Abbeville Medium: Robert Lathan, Esq., was in the city Tuesday and made a pleasant call at The Medium office. He is now on the editorial staff of The State in Columbia, and is highly esteemed by his associates. His friends in Abbeville are gratified that he has done so well and feel sure that great distinction awaits him.

Fort Mill Times: Mr. J. P. Crowder paid a visit to Columbia Friday which resulted in his closing a contract with Mrs. L. D. Childs, of that city, to manage her big farm in Catawba township, this county. Mr. Crowder has for nine years held the position of overseer for Messrs. E. B. and B. D. Springs on their farms near Fort Mill, and during that time has established a record that is sometimes reached but never excelled by the average farmer of the day. He intends moving with his family to the Childs place on or before January 1.

LOCAL LACONICS. We Will Send The Enquirer From now until January 1, 1903, for 60 cents.

Star Route Change. The star route service from Rock Hill to Concord has been changed to omit India Hook, the postoffice at that place having been abolished on account of rural free delivery.

The County Commissioners. The county commissioners held their regular monthly meeting on last Wednesday. There was but little to do except audit and pay accounts. They issued orders for about $1,300 and still have several hundred dollars in the treasury.

Will Make 1,000 Bushels. The "chaingang" corn on the poorhouse farm is said to be one of the finest bodies of corn of its size in this neighborhood. It promises to yield something like thirty bushels to the acre, probably more, and there will be no corn to buy for the chaingang next year.

Chambers-Coe. Union Progress, Wednesday: Mr. Joseph P. Chambers left Monday for Yorkville, where he will be united in marriage this afternoon at 4 p. m., to Miss Nannette Coe. The ceremony will be performed by the Methodist minister. Mr. Chambers and Miss Coe attended the same institution—Washington college, Tennessee—two years ago, and since leaving there Mr. Chambers has been one of the very efficient members of The Progress force, and Miss Coe has been teaching in North Carolina. Her parents recently moved to Missouri, which has hastened the marriage. After the marriage they will go to the home of Mr. J. A. Chambers, a well-known citizen of this county, where they will spend their honeymoon, arriving in this city on Saturday evening. They will begin housekeeping at the home of the Misses McIlwain, on South street. The best wishes of the many friends of this young couple will be with them for a long, happy and prosperous life.

Death of Mrs. Byers. Mrs. Mary E. Byers, widow of the late William Bolivar Byers, died at the home of her son, Mr. Samuel C. Byers, near Bethesda church, last Tuesday afternoon, at 5 o'clock. The immediate cause of her death was concussion of the brain resulting from a fall on the Friday previous. She had been an invalid for quite awhile, having been stricken with paralysis about four years ago, and her fall was due to her feebleness. Mrs. Byers was a native of Bethesda township, having been born in that section about 64 years ago. She was a woman of many excellent traits of character, a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and widely esteemed for her remarkably fine common sense in matters relating to the everyday affairs of life. She has been a widow since October 2, 1884. She leaves three sons as follows: Dr. Wm. Bolivar, Samuel C., and John M., all citizens of Bethesda township. The interment took place in Bethesda cemetery on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. J. K. Hall and attended by a large concourse of people.

Indian Relics. Fort Mill Times: After noting the item in The Times of last Wednesday concerning the finding of an Indian skeleton, etc., near the river, the Rock Hill Herald adds: "The bones in question were uncovered by the great freshness of last year, but were not discovered until January of this year. They were found on the farms of Messrs. David and William Boyd, in Mecklenburg county, near Wright's ferry, and along the Catawba river. They are evidently those of Indians who had been interred on the bottoms and are specimens of hundreds of others to be seen there. The beads had undoubtedly been buried in the graves of the Indians. Mr. W. H. Wylie secured 466, of several colors, but the majority are of a blueish shade. Some are of red and blue; others black with red stripes and blue with white stripes. They are of glass, chalk and bone. The two former kinds are supposed to be of English and French make, and were traded to the Indians for their lands and furs, and for animals caught in their traps. The specimens secured by Mr. Wylie are in good shape for preservation, except some of the glass beads show signs of disintegration. It is evident that they were under ground since that far-off time when the Catawba Indians roamed these regions—the mighty monarchs of all their surroundings."

Tried to Raise a Bill. Lincolnton Journal: Secret Service Agent Chas. E. Wright, of Charlotte, arrested John G. Hoyle, formerly of this county, but now of King's Mountain, here on Tuesday morning. The crime for which Hoyle was wanted was for raising a one dollar bill to five dollars. He, in company with Avery Dawson, of Hickory, passed the money in King's Mountain on June 15th. Dawson was captured at Hickory about July 15th, by a deputy sheriff of Morganton, and turned over to the police at King's Mountain, who took him to Charlotte, where he was tried and bound over to the Federal court in the sum of $1,000. He failed to give the bond and was placed in jail in Charlotte. Tuesday the secret service agent came here on the lookout for Hoyle, who was attending court. Upon being captured he was placed in jail and on Wednesday morning was carried before United States Commissioner S. P. Sherrill, who bound him, on the Federal court in the sum of $500. Hoyle also failed to give bond. Chief of Police Kendrick, Messrs. Chas. E. Russell, John Ferguson and Julius Weil, of King's Mountain, were with Hoyle, and against Hoyle. The raising of the bill was a very poor piece of work and was easily detected.

