another place for next year, I will put this ginning outfit in without charge on the purchaser.

For further information, call upon or write to me at Yorkville, S. C. J. R. LINDSAY. June 6 w 3m
