

with the end of his captive seems to have been this, that when the mob proposed to burn him, Koester and others declared they would shoot him at the striking of the first match. That is all. Koester seems to be an active and resolute man, and a person of taste. Having arrested a vile criminal, he helped to avert a cruel and disgusting show. The opposition to his appointment as collector seems to have been based on personal spite. Report says that the president will not withdraw the appointment.

LOCKHART LINKLETS.

Mrs. Riggin Returns to Her Farm—Mr. Wm. Ross Becomes an Overseer.

Correspondence of the Yorkville Enquirer. LOCKHART, November 20.—These autumnal days are certainly beautiful. Each succeeding day seems to vie with the day preceding in that respect.

Mrs. R. J. Riggin, who has been with us for some time, has moved back to her plantation in the Bladenville section. She will be accompanied by all of her children except Miss Alice and Mr. Meek Riggin. Miss Alice will continue to hold her position as inspector in the cloth-room, and Mr. Meek will continue as flagman on the Lockhart branch of the Southern railway. Mr. William Ross is now a full-fledged overseer, having been assigned to that position in the cloth-room on the resignation of Mr. T. L. Barber. Mr. J. S. Grier filled his appointment here yesterday, preaching two very interesting sermons from the same text.

CHAPTER I.
CORONACA, S. C., Sept. 1st, 1899.
Mr. M. M. Mattison, State Agent,
Anderson S. C.:

Dear Sir: Replying to yours of the 26th ultimo, I beg to say that I insured my life in 1894 with the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., for $20,000; am well pleased with the policy contract, am favorably impressed with the past record of the Company, and so far have no cause for regret.
Yours truly,
W. W. KLUGH.

CHAPTER II.
CORONACA, S. C., Nov. 9, 1901.

To P. S. Dew, Agent,
Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co.:
Dear Sir: You will please accept my thanks for check for $20,147.80 on National State Bank of Newark, N. J., in settlement of Policy No. 208,721, issued to my brother, W. W. Klugh, by Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Co., on October 23d, 1894. This prompt and full settlement, just eleven days from mailing of proof of death, proves conclusively that the interest of widows and orphans are safe in the Grand Old Company you represent; besides I find on investigation that your rates, coupled with your annual dividend plan, are much more favorable to the policy holder than the other old companies, and I take this opportunity of recommending unconditionally your Company to anyone desiring insurance.
Yours very truly,
J. S. KLUGH, Executor.