Prospects at Winthrop. Rock Hill special of Wednesday to the Columbia State: President Johnson of Winthrop arrived home with his wife Sunday night after a three weeks' tour of northern cities and resorts. The number of applications for dormitory accommodations at Winthrop this year is larger than ever before, there being up to this date 724, not including the residents of this city. When they are added the number will reach 750 or more. The dormitory accommodation being for 400 pupils it is very evident that all forms of secure entrance, to somewhat remedy this the authorities on a certain date sent a set of examination questions to the superintendent of education in each county, and those applying for admission to Winthrop had to come up to certain requirements. In this way the best material of our state is secured. The faculty is complete, and is an aggregation of skilled specialists. The new members are: Miss Elizabeth Lumpkin (Brenan college, B. E.), elocution and reading; Miss Florence A. McMillan (Peabody Normal), English; Miss Olive R. Ross (Peabody Normal and Vanderbilt university), English; Miss Fannie Evans (South Carolina college), history; Miss Blanche Hermine Barbot, piano. In the catalogue just issued the name of Miss Olive Pyle, physiology and hygiene, was inadvertently omitted. The building and campus are being put in readiness for the opening of the 17th instant.

MERE-MENTION. Wilmington, N. C., business men are combining to run a colony of Syrian business men out of the city. Twenty-two villages were destroyed by a landslide in the Trans-Caucasus Russia, a few days ago, and 500 lives were lost. Tom L. Johnson, the mayor of Cleveland, controlled the Ohio state Democratic convention a few days ago and secured the launching of a presidential boom. The California Democrats have nominated Franklin D. Roosevelt for governor. It is reported that the New York state Republicans will oppose President Roosevelt on the trust question. The Grand Duke Boris, of Russia, dined with President Roosevelt at Thursday. The West Virginia strikers have decided to go back to work. Sixteen men were killed by an explosion in the Treadwell colliery in Montgomeryshire, England, Thursday. Fred Mariott, publisher of the San Francisco News Letter, was killed Thursday for publishing a slanderous article about a woman.

TRIED TO CUT BRYAN.—Mr. Bryan had an exciting encounter with a drunken man at the Labor Day picnic at Lincoln, Neb., on September 1. Mr. Bryan and two friends were going out of the park, when they saw two men fighting. The larger was unmercifully pummeling the other man. Mr. Bryan promptly interfered. In his drunken rage the big man drew a knife and a revolver from his pocket. Mr. Bryan grasped him by one wrist, the other man grasped his other arm. The stranger was at least six feet tall and brawny and had just enough liquor in him to increase his strength and fury. In the struggle that followed he proved a tough proposition.

Mr. Bryan was not shaken hands for nothing the past six years. He had a grip that would not loosen and he clung to the man's wrist until he had him overpowered. The stranger was finally ejected from the park and the man who had been whipped also escaped.

WATTERSON, JR., IN TROUBLE.—The resignation of First Lieutenant Henry Watterson, Jr., of the Twenty-ninth United States infantry, has been accepted by the war department. He is the son of Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal.

It is said that Lieutenant Watterson was found to have duplicated his pay account. He had been on furlough for several months in advance before leaving for the Philippines, and on his arrival there, it is said, he drew it again, making a shortage of about $400. He was to have been tried by court martial, but offered to refund the money and resign, which offer was accepted by the war department. It is supposed that Lieutenant Watterson lost the money playing cards on the transport on the way to Manila.

Lieutenant Watterson served in the war with Spain as private and afterward corporal in Company C, First Kentucky volunteer infantry, being mustered out on February 24, 1899. On June 1, 1899, he was commissioned second lieutenant in the regular army and assigned to the Tenth infantry. He was promoted to a first lieutenant on February 1, 1901, and transferred to the Twenty-ninth infantry.

HIGHLIGHTED AND HONORABLE. Columbia special of Wednesday to the Greenville News: The name of Superintendent McMahan has been prominently mentioned in The News and Courier in connection with the presidency of the South Carolina college, and in a statement by him tonight he clearly sets forth his position and says: "I keenly appreciate the compliment of the suggestion, but I can not accept the position, if it were offered to me, since I led in the removal of Dr. Woodward. Moreover nothing could tempt me to give up my present work sooner than I am forced to do so by the expiration of the term to which I was elected."

Southern Railway Dining Cars. The Southern Railway is making an especial feature of its dining car service on many of its through trains, and in order to make dining cars more attractive than ever, are now equipping all of these cars with electric fans and electric lights. A number of the dining cars on through trains between Atlanta and New York have been equipped with electric fans and electric lights, and these improvements will continue until all of the dining cars on the Southern system will have these advantages.

There are very few roads in the world that have electric lights and electric fans in their dining cars and this improvement will add much to the already excellent dining car service of the Southern railway.

NEW GOODS.

WE are hearing from Mr. J. M. HEATH, who has been in the northern markets during the past ten days, in the shape of boxes and bales of merchandise. These boxes and bales have been coming in during the past few days, and we are now busy getting them in shape to show to the people.

It is impossible at this writing to give a complete catalogue of all the new goods we are receiving. No invoices have arrived yet and it has been impossible to open any considerable proportion of the boxes. We are sure, however, that Mr. Heath has NEGLECTED NO DEPARTMENT OF OUR BIG ESTABLISHMENT. When he left here it was with the intention of sending back an elaborate selection of FINE DRESS GOODS, covering the whole range of STYLE, QUALITY AND PRICE. He also had in view the LARGEST STOCK OF READY-MADE CLOTHING we have ever seen proper to put in stock, with lines of SHOES and HATS to match. From the looks of the goods we have opened and from the piles of boxes still to be opened, we can say that the goods are either here or are coming. We will give fuller and more complete details next week. WATCH FOR THE LIST.
