Mr. J. J. Clinton, were destroyed by fire Thursday night. Before going to bed Mr. Clinton fastened the inside doors and locked the outside doors, leaving two mules secure in the stable. The fire occurred during the night. When it was discovered Mrs. Clinton noticed that the barn door was open. It afterwards developed that the mules were out feeding in a field near by. In the barn there was 300 or 400 pounds of seed cotton, about 1,000 bundles of fodder, several loads of hay and a quantity of corn. All this was destroyed, as was also a wagon and a buggy belonging to Mr. Clinton. The barn was worth probably $125, and the contents were worth something like $300. The origin of the fire is unknown; but there are circumstances which lead to strong suspicions of incendiarism, directed either at Mr. Clinton or Mr. Bratton. The building was insured for

WE SAVE YOU MONEY.

WE CAN SAVE YOU MONEY!
WHY? Well, for several reasons.
In the first place we buy for CASH, and our money will go as far as anybody else. We know when and how to buy to advantage. Our expenses are but a fraction of what they are in a larger town or city. For instance, we have no city taxes to pay no waterhave no city taxes to pay, no water-works bonds to pay for, no electric light bills to pay. No police officers to pay. Our insurance is low. Our expense account is lower all around. If you don't believe it, come and see us and we will prove it to your satisfaction.
