backing caused room bulls to hesitate and take profits on bulges. Crop estimates were cut down somewhat in profession circles, when the frost news came to hand. Near the close one market stiffened up again on southern, foreign and some bull support. The market was finally steady and net 10 to 15 points higher.

Dry Goods Department.

Always At It.

ROM what we have gathered of the history and tradi-tions of this market during our comparatively short, but pleasant and satisfactory experience in Yorkville, we can easily understand how many people have gathered the idea that local dry goods men buy the bulk of their stocks during semi-annual visits north and that subsequent additions are merely in the nature of filling out lines that may have run short. Such an idea, however, does not begin to cover the methods prevailing in our establishment, nor does it give a hint of the immense amount of daily work that is required in the matter of keeping up stock alone, to say nothing of the large purchases of new lines that are made every week. The aggregate amount of new goods brought into our store since our buyers were last in the northern markets, exceeds by many thousands of dollars, the amount bought at that time.

GENTLEMEN'S CLOTHING.

At no time has our stock of Gentlemen's Clothing been allowed to run so low as not to leave a wide range of choice in variety and quality. But now that the busy season is on and we better understand the requirements of the trade, our stock is something to brag on. Its like has never before been seen in Yorkville, and from the best information we have on the subject, it cannot be found elsewhere in York county. We have sole local control of the celebrated Strouse Bros.'s Clothing, known all over the United States as being unequaled in quality, style or finish. Our stock runs up into the thousands of dollars, and whether the customer be long or short, thin or stout, we can fit him in almost any pattern, quality or price that may suit his fancy.

FOR THE BOYS.

The Mrs. Jane Hopkins Clothes for youths and small boys, lead the world. In sizes they range from a perfect fit for the little gentleman aged 21 years to the youth of 19, and prices range from $2.50 for a complete suit up to $20. Our stock is complete, including new goods and all of the new styles. We can fit out any small boy in every stitch he requires from undervest to overcoat, including shoes and hat, and make him look as well dressed as he would be just from the hands of a New York tailor.

OUR SHOE TRADE.

Sometime ago we made mention of the fact that we had received a solid car load of Shoes. Most people would have thought that the supply would have been sufficient to last us until next summer. But it wasn't. Our Shoe trade is twice what it was at this time last year, and since the receipt of the car load referred to we have made several additional large orders. Our present stock is large and complete. It includes all qualities and styles from fine to ordinary, and especial bargains in 1,000 pairs of ALFRED'S BEST at $1.25, and 500 pairs of COTTON KINGS for $1 a pair. Shoes for boys and misses range from 50 and 75 cents for the lowest on up.

DRESS GOODS.

This department has been keeping us especially busy this season. Since our buyer returned from New York, we have made three large additional orders, and we are now prepared to show a line of Black Goods that will interest and astonish all the ladies of this territory. We are sure that no such line has ever been seen in this section. It includes Melrose, Melrose-Sicilian, Pebble Serge, Waterproof Serge and Satin Soleil. Armure, Broad Cloths and Venetians are on hand in colors. Our new line of Cambric Embroideries is worthy of especial mention, and we desire also to call attention to our beautiful Appliques in cream and black, as well as to our new Taffeta Silks in solid colors, and our fancy Waist Patterns, which are something new and novel from Arnold, Constable & Co., New York. These are now being sold for the first time on this market. They are of French flannel and the delicate colors in which they are embroidered never fail to provoke admiration.

CAPES AND JACKETS.

We have not exactly outdone ourselves along this line; but we have the heaviest stock we have ever handled. It is the strongest line that has ever been shown in Yorkville. Under this head also, it is proper to includeJackets for children and misses, and also Boas and Collarettes, in which we can show much that is worth looking at. The prices range from $1 to $15 per piece.

THE MILLINERY DEPARTMENT.

We had almost decided to make no mention of Millinery, for the reason that Mrs. Dobson is so busy as to be unable to spare the time to tell about the things that are new. It is a fact, however, that we have duplicated more than one large order and found it necessary to telegraph for a salesman from our New York house to help us out in the ordering of new goods. He came all the way from New York for our especial benefit. Our Millinery corps is as busy as we could possibly desire it to be; but at the same time we want our friends to understand that we will accommodate them in their every wish at Yours to serve,
